The Scotch Whisky chosen by the Red Cross Society, London, for use by the invalided troops and hospitals in South Africa, is the famous WHITE HORSE CELLAR brand of MacKie & Co., Distillers, Limited, I-lay and Glasgow, one of the oldest firms in the trade.

On intimation of this, Messrs MacKie, with usual generosity, presented 200 cases free of charge, and shipped them by first steamer to the Cape.

One of the family is a volunteer in the Imperial Yeomanry, and on his way now to the Cape. It is hoped that he may give a good account of himself.

The Frenchman Smiled.

"Pardon me, but why do you wear ze piece of meat ovaire your eye?" inquired the French scholar of the governor of New York.

The latter had just been illustrating his views on strenuous life by receiving a damaging blow from his boxing master's fist.

"Because of the biff," replied the governor.

The Frenchman looked puzzled. Then he smiled.

"Ah, I see!" he cried. "Eet ees a biffsteak!" And he gravely set it down in his notebook.

Diplomatic. "I am sorry you asked me for that small loan just now," exclaimed the friend. "It is a coincidence that has developed annoying frequency."

"I'm sorry if I have troubled you," said Mr. Fucash.

"No trouble except a sense of disappointment. You see, my uncle is always writing me letters of advice. He is continually telling me to learn to say 'no,' and your little requests always seem to come just when I am practicing."

Why the Painter Hurried. The Irishman was painting his barn, and he was hurrying his work with all his strength and speed, says the Utica Observer.

"What are you in such a hurry for, Murphy?" asked a spectator.

"Sure, I want to get through before me paint runs out," was the reply.

Her Literary Pretense. "Did you ever read Gray's 'Elegy In a Country Churchyard?'"

The fair young girl looked puzzled, but only for a moment.

"Yes, indeed," she answered. "I have read it in a country churchyard and lots of other places."—Washington Star.

One or the Other. "Henderson tells me he means to name his new boy George."

"Old or new style?"

"What do you mean?"

"Washington or Dewey?"—Indianapolis Journal.

Good at One Thing. "I wish I was fitted for some business pursuit," she said.

"You're pretty good at monologues," he replied, "and people have made a good living at that before now."—Chicago Post.

DANGER ON THE PRAIRIES.

Alkali in Great Source of Trouble in Northwest.

OAK LAKE, Man., Feb. 5.—One of the great drawbacks to life in the great Canadian wheat belt, is the presence of alkali in the water. This is a prolific source of kidney and bladder trouble and it is for this reason that Dodd's Kidney Pills are becoming indispensable in this district.

Frank Collesau, of Oak Lake writes: "It gives me great pleasure to testify to the excellent curative qualities of Dodd's Kidney Pills. About two years ago I was attacked with kidney disease and severe pains in the back. A friend of mine advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I did so and six boxes cured me. My back has not troubled me since."

W. Chase, America's greatest physician. This great kidney cure is sold by all dealers at 25 cents a box, and has proved most effectual as a remedy for the many ills to which woman is subject.
