

Women

Annex Boud. Women's Editor, Phone 4-6526

The Guardian, Charlottetown, Tues., Mar. 20, 1962

HAPPENINGS

The Prince of Wales College glee clubs will be presenting Gilbert and Sullivan's "HMS Pinafore" at the Prince of Wales Auditorium this evening. Joe Hyndman has the leading tenor role in the production and the leading male role is filled by Lewis Newnham. The supporting players are Sylvia Phillips as Hebe; Nancy White as Buttercup; Paul Whelan, as Dick Daudrey; Brian Wannocot as Ralph Rackstraw; and Jim Matheson as Boatwain.

The last time Charlottetown audiences had a chance to see a production of HMS Pinafore was a number of years ago when students at Prince Street School under the direction of the late Lillian Mackenzie performed the operetta.

Christopher Gledhill, director of music for the province, is directing this evening's presentation.

Dr. Jean MacLeod of Toronto spent the past week with his father, Dr. Stewart MacLeod, Kensington, and her mother, Mrs. MacLeod who is making a good recovery after undergoing surgery at the Prince County Hospital, Summerside.

Mrs. Russell MacKay was returned to her home at Kensington after receiving treatment at the Prince County Hospital, Summerside.

Miss Emeline MacLeod returned to her home at Irish town on Wednesday after spending the past two weeks at Clinton, guest of her niece Mrs. William Heaney, Mr. Heaney and family.

Douglas Johnson, Margate, student at Kensington Regional High School, has returned to his classes after being a patient in the Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. Leighton Coulson, Sea View, is a patient in the Prince County Hospital, Summerside.

Mr. Charles Bearino, Kensington, is reported to be resting comfortably after undergoing surgery at the Prince County Hospital, Summerside.

Mr. Charles Bearino, Kensington, is reported to be resting comfortably after undergoing surgery at the Prince County Hospital, Summerside.

Delia Pineau and Lorne Doran, both of Hope River, P.E.I., received their babies at St. Mary's Cathedral on Sunday, March 18. The reception of her babies at the ceremony was at the Lord Nelson Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkinson, Springfield West, left Toronto to spend a three month vacation in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Leard, of Alberton, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Campbell, Summerside.

Mrs. Pearl Bernard, St. Eleanors, returned home after spending a few days with friends and relatives in Alberton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkinson, of Springfield West, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Riley, of St. Eleanors.

Ten tables of progressive auction were in play at a card party held at Kelvin Grove School on Thursday night. Edgar Miller won the high prize for ladies, and Morris Casley the high prize for men. Consolation prizes went to Miss Beulah Moore and Errol Waugh. A delicious lunch was served. The party was under the direction of Mrs. Eric MacMurdo. Mrs. Gerald Miller, Mrs. Don Reeves and Mrs. Joan Picketts.

Mrs. George MacLean and daughter, Mrs. Betty, returned to their home at Hampton, N.B., on Thursday after visiting the funeral of her great uncle, the late George Hogg at Summerside on Wednesday.

H. BENNETT CARE
Insurance Consulting
Dist. Spn. Sun Life of Canada
Phone 4-6817 - 4-6453
Charlottetown, P.E.I.

CHILDREN'S WEAR SALE
Rack Children's COAT SETS (Size 4-6x) and COATS (sizes 7 to 12 years) clearing at $9.95 EA.
Assorted TEEN SUITS & COATS $5.95
Sizes 10-14x, clearing at & $5

Last Season's COTTON DRESSES 1/2 PRICE
The Misses HOLMES & BRADLEY
150 Queen St. Dial 4-3414

Sauare. Crescent Toes Don't Enjoy Popularity In Canada
By EDNA BLARELY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
There's something for everyone in the new collection of spring fashions.

Shoes are available in a variety of toe shapes and heel heights. Hats come with and without brims. Coats have collars, or no collars, and colors range the gamut of the rainbow.

But amid all the variety some definite trends are indicated in a survey by The Canadian Press.

Although women like slim high heels for evening wear and the bulky stacked heels for walking shoes, the lower heel is being worn by women from coast to coast.

Canadian women have failed to accept the square or crescent toe to any extent, and still prefer the pointed variety.

In hats, brims are the big news, and they are worn either up or down. Brimless and tall are being shown with tailored clothes, but the stouch hat made popular by Greta Garbo is a fashion leader. Pillboxes and turbans are also being shown.

Straw brims and flowers are popular, and one Regina store has stocked a variety of many colors.

Dresses fit the body gently, and even tailored shirts are softened with ruffles. Navy is the top color, but the blue shades are being shown.

Popular are black prints, many of them in beige and black. Off-beat orange and pink shades are expected to be heralded by summer.

VARED SUITS
Suits and coats come in a variety of styles, some softly fitted and others full. Suit jackets are short or long and belted. Some coats fit gently to the bustline, then fall from the waist to a wider, flared hemline. This Princess line is also seen in dresses.

In the Maritimes, ruffles turn up on both dresses and blouses. In Ontario, a twist shirt worn outside slims has a full seam to the bottom.

Two-hued shoes are being shown in Montreal, Ottawa, Regina and Edmonton. One Ottawa store is promoting odd shoes for daytime wear.

Other regional trends include the return of the classic double-breasted, chestiered coat in Montreal, and a trend toward Whited tweed is the color of many coats and suits being seen in dresses.

Whited tweed is the color of many coats and suits being seen in dresses. In blue turning up in sports clothes, but the stouch hat made popular by Greta Garbo is a fashion leader.

Pillboxes and turbans are also being shown. Straw brims and flowers are popular, and one Regina store has stocked a variety of many colors.

Dresses fit the body gently, and even tailored shirts are softened with ruffles. Navy is the top color, but the blue shades are being shown.

Popular are black prints, many of them in beige and black. Off-beat orange and pink shades are expected to be heralded by summer.

SIX IN FIRE
CUMBERLAND, Md. (AP) - A fire, "anned by a brick wind, razed through a row of dwellings Saturday, killing seven persons—six of them children. Mrs. Betty Froyer, Kintop's, the child-rearer were among the victims. They were Michael, 11; John, 6; Tammy, 3; and Kathy, 1. The other victims were believed to be Mrs. Grace Nery, 29, and her two children, Michael, 5, and Johnny, 3.

Brighten Your Spring!
See our new cotton dresses to wear NOW and through Spring & Summer

MEDICAL PHARMACY
here to serve you ANY hour of the day or night.
CALL 4-6623
for 24 hour service

MEDICAL PHARMACY
154 St. George St.
Richmond St. Ch'own
Dial 4-4714

GLORIA Ladies' Wear
154 St. George St.
Richmond St. Ch'own
Dial 4-4714

APPROXIMATELY 250 persons attended the annual "Shamrock Tea" sponsored by the ladies auxiliary of 201 (Confederation) Wing of the RCAF Association, on Saturday afternoon, the tea, which was held in the association club rooms on Gratton Street.

Shamrock Is Theme Of Tea Held By Association Auxiliary

The ladies auxiliary of 201 (Confederation) Wing of the RCAF Association held the 17th annual "Shamrock Tea" on Saturday afternoon at the association club rooms on Gratton Street.

Approximately 250 persons attended the affair which was convened by Mrs. Byron Burns. The co-conveners were Mrs. James Currie and Mrs. Joseph Gill. Left to right are: Mrs. Currie, Mrs. N. N. Larabee, president of the auxiliary; Mrs. B. Burns; Mrs. J. A. Atkinson and Mrs. Gill.

In keeping with the tradition of the Shamrock Tea, tea and tea tables were decorated in an Irish motif. The main table was decorated with a green and red floral centerpiece flanked by green and red candelabras, while the small individual tables were centered with a daffodil in a shamrock trimmed vase.

Pouring were Mrs. Percy

ELLEN'S DIARY

Purchase Of Home Sours Mother-in-Law On Marriage

"Real mud-digging weather, this is, Ellen" James offered, stopping at the door to look out a moment to the new of this morning. Crisp the days came to us now, and the sun shined the crust of the snow, that bear us off with a pan of wood-ashes from the kitchen and spread on a meadow. "Now make sure there are no nails in it, or other pieces of hardware that the cat is to pick up through the summer," we remind ourselves in James' words.

"What a clean time of day, the early morning is to find to such stores, before the March sun commences his thawing about it. Both tractor and horse-drawn spruce this farm has enjoyed of late. By road the former carries feed to the stock at the farm, while the latter spreads the cleanings from the stables and sties here to this and that heap in the fields. Today the little truck, a truly versatile machine of the farm, moved up from here's end where it was being called throughout the winter days, to the yard.

"But the winter's not yet dead," the younger farmer said. "What have the odd storm."

"We find no winter's Spring's promise about. We hear it in the crow-call from the upland fields, or after all this is the crown and month. We see it in the flash of bluejays wings down in the spruces by the dam, or come up to gleam in the orchard. Hear it too in the farmers' conversations which tend now to reckon the requirements of fertilizer they will need, the seeds too and the extras for this and that machine of the seedling ahead.

"This morning in a definite sign, we saw Mack bend over the bicycle he had brought out to us now, and the wind, the wind, and the wind, inspecting it there. At length he straightened up, smiling from the kitchen and spread on a meadow. "Yes," he said, "It is as I suspected. She'll need a new piece of hardware that the cat is to pick up through the summer," we remind ourselves in James' words.

"What a clean time of day, the early morning is to find to such stores, before the March sun commences his thawing about it. Both tractor and horse-drawn spruce this farm has enjoyed of late. By road the former carries feed to the stock at the farm, while the latter spreads the cleanings from the stables and sties here to this and that heap in the fields. Today the little truck, a truly versatile machine of the farm, moved up from here's end where it was being called throughout the winter days, to the yard.

"But the winter's not yet dead," the younger farmer said. "What have the odd storm."

"We find no winter's Spring's promise about. We hear it in the crow-call from the upland fields, or after all this is the crown and month. We see it in the flash of bluejays wings down in the spruces by the dam, or come up to gleam in the orchard. Hear it too in the farmers' conversations which tend now to reckon the requirements of fertilizer they will need, the seeds too and the extras for this and that machine of the seedling ahead.

"This morning in a definite sign, we saw Mack bend over the bicycle he had brought out to us now, and the wind, the wind, and the wind, inspecting it there. At length he straightened up, smiling from the kitchen and spread on a meadow. "Yes," he said, "It is as I suspected. She'll need a new piece of hardware that the cat is to pick up through the summer," we remind ourselves in James' words.

"What a clean time of day, the early morning is to find to such stores, before the March sun commences his thawing about it. Both tractor and horse-drawn spruce this farm has enjoyed of late. By road the former carries feed to the stock at the farm, while the latter spreads the cleanings from the stables and sties here to this and that heap in the fields. Today the little truck, a truly versatile machine of the farm, moved up from here's end where it was being called throughout the winter days, to the yard.

"But the winter's not yet dead," the younger farmer said. "What have the odd storm."

"We find no winter's Spring's promise about. We hear it in the crow-call from the upland fields, or after all this is the crown and month. We see it in the flash of bluejays wings down in the spruces by the dam, or come up to gleam in the orchard. Hear it too in the farmers' conversations which tend now to reckon the requirements of fertilizer they will need, the seeds too and the extras for this and that machine of the seedling ahead.

IDA BAILEY ALLEN

BOAC Steward Instructs On Serving Of Cheeses

We went up the stairs in the huge BOAC building at the London, England, Airport and walked into the most interesting classroom I ever visited.

Cabin Service Instructor Mr. Victor Partridge, in uniform, was on the platform. Back of him was a huge keyboard listing 30 to 40 cheeses.

ASIAN STUDENTS
Watching intently was a class of about 20 bilingual young Asian men and women attending a class on the service of assorted cheeses, which they had never seen or tasted but which, before long, they would be serving on BOAC planes covering the Orient.

"There is no cheese native to the Far East. So how would you explain to a people who had never seen or tasted it the way cheese is made and how the various flavors are created."

BAKED PEA MERINGUE
FROM THE CHEF
1 (No. 2) can pears, drained
8 thin half-slices lemon
3 cloves
2 tsp. sugar, preferably brown

1 tsp. butter or margarine
1/2 pk. meringue mix
Layer pears in shallow baking dish. Tuck in lemon slices and 3 cloves. Dot with butter.

Stir brown sugar into half the syrup drained from pears. Pour into baking dish. Cover.

Bake 30 minutes in moderate oven, 375 degrees.

When half-baked, border with 1/2 pk. meringue mix prepared according to pkg. directions. Bake 15 minutes more at 325 degree to 350 degree.

Serve warm or cold.

THE CHEF'S INVITATION
Tomorrow we invite you to join us in a luncheon served in a mock-up plane cabin by young Asian trainees.

Mrs. J. L. Doyle Is Honored By Sherwood Pack

Mrs. J. Leslie Doyle, Sherwood, who was the brown owl of the Sherwood Browne Pack, was given an honor at a farewell gathering held by the members of the local association of the brownie pack, in conjunction with the final meeting of the pack.

Mrs. Doyle is leaving Sherwood to take up residence in the Victoria district.

Mrs. Arthur Roper, on behalf of the gathering, said that the brownie pack is proud to have in the community and that she will be missed by all, but especially by the brownies who have been under her leadership throughout the year. Mrs. Roper thanked the efficient financial officer, and the work in the community and a token of affection and appreciation was presented Mrs. Doyle by the local association, a d another gift was presented her by Mrs. Osborne, on behalf of the sponsoring organizations.

Following the presentations refreshments were served and the brownie pack presented an original sketch, followed by closing exercises and the grand hour.

CHILDREN'S WEAR SALE
Rack Children's COAT SETS (Size 4-6x) and COATS (sizes 7 to 12 years) clearing at $9.95 EA.
Assorted TEEN SUITS & COATS $5.95
Sizes 10-14x, clearing at & $5

Last Season's COTTON DRESSES 1/2 PRICE
The Misses HOLMES & BRADLEY
150 Queen St. Dial 4-3414

CHILDREN'S WEAR SALE Rack Children's COAT SETS (Size 4-6x) and COATS (sizes 7 to 12 years) clearing at $9.95 EA.

CHILDREN'S WEAR SALE Rack Children's COAT SETS (Size 4-6x) and COATS (sizes 7 to 12 years) clearing at $9.95 EA.