

NAUGHTY.

Somebody's lips were close to mine;
Thus tempted I couldn't resist.
Roguish and rosy, a sweet little mouth
Was suddenly softly kissed.

Somebody's eyes looked up and frowned
With such a reproving glance.
"If kisses were wicked?" I asked my pet;
Then the eyes began to dance.

And smiling, the little maid answered,
As I knelt there at her feet:
"They must be a little bit naughty,
Or they never would be so sweet."

TIME FLIES.

BY LAURA SANFORD.

Time flies:
But with what wings?
With wings of butterflies,
To joy it clings,
Now here, now there.—Who sighs
For joy, finds joy and dies.

Time flies:
But with what wings?
With wings of bees it hies,
Who works and sings
In rich content all day,
Will bear bright gold away.

Time flies:
But with what wings?
With wings of birds to skies,
Where sunlight flings
Wide open heaven's door,
Life! light! who cares for more?

Time flies:
But with what wings?
With angel wings it tries
To lift low things
Up from the heavy sod,
Up from earth's griefs to God!

That 'ere Dog.

At noon yesterday there was a piece of bedcord, a dog and a man on the Woodward avenue portico of the City Hall. If the dog could have had his say about it he would probably have offered the man for sale at a low figure; but the dogs in this country are dumb. It was the man who explained:
"Yes, this 'ere dog is for sale. I kinder thought when I left home that I wouldn't take less'n $10 for him, but I find on gittin' here that most everybody owns five or six dogs apiece, and so I s'pose I'll have to come down to six or seven dollars. I hate to do it, though. If the old woman wasn't wearing a horse blanket for a skirt and the children barefooted, I wouldn't part with this dog even up for the biggest rhinoceros in Barnum's hall collection."

"Any mean traits about him?" inquired the citizen.
"Waal, no," slowly replied the owner, "not any downright mean trick."
"Then why do you wish to sell him?"
"Waal, I can't lie, even to sell a dog and as bad as the old woman wants a new skirt. The fact is, we've kinder lost confidence in Bozer, and the old woman, in pertickler, is down on him."

"How was it?"
"I don't keer about the dog's hearin' what I say," replied the man as he lowered his voice and drew off a little. "You see, he took the durndest streak on you ever heard of. One day he left home and come back with a wallet in his mouth. There was $600 in it. Next day he brought home a diamond ear-ring. Next night he came home with a gold watch and chain, and on his next trip he brought home a thousand dollars in greenbacks. In the course of the last month this 'ere dog has brought home over ten lost pocket-books, seven gold watches, five diamond rings, and six wolf robes."

"Great heavens! but is that so?" exclaimed the citizen, looking the dog over anew.
"Yes, that is so, and that's why we've lost confidence in him, and why I want to sell him. I'm afraid he don't come by those things honestly, and they are a burden on my conscience. The old woman has turned everything over to the Sheriff to be restored, and she says if we keep the dog we're aiding and abetting robbery."

"If I take the dog I shall simply keep him in the barn," observed the citizen.
"Just so. If you let him out he'll find a lost wallet, sure."
"I shall see that he remains locked up day and night, my honest friend, and, by the way, let me compliment you on your rare display of conscience. You deserve the thanks of every honest man. Here are $7 for your dog."

"Thank you," was the humble reply, and that meek and humble look didn't leave the man's face until the dog and his new owner had turned a corner. Then he didn't say anything. He merely gave vent to a chuckle which sounded like ice breaking off a mansard roof in a thawing day and coming down on a lot of scrap-iron.—Detroit Free Press.

NEURALGIA.—A very simple relief for neuralgia is to boil a small handful of lobelia in half a pint of water till the strength is out of the herb, then strain it off and add a teaspoonful of fine salt. Wring clothes out of the liquid as hot as possible, and spread over the part affected. It acts like a charm. Change the clothes as soon as cold till the pain is all gone; then cover the place with a soft, dry covering till perspiration is over to prevent taking cold. Rheumatism can often be relieved by application to the painful parts of clothes wet in a weak solution of sal soda water. If there is inflammation in the joints, the cure is very quick. The wash should be lukewarm.

"THE ENAMORADO"
A DRAMA IN V. ACTS,
—BY—
HUNTER DUVAR

THE above interesting book is for sale at all the Bookstores on the Island.
Col. Duvar is happy in having selected for the theme of his drama, one of the most romantic incidents of a romantic and soldierly time. The scene is laid in Spain, amid all the accessories of grave and gay, love and chivalry, poetry and song, with room for the display of many types of character,—knights and ladies, priests and soldiers, courtiers and peasants, cooks and clowns. Many lyrics in the author's best style are interspersed in the dialogue, which is, in general, quaint and sparkling.
Price: Paper cover, 50 cents; in cloth, 75 cents.

CATARRH.

Constitutional Catarrh Remedy
CURES CATARRH.

Hear what a Reverend Gentleman says of the Constitutional Remedy.

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, Ont.:—
"DEAR SIR—It is now two years since your 'Constitutional Catarrh Remedy' was introduced to me. I have waited this long to see if the cure would remain permanent before doing this, my duty, to you, as at first the happy effects seemed to me to be 'too good to be true.'"

I was afflicted in my head for years before I suspected it to be Catarrh. In reading in your Circular I saw my case described in many particulars. The inward 'drop' from the head had become very disagreeable, and a choking sensation often preventing me from lying long, I would feel like smothering and be compelled to sit up in the bed. My health and spirits were seriously affected. When your agent came to Walkertown in August, 1876, I secured three bottles. Before I had used a quarter of the contents of one bottle I found decided relief, and when I had used two bottles and a third, I quit taking it, feeling quite cured of that ailment, and have not used any since until of late I have taken some for a cold in my head. A sense of duty to sufferers from that loathsome disease, Catarrh, prompts me to send you this Certificate, unsolicited, with leave to make what use of it you may see proper. Yours truly,
W. TINDALL, Methodist Minister.

PSICUM POROUS PLASTERS.
The Greatest Medical Discovery since the Creation of Man, or since the Commencement of the Christian Era.

There never has been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. It is an undisputed fact that over half of the entire population of the globe resort to the use of ordinary plasters.

DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them, to act quicker than any other plaster they ever before tried, and that one of these plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different: the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect.

Physicians in all ages have thoroughly tested and well know the effect of Capsicum; and it has always been more or less used as a medical agent for an outward application; but it is only of very recent date that its advantages in a porous plaster have been discovered. Being, however, convinced of the wonderful cures effected by DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTERS, and their superiority over all other plasters, they now actually prescribe them, in their practice, for such diseases as rheumatism, pain in the side and back, and all such cases as have required the use of plasters or liniment. After you have tried other plasters and liniments, and they have failed, and you want a certain cure, ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER. You can hardly believe your own convictions of its wonderful effects. Although powerful and quick in its action, you can rely on its safety for the most delicate person to wear, as it is free from lead and other poisonous material commonly used in the manufacture of ordinary plasters. One trial is a sufficient guarantee of its merits, and one plaster will sell hundreds to your friends.
Ask your druggist for DR. MELVIN'S CAPSICUM POROUS PLASTER, and take no other; or, on receipt of 25 cents for one, $1 for five, or $2 for a dozen, they will be mailed, post paid, to any address in the United States or Canada.
