"GOD IS LOVE."
"Let gratitude in acts of goodness flow; Our love to God, in love to man below."

[To such as believe this to be their duty, the following verses are, with a view to the benefit of the poor, most respectfully and humbly inscribed by the Author.]

"I am all that is, was, or ever shall be; and no mortal has been able to raise the veil which covers my face."—Inscription on the facade of an ancient Egyptian Temple.

"All that has ever been I am, That is or e'er will be, Unchanging, through unceasing change I am eternally!

In clouds and darkness, flame and light, Mysteriously I dwell; And of my nature none aright Can or conceive or tell!

For though in all man's active mind My power may surely trace, Yet has he ne'er attain'd to raise 'The veil that shrouds my face!'

'Twas thus of God Egyptia wrote, When glory fill'd her land; And kings in search of wisdom sought Old Nilus' letter'd strand.

When her swart race, all men beside In arts and arms excell'd; And she to tribute, all the East Triumphantly compell'd.

When cities, temples, palaces, All skill and mystic lore, Made her, of arts and sciences, The treasure house and store:

Ev'n then, when her illum'd mind Knew God was ever nigh, Pervading, filling, moulding all, In ocean, earth and sky;—

And great this knowledge was indeed— Great, wonderful and true;— Yet, of God's nature, she no more Than mindless matter knew,

She knew that he was all in all, Around, beneath, above; Yet knew she not this glorious truth, "The great I am is Love!"

This great this everlasting truth By Christ to man was taught, In deeds of mercy, and in words, With love and wisdom fraught.

And every heart, where it has found A sanctified abode, A living temple it has made, "Not built with hands" to God.

And men so bless'd, and none but such Are "men of God" indeed, Who, by their love to all mankind, Prove "God is Love" their creed.

They are not His who fondly think That they are His alone, And deem, to Him, all men besides Are aliens, and unknown.

They are not His, who by the hand The sinner cannot take, And aid, by words and deeds of Love, His cruel bonds to break!

They are not His who all unmov'd The shivering wretch can see;— Unmov'd by Love,—can hear the cry Of famish'd agony!

Now, at this time, when thy free Love Redemption sent mankind, God grant we each by love subdued, May turn, with heavenly mind,

To wife or husband, child or friend, To parent, sister, brother; And, knowing that we all have sinned, Forgive and bless each other!

And now, when at this season here, Stark Winter's horrors reign, And Sin and Sorrow, Shame and Want, In sordid huts complain;

O may the love, the hearts of those, Whose stores thyself hath bless'd Constrain to seek, where'er they lie, And succor the distressed;

So shall "th' unrighteous mammon yield A blessing to the poor, And everlasting homes in Heaven The donors shall secure.

R. B. Irving.
Charlottetown, 20th Dec., 1863.

Watching the Beginnings.

To be a good Christian one needs to be a good watchman. The watchman's talent is a talent for discerning beginnings,—the scarcely visible beginnings of danger. Any dullard will know when the house is in a blaze; you want a watchman who will detect the faint odor of smoke half an hour before the blaze might burst forth. So any dullard in the Christian life will be able to tell when he has fallen into a wilful falsehood. What is needed is watchfulness to discern the silent working of the leaven of hypocrisy at the beginning. He that enters Christ's service does not undertake to keep from going to sleep; he undertakes to be on the watch while keeping wide awake.—Sunday School Times.

We never have more than we can bear. The present hour we are always able to endure. As our day, so is our strength— If the trials of many years were gathered into one, they would overwhelm us; therefore in pity to our little strength, he sends first one, then another, then removes both and lays on a third, heavier, perhaps than either but all is so wisely measured to our strength that the bruised reed is never broken. We do not look enough at our trials in this continuous and successive view. Each one is sent to teach something, and altogether they have a lesson which is beyond the power of any to teach alone.—H. E. Manning.

ASTHMA CAN BE CURED

And is Being Permanently Cured Daily by Clarke's Kola Compound—Here is What a Hamilton Lady Says:

Mrs. Gilbert, 105 Rebecca street, Hamilton, writes: "I suffered from a bad form of asthma for over nine years, and, notwithstanding all the doctors could do for me, got worse and worse, so that my neighbors looked for my death at any time. I spent money lavishly in the efforts to get relief, but all to no purpose. For six weeks at a time I could not get up or down stairs, and was in a miserable condition. My daughter, who clerks in a drug store, had heard a good deal of Clarke's Kola Compound, and urged me to try it as a last resort. I paid $2 for a bottle, but that is nothing, for it is worth more than that for every teaspoonful. Two doses gave me splendid relief, and, after using but one bottle, I am a marvel to all who know me. I am doing my own work, can get around as well as ever, and feel like a new creature. Clarke's Kola Compound has been a Godsend to me, and I look upon it as a marvelous remedy. You may use this testimony as you see fit, and I shall be glad to give fuller particulars to any one inquiring. I gratefully endorse Clarke's Kola Compound."

Cured of Lumbago by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

BERLIN, Feb. 13.—Everyone in Berlin knows Andrew House. He is a respected and prosperous resident, who numbers his friends by hundreds.

For over a year past, Mr. House was tormented by severe pains in his back, which increased in severity in spite of doctors and their medicines.

He was advised to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. He did so. That night he felt less pain. Daily the pains abated, and in less than two weeks, Dodd's Kidney Pills had cured him thoroughly.

There is only one sure and unfailing cure for Back-ache. That cure is Dodd's Kidney Pills. Experience has provided this thousands of times.
