Vern Barlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alward Barlow of Summerside, recently visited his grandmother, Mrs. Alice Barlow for several days.
Mrs. Laura Ayers of Brockton, Mass., recently visited friends in the vicinity and her brother Mr. Ed. MacDonald, who has been ill.
Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gaudet and two sons of Chatham, N. B., are spending some time here, due to the serious illness of Gordon's father, Mr. Archie Gaudet, former post master.
Sincere sympathy is being extended to Mr. Archie M. Arsenault in the recent passing of his beloved wife, also to other members of the family.
On Wednesday, June 11th, Mr. Waldron, accompanied by several members of Y. P. U. of this community, attended the Y. P. rally held in the United Church, Summerside.
On Monday, June 16th, Miss Gladys Barlow celebrated her 12th birthday. Several school chums gathered at her home and enjoyed games and a tasty lunch. Each guest presented her with a gift.
The Y. P. Union was held in the school on Tuesday night June 10th. A good attendance was on hand. Minutes were read and adopted and roll call taken. It was decided to hold a pantry sale on Saturday, June 21st. Remainder of the evening was spent in games and friendly chatter.
On Saturday afternoon, June 21st 14 young guests were invited to the home of Mrs. E. R. Bell, Park View Cottage in honor of Miss Bonnie Nicholson's 5th birthday. Games were enjoyed by all the youngsters and each one was presented with candy and a novelty by Mrs. Bell. Bonnie was the recipient of many nice tokens in remembrance of her birthday. Sup-

Malpeque Y. P. U. Closing Meeting

The Malpeque Young People's Union held the closing meeting of the season at the Manse. In the absence of the president, Donald Bearsto, the vice-president, Olive Howard presided.
A worship period, based on the theme "Choices" was led by Mary MacGougan, assisted by other members. A very helpful reading was given by Olive Howard.
Rev. Alexander MacKay led in prayer and conducted a study on "The Addition of Life" from 2 Peter 1:5-7.
A satisfactory financial report was submitted by the treasurer, George Lockhart. The following amounts were voted by the Union: $15.00 to the Dr. Gilchrist station wagon fund; $10.00 to the Mr. Allison Fund; $10.00 to the local Sunday School by mail and $10.00 to the United Church Training School. Copies of the "Upper Room" had been supplied to all the members and a contribution given to the United Churchman Fund. A substantial balance and a bond are retained in the bank in prospect of future local church projects.
Following the business period a Bible quiz was conducted and contests were enjoyed.
On behalf of the young people, Theo. Crozier and Ewen Huestis presented Mr. and Mrs. MacKay with a lovely zippered Bible. Both replied fittingly.
Mr. MacKay's service as Presbytery supply in the Princestown congregation terminates in June and he and Mrs. MacKay expect to move to their home in Apohaqui, N. B., early in July.
