Mr. R. A. Gordon, formerly of Summerside, has been named assistant general manager for the Canadian National Express with headquarters at Montreal.

Mayor J. D. Stewart stated last night at the monthly meeting of the City Council that a City delegation had waited on the Provincial Treasury Board to discuss a revision of the financial arrangements pertaining to taxation of public buildings in this city.

top tribunal ruled that since the case had not actually come before this Court for decision it should be returned for that purpose and as a result of the decision it was heard yesterday.

An inquest into the death last night of Mrs. James Gallant, Summerside, who was found dead at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Furze, 9 Alley street, where she was visiting at the time has been ordered by Coroner Dr. L. E. Prouse for Wednesday, December 19.

With higher consumer spending due to increased industrial production and employment in the coming year the demand for food products will remain good.

TORONTO, Dec. 10 (CP)—Edgar W. McInnis, 52-year-old Canadian historian, today was appointed to the newly-established presidency of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs.

The accident occurred about one mile west of Bradalbane Corner where the land leading to Mr. Hickox's residence joins the highway.

Although exact figures are not available it is expected that shipments of potatoes from this Province by water will be approximately 20 per cent lower this season than in recent previous crop years.

He said that from reports given and briefs submitted, a pretty fair barometer of the situation, as far as the coming year is concerned, can be obtained.

His appointment was announced at a special meeting of the National Council of the Institute which has 2,300 members in 25 branches across Canada.

The Supreme Court in banco yesterday unanimously upheld the validity of 1949 legislation conferring upon it jurisdiction in divorce.

—In the past six years, the Federal Government has paid out $174,666.95 or $29,111.16 annually in rent to Prince Edward Island landlords for accommodation in Charlottetown.

TUESDAY

A large group of approximately 150 new Canadians learned last night of the real hospitality of their adopted country when they were guests at a special Christmas party at the Clover Club given by the Canadian Citizenship Council for their benefit.

The Supreme Court in banco yesterday ruled that the Statute of Limitations barred the claim of A. Mott Stewart against the Maritime Electric Company Limited for injury to his leg while employed by the Company.

Two persons from South Rustico are dead and three others are in hospital at Summerside as the result of a level crossing accident yesterday about 2 p. m. at Travellers Rest.

Prince Edward Island is gradually being forced out of potato production as a result of exorbitant freight rates and increasing production costs, it is maintained in a brief submitted last week to the Board of Transport Commissioners at Ottawa on behalf of the potato industry here.

The Montague Town Council last night decided to take legal action against all persons whose town taxes are in arrears.

The fact that this Province produces an "abnormal" quantity of potatoes in relation to its needs was emphasized yesterday by Mr. K. M. Martin, K.C., counsel for the nominal defendant, H. B. Willis Inc., in a reference before the Supreme Court to the orders of the Potato Marketing Board.

Increases effected since April 7, 1948, in railway freight rates, totalling 62.6 per cent, have had a direct impact on the Prince Edward Island potato industry with detrimental consequences as indicated by the drastic decline in potato acreage," the brief states.

At a meeting of representative Alberton citizens held in the court house, the need for another doctor in the community was discussed.

Yesterday, Dec. 10, was the deadline for the paying of tax arrears, and all unpaid following that date were to be subject to legal proceedings.

Mr. H. F. MacPhee, K.C., was appointed by the Court to present opposing argument. There was no intervention by any other party.

Dr. A. M. Lawley of North Sydney, a graduate of Dalhousie now interning at the Prince Edward Island Hospital, who will be ready to set up a practice in the spring, was present at the meeting to consider with the citizens the possibility of his locating in Alberton if need for another doctor existed.

At the hearing of the Reference, the Attorney-General supported the validity of the 1949 amendment; Mr. H. F. MacPhee, K.C., was appointed by the Court to present opposing argument. There was no intervention by any other party.
