

PREDICTIONS FOR 83

The SUN's resident psychic, Rocco Marguzian, has just released his list of peerless prognostications for U.P.E.I. in 1983. His crystal ball gazing reveals that: - fire ball reliever Woody Fryman becomes president of U.P.E.I. following a deal that sends phenom Peter Meincke to Expos, who agreed to buy out his 7.5 million dollar contract over the next ten years. Woody takes to beaning long winded speakers at Senate Meetings hanging curves. Meincke shelled for 17 runs in the first inning. - Brian Brennan abducted by U.F.O. Returns 10 pounds lighter, a confirmed vegetarian. - Elizabethan literature linked to cancer of the thyroid. Enrollment drops off. - Library receives 7-11 franchise; open 24 hours a day. Slurpies for reference use only. - Business Students complain 100 level electives too demanding. University introduces 000 level courses. Sample course offering; Geology 000 (Mud for Morons)- a careful investigation of important differences between muck, mud and slime. Text: The Norton Anthology of Dirt. - Giant Stapler invade Campus. - Senate prohibits use of walls in dormitories as cost saving measure. - Tony Carroll, reporter emeritus, has an eventful '83. Not only is he nominated for Pulitzer (and subsequently disqualified for consideration after stating that the nominating committee is comprised of "bald heads who only have two friends, themselves and their wives", and the rights to his magnum opus "Issues on the System" are bought by movie producer Francis Ford Coppola. Competition for the role of Tony is fierce between Slim Whitman, the late Marty Feldman and the mechanical shark from "Jaws". - Hockey team sacks orphanage following penalty free game. - L.M. jailed for heading Soviet spy ring. Poems deciphered; found to be coded military intelligence messages to a "Boris K." in Souris. - Planetarium lifts off and orbits Earth. Orbit decays. TeenAge Head crushed by falling Planetarium. - 16 Biology students cram inside Beaker to break long standing world record. - Marian Hall turned into maximum security prison. Only renovations are: Change sign and combination lock on the front door. - Security Department valiantly repulse giant staplers. - September 29, 1983- Barn not broken into. - Board of Health Investigation reveals Saga and Maritime insulation confusing shipments. Homeowners urged to check attics for missing turkey salad. - U.P.E.I. blows entire '83 Budget on feasibility studies for pink kangaroo reserve. - Unnamed engineer champions women's rights. Mugged by slide-rule wielding vigilante, - Joe Clark resigns. Gary Webster elected leader of Federal P.C. Party in landslide. - Paper taken over by organized crime. SUN members provided with press cars and expense accounts. We'd like to thank Rocco Marguzian for his predictions, but we can't. He was last seen swimming for Cape Breton. If these predictions don't pan out, we're gonna break every bone in his gypsy body. And if they do, we're still gonna break every bone in his gypsy body. That's just the kind of people we are.

MINISTER COMMENDS CORPORATE CUP RELAY RACE--January 6, 1983

Gordon Lank, Minister of Community and Cultural Affairs, responsible for fitness, today commended the West Royalty Fitness Centre and Hilton Canada for their promotion and sponsorship of the Corporate Cup Relay Race scheduled for February 12th, 17th, and 26th at the West Royalty Fitness Centre.

The basic objective of the Corporate Cup is to promote individual fitness among island workers. "Recent Studies indicate that fitness among employees leads to better work production, less absenteeism, and better working morale," the Minister said.

Any company, Business or Government agency qualifies to enter a minimum of 6 people (3 men, 3 women) to a maximum of 8.

"I am pleased that the Housing Corporation and the Department of Community and Cultural Affairs have entered a team in the Corporate Cup Relay and I urge other government departments to do likewise," Mr. Lank said.

For more information or if you are interested in entering a team, please call Bill Simmons at the Spa at 566-1420 before the entry deadline date on January 17th.
