DEATH NOTICE

ALEXANDER K. STEWART
 Relatives and friends were deeply saddened to hear of the sudden passing away of Alexander K. Stewart at his home in Hamilton, Ontario, in his 36th year. Loved and tenderly cared for by his wife Rosalie and daughter Joyce, he could not stay the call of death. God had plans for Alex as he was called to the Navy Nov. 30, 1939, trained for a while in Canada, then went overseas as a signaller on the Sheena. Although young in years he saw a lot of the world and its hardships.

After the war he lived for a while in Halifax; later with his family moved to Hamilton where they made their home. When the news came of Alex's death, his sisters Zella, Marguerette, and brother Floyd and brother-in-law Jack left immediately for Hamilton.

The funeral was at the L. G. Wallace Funeral Home and a very large crowd attended. The service was conducted by Rev. I. G. M. Bryan, minister of St. Colomba Presbyterian Church. Over 50 floral tokens were a silent tribute to the esteem of the departed.

He leaves to mourn the passing of a loving husband, father, son and brother, his wife Rosalie; two children, Joyce and Kaye; his parents Neil and Marion Stewart, Long Creek; two brothers, (Floyd) Charlottetown, Claude at home; four sisters (Zella) Mrs. Jack Yellowgaw, Charlottetown; (Joyce) Mrs. Joe Barras, Toronto; (Marguerette), Mrs. Edison
