Pioneers Win Carleton and Vicinity From Vitas 8-3

A postponed game played last night at Summerside the Pioneers defeated the Vitas 8-3 to place them second in the league standing.

Lidstone, Larkin, Millman led the batting for the Pioneers, Lidstone having three hits, Larkin and Millman two each. Wilson on the mound for Pioneers turned in a good game allowing Vitas only two hits.

The next game will be played this evening between the Victorias of Charlottetown and the Ill-Stars of Summerside at 6:15 in an exhibition game.

Pioneers Win Carleton and Vicinity From Vitas 8-3

Miss Agnes Linkletter, assistant superintendent of Lincoln Hospital, New York City, arrived Friday evening on a holiday visit to her sister, Mrs. Fred Bell of Carleton, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Linkletter of Summerside, and her brother, Mr. Stanley Linkletter and Mrs. Linkletter of St. Eleanors.

The many friends of Mrs. James N. Campbell of Cape Traverse, are glad to learn that her condition is much improved. She is a patient in the Prince County Hospital.

Mrs. Ralph Steele and small son, Robert, of Allston, Mass., arrived Friday evening to spend the summer with relatives and friends on the Island.

The many friends of Mrs. John A. Deegan, who is receiving treatment in the Prince County Hospital, are convealing and expects to be able to return to her home in the near future.

Mrs. Thomas MacCarville of Carleton, has as her welcome guests Mrs. Richard B. Davis and son Jack of Brighton, Mass.

Mr. Stewart MacKicken of Carleton Craft Dairy Farm, left Thursday for a motor trip through New Brunswick, and part of Maine. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Edith Sobey of Searstown.

The many friends of Mrs. Hedley Muttart of Carleton, regret to learn that she has been admitted to the Prince County Hospital for treatment, and hope for her speedy recovery.

A most enjoyable feature of the service at Cape Traverse United Church last Sunday night was a solo, beautifully rendered by Mr. Barker Senior, Frederickton, N. B. His selection was a lovely setting of "O Come To My Heart, Lord Jesus."

Sister James Marie, of Minneapolis, Minn., is a welcome guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James N. Campbell, Cape Traverse.

As champion dancer of the Maritime Provinces, and her surprise appearance on this occasion, in compliment to the "coach" who had accompanied the contestants in their medal-winning trips in years gone by, created unbounded enthusiasm.

Another popular number was a vocal duet, "Whispering Hope," by Mrs. R. C. McFree and her brother Michael McIntyre. Their performance demonstrated amply that both singers still possess that charm of voice that made them such favorites in public performances of other years, and they were accorded a well merited encore.

Last, but by no means least, came the violin music by Peter Chaisson with organ accompaniment, and an impromptu step-dance by Miss Mary D. McDonald appearing in the play as "Nora Malone." Although the hour was quite late, those performers were repeatedly recalled, both the music and dancing proving especially popular.

In addition to the specialties already enumerated, there were patriotic choruses by a choir of about thirty school children. Under direction of Adolphus McDonald, teacher of Monticello School, with Mrs. Charles Kelly, President of the St. Margaret's O. W. L., as organist, they rendered, "O Canada," "The Red, White and Blue," "The Maple Leaf Forever," and joined also in the closing anthem, "God Save the King." Special scenery designed by A. J. MacAdam, under whose direction the play was produced, gave a very effective setting and the patriotic note of the chorus was emphasized by beautiful decorations of maple leaves, streamers, flags and a magnificent picture of the King and Queen having been received as a donation from Carter and Co. Ltd., Charlottetown. Thanks are also due Mr. J. Austin Trainor, C. D. A., for wigs and character clothing, and also in a very special degree to His Worship, Mayor Foster of Charlottetown, who gave prompt and personal attention to a request for use of an actual policeman's uniform, proving once more the truth expressed by Kipling how a real man

TIGNISH PICNIC Wednesday July 19

"can walk with kings nor lose the common touch." At the conclusion of the play a number of pies were auctioned off by Leonard Peters in front of a large crowd of people from those and from the sale of candy, together with the door receipts, amounted to a substantial sum, which goes eventually to the rebuilding fund of the Church.

The annual school closing of Auburn School took place the 29th of June.

The children were examined in their different grades by their respective teachers and assisted by Miss MacLellan of Fort Augustus School. All the children showed marked improvement, and the parents and visitors, who were present at the closing spoke in glowing terms of the good work of the pupils, and the careful teaching of Miss Curly the teacher.

A short programme followed: Recitation, Betty McGaughey, Betty's Cold, Recitation, The Lady Girl, Solo, Frances McCarran and Theresia MacIntyre, Frances MacIntyre, Theresa MacIntyre, Frances MacIntyre, Miss Doris Curly accompanied the girls on the Guitarr in her pleasing manner. While the children were enjoying a treat to home-made candy the Misses, Curly sang very effectively. The Examination was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. (Patriot Please Copy)

BRINGING UP FATHER

MR. JIGGS—NOW THAT I'VE MADE YOUR DAUGHTER AND DAUGHTER-IN-LAW AND GRAND-SON—I AM GOING TO ASK YOUR PERMISSION TO BRING MY SON OVER TO MEET YOUR DAUGHTER.

SURE—WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?

GAW.

CHEVY—TELL MY SON I WISH TO SPEAK TO HIM AND BRING ME A BUNCH OF CIGARETTES. CRUMPET—IT'S WARM—ISN'T IT? NEVER MIND TELLING ME—I'LL FIND OUT MYSELF.

VERY GOOD—SIR—BUT SHOULD YOU FIND IT DIFFICULT—I'LL BE BACK WITH TODAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

WALLACE—ADOLPHUS MCDONALD, THE POPULAR RADIO SOLOIST OF ST. JOHN, who had the rare distinction of being included in the chorus that sang in the reception program at Barracks Green, the Loyalty City, during the recent visit of Their Majesties the King and Queen: Violin music by J. D. MacAdam, with organ accompaniment by Mrs. Charles Kelly, this music being repeated most acceptably at intervals throughout the evening; Step-dance by Miss Maud O'Haney, enthusiastically accorded; Step-dance by Mrs. Leonard Peters, to violin music by Ernest McKinnon. In the dancing contests of about fifteen years ago this performer, then as a young girl, Miss Alberta Peters, won the gold medal

By George McManus

BOURBON TREY—MY SON—I'VE HAD A VERY CLOSE FRIEND AND I WANT YOU TO MEET HIS PRETTY DAUGHTER—I WANT YOU TO GO WITH ME AND MEET THEM AS THEY ARE LEAVING AND OUR KIND-NE-LAD.

JOLLY NICE OF YOU—PATER BUT I HAVE GOT A CHAT-UP WITH A LADY THIS AFTERNOON AND CAN'T VERY WELL TABOO IT.
