Dunsford-Harvey Wedding At Crapaud

A pretty wedding ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Ernest Harvey, Crapaud, when their elder daughter, Audrey Nicholson, became the bride of Charles Robert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Dunsford, Hampton.

During the playing of the Bridal Chorus by Mrs. R. L. Bacon, the winsome bride entered the living room on the arm of her father, where she took her place at the side of the groom beneath a beautifully decorated arch. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R. L. Bacon, pastor of Crapaud United Church.

The bride's gown was of white moire taffeta, made with fitted bodice and long sleeves, her shoulder length veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of pink delight roses. Her only attendant, little Jane Dunsford, four-year-old sister of the groom, looked very charming in her floor-length gown of pink dotted swiss fashioned like the bride's.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's marriage, an afternoon dress of navy blue crepe with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

The groom's mother wore a gown of teal blue with corsage of tallman roses.

After the ceremony luncheon was served at which Mrs. L. Caseley and Mrs. B. Wood poured tea and Juanita and Barbara, sisters of the bride and groom, served the guests. All repaired to the dining room later to witness the cutting of the beautifully decorated wedding cakes by the bride and groom.

The newlyweds left amid showers of confetti for a short motor trip, the bride choosing for travelling a blue-grey gabardine suit with navy accessories.

The large display of gifts from far and near testify to the esteem in which the young couple are held.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunsford are living in Summerside where the groom is at present stationed with the R. C. A. F.

Their many friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.
