Mr. Kenneth MacGregor, Kingsboro, left recently for Labrador where he will be employed as blacksmith. Previous to his departure he was presented from the East Point Baptist Church Choir with a certificate. Mr. MacGregor was a Choir member for many years and no doubt he is missed every Sunday. His host of friends wish him every success in his new undertaking.

Mrs. Charles McCormack, North Lake, spent the past weekend with her sister Mrs. Emery McNeill, Montague.

Mr. Daniel McMillian returned to his home at East Lake having spent the past several months in Charlottetown. Mr. McMillian is the oldest resident of that District and he now resides with his son, Mr. William McMillian and two daughters.

POPE LEAVES CITY
VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Pope, cheered by crowds of pilgrims, left the heat of Vatican City by car Saturday for his summer palace at Castel Gandolfo in the nearby Alban hills. His departure this year was about two weeks earlier than usual. The Pope's physicians urged an early shift to summer quarters this year to give him more rest. His schedule normally is lighter there.

IT'S PHILIPS

In TV For Crockett and Storey Ltd.

Service to customers and confidence in the quality in the articles of furniture or equipment offered for sale through its two stores, has ever been the aim of CROCKETT and STOREY LTD.

For two years the management of Crockett and Storey Ltd. have kept close contact with large dealers in Ontario and Quebec who sold and serviced great numbers of TV Sets, and from these reliable sources learned which sets gave greatest customer satisfaction and which sets required the least service.

Consistently the name of PHILIPS stood out as the BEST in TV — consequently the management of CROCKETT and STOREY sought and obtained the dealer franchise for PHILIPS TV.

It is therefore with satisfaction and pride the Management and Staff of Crockett & Storey Ltd. offer for your viewing pleasure, the

PHILIPS TV

... a brilliant new concept

"PHILIPS "channelock" TV ---

"CHANNELOCK" compensates for weak or strong signals—adjusts the picture perfectly to any channel—automatically makes tuning as simple as your radio.

In line with today's trend to HIGH FIDELITY, the sound is superlative—music and speech are reproduced with the utmost fidelity.

Beautiful NEW CABINETS of carefully selected woods are hand rubbed to a magnificent furniture finish. Both contemporary and traditional styles are represented in PHILIPS line of distinction.
