Ins and Outs on Campus

This is a new semester at UPEI and it brings about big changes for better or worse. Here are a few of In's and Out's that appear on campus.

What's Hot!

- strolling through Main Building watching the coming together of a unique architectural design.
- David Weale's Canadian Studies 201 with the most number of students enrolled-186!
- Cathy Ronahan and he let's get things done assignment sheets for Bernadine Hall
- "adopting" your own study carrel
- Levi 501's rolled up to the knees
- toasted 3 decker sandwiches at the cafeteria
- the new look at the Student Union offices at the Barn
- dance classes
- UPEI gym pants for youths

What's Not!

- having classes in Main Building and listening to the coming together of a unique architectural design
- Rocks For Jocks as a bird course or History 101 without Father B.
- Lack of spirit in Blanchard Hall
- not having study carrels assigned
- degrading initiations of the diaper days
- a night out at 'Chevies'
- proposed installations of condom dispensers in the Barn
- aerobics
- UPEI Football sweatshirts at the Bookstore. We don't have a team!

Please keep in mind that this column is purely arbitrary and not necessarily the opinion of The GEM or its Editors. What do you think is Hot or Not? Why not bring in your suggestions?
