Duff And Nevin Are Trade Bait

By DAVE BETTS
Canadian Press Staff Writer
New York management said no thanks to a Toronto offer of wingers Dick Duff and Bob Nevin and the Canadiens, related to the league lead with 71 points, will make any last-minute trades.

It's doubtful whether Montreal Canadiens and Chicago Black Hawks, who are tied for the league lead with 71 points, will make any last-minute trades.

The Hawks are a frightening assortment of prolific scorers and rugged defensive workers, and the Canadiens, relegated to the second division by pre-season experts, have put together a determined combination of speculative experts and rejuvenated

ROMANCE IN THE MOUNTAINS

Princess Irene of the Netherlands and her fiancé, Prince Carlos de Bourbon-Parma, start a day of skiing Wednesday on Hahnenkamm Mountain at Kitzbuehel, Austria.

The prince and princess have quarters just 50 yards apart at the Tyroler resort where Irene said she plans to spend two weeks.

They told newsmen they have not yet fixed the date of their marriage.
