MINISTER INDUCTED—On Monday evening June 4th an interesting service took place at Saint Mark's Anglican Church in Kensington when the Rev. Robert Coupland was inducted as Rector of New London Parish, by the Bishop of Nova Scotia. The clergy entered the Church in procession and took their respective places in the Sanctuary. Bishop Waterman then proceeded to induce the rector-elect into the "real" actual and corporal possession of the churches of the parish with all the rights, privileges and emoluments there-to belonging.

The Parish Church wardens Mr. Athol Cotton and Mr. Henry Meek then presented the new incumbent with the keys of the Church and in the name of the congregations they then acknowledged the new incumbent as their lawful minister.

Then accompanied by the Rector of the Churchwardens the Ven. G. R. Harrison Archdeacon of P. E. I. then proceeded to the Font, the Lectern, the Prayer Desk, the Pulpit and the Altar at each of which the Rector was reminded of his solemn duties in the work of the Sacred Ministry.

A splendid address was delivered by the Rev. A. E. Piercey, Rural Dean of P. E. I. who spoke on the duties of a priest to his people and the duties of the people to their parish priest.

The Benediction was pronounced by the Lord Bishop of Nova Scotia. Clergy of the Deanery present in the Sanctuary were the Rev. Canon Malone who acted as Bishop's chaplain, the Rev. J. R. MacMahon who acted as Master of Ceremonies, the Rev. W. G. Hogg and the Rev. S. J. Armstrong.

Following the Service a social hour was held in the Parish Hall.

In the evening the graduating class ascended the stairs to the college chapel for the last time to listen to the farewell sermon given to them by the pastor of St. Quentin, N.B. His counsels to the graduates concerning their Christian duty were vividly appreciated. This was followed by the traditional bilingual contest held at the Lefebvre Memorial Hall. The topic of this contest was "Is the Atomic Bomb Useful? Yes or No." A prize was given to the best orator, this being awarded to Mr. Edgar LeClair, Rustico, another Island graduate. The following morning groups of parents and friends of the students packed the hall to attend the awarding of prizes and degrees to the students. His Excellency Archbishop Robichaud of Moncton, N.B. held the seat of honor and, after many speeches from distinguished guests, His Excellency closed the program by wishing success and happiness to the graduating class. This ended another year of fruitful work at St. Joseph's University and we may add that the students were delighted to see that the summer holidays were here again.
