MUNICIPAL REFORM!

The Morning Guardian.

MARCH 26, 1891.

The Expose in King's.

The expose in this morning's GUARDIAN will be a revelation indeed to those uninitiated in the perplexed and darksome ways in which elections are fought and won. The manner in which these letters was obtained is unknown to us. It may have been fair or it may have been foul. It is enough for us that our correspondent "Elector" vouches for and declares his ability to prove their authenticity. Revealing as they do a condition of affairs in political warfare which must shock every feeling of honor and morality, it is but our duty to lay them before the public, characterizing them at the same time as utterly shameful and shameless.

Why "Elector" did not have this correspondence published in his own party paper is of course no matter of our concern, neither the evident fact that his object is to make political capital.

But in these letters we see portrayed, not the conduct only of the King's County Conservatives, not the conduct only of Island Conservatives, but a complete expose of the effects of the party system, in which it is fair to assume Liberals and Conservatives alike are corrupting and degrading the manhood of the country. After reading these letters and then turning back to read the words of the candidates previous to the election pledging themselves to prohibition, one cannot but ask, Is honor clean gone forever? And for the beings who would sell their birthright for a dollar no language can express the disgust which their conduct awakens.

We have done our duty in publishing this matter. Will "Elector" and his friends do theirs and bring the matter before the election courts?

Show Your Colors.

In an open letter, moderate and timely, in Wednesday's Examiner, Alex. McKinnon, Esq., addresses Mr. Blake on the Civic Situation, concluding as follows:

"I believe that with regard to this matter (civic reform) your heart is in the right place, and as you have been again unanimously nominated to contest the city, we believe it is your duty to your supporters, it is your duty to yourself, and the whole community, that you give a free and full expression of your views as well as your intentions with regard to this matter."

A reply is awaited from Mr. Blake. To comply with the request is the least he can do. His own supporters demand it. To refuse would be discourteous, and not what is expected from a "man of honor." He should not be afraid to state now before the election what he would say after, and in the House. To allow oneself to be elected without showing his colors is sailing under false pretences, and Mr. Blake has surely too much respect for himself and the electors to do that.

Canadian Cattle.

CHICAGO, March 22.—Sensationally large purchases of cattle in Canada during the past week by American capitalists were brought to light here to-day as the first complete public knowledge of the results of the masterly international campaign being quietly but effectively waged by Secretary of Agriculture Rusk. The object is to afford relief to American cattle growers by opening up markets abroad. According to the statements of one of the largest dealers in Chicago success is already attained. While a much greater widening of the foreign outlet is now clear at hand the Canadian purchases are simply in the nature of preliminary tactics to cure the unrestricted entry of American cattle into Great Britain. The Canadian cattle though inferior to the American product are legally unfettered by British enactments. Americans who have just bought some immense Canadian herds propose to utilize the Canadian animals to familiarize the people of rural England, Scotland and Wales with beef from this side of the Atlantic.

Black Skin Turns White.

READING, Pa., March 20.—Dr. J. Eze's experiment in reciprocal grafting of black and white skin has turned out as he expected. The black skin grafted on a white person has turned pretty white, while the white skin grafted on a black person remains white.

The Inquiry Postponed.

ST. JOHN, March 22.—The military court of enquiry for some reason best known at Ottawa is postponed. Lieut.-Col. Marsh, of Fredericton, had got as far as Sussex when he was stopped by Lieut.-Col. Bayer, who had received a telegram from Ottawa, telling him not to hold the enquiry until he received further orders.

AN EXPOSE

DISREPUTABLE POLITICAL METHODS.

HOW ELECTIONS ARE FOUGHT AND WON.

SIR,—I enclose you extracts from the original correspondence carried on between a Charlottetown agent of one of the candidates for Kings and a very active and prominent agent in the county itself. From it the public can see that certain practices were relied on as a matter of course. It was evidently taken for granted that many of the priests might be depended upon, and it is also clear that plenty of whisky and boodle was used.

The Richard Collins mentioned is I believe, an employee of Mr. A. C. MacDonald, one of the Tory M. P's elect. It would be interesting to the tax-payers who provide the trains to know if the one hundred dollars paid the railway has been refunded or if it is to be refunded at a more convenient season.

Yours, etc.

ELECTOR.

Morell, March 21st, 1891.

The correspondence begins early in the season, just after the Scott Act election. Father Wm. Phelan, it may be said, is a fearless temperance advocate who does not interfere with politics for the sake of interfering.

JANUARY 9th, 1891.

"Father Wm. sent a message the night before the election to the temperance people, wishing them success, and his message was printed and distributed round the city. I expect the Bishop will give him a talking to for interfering."

FEBRUARY 12th, 1891.

"There are a lot of voters living in this county, about Mount Stewart or Pisquid; you had better write to James Ross, M. I. C., Mt. Stewart, to look after them. He will be able to attend to them (but he is rather a slack chap) How about funds? Many of these fellows will want their way paid and perhaps a little something else. Has the Tory party in King's got any fund to run this election on and who has charge of it? I think the reason we did not get more voters from Charlottetown last time was because I did not thoroughly understand how to pay their way, &c. . . . Would it do for me to correspond altogether with Cyrus Shaw? He may have control of the boodle. Sir Chas. Tupper is to be here on Monday and to speak in the Drill Shed. I believe he comes by the Stanley."

FEBRUARY 16th, 1891.

"I have been looking up the voters as requested. Angus McLean is also working with me in John McLean's interest. I want you to tell Austin that J. M. wants to go and canvass North Lake, Priest Pond and Black Bush polls and he wants Austin to write to —— to let J. go off for a week. —— will let him go. He will also spend a few days at West St. Peters and St. Andrews if he can. J. is afraid of a big split up to the Eastward between McIntyre and McLean. Austin had also better write to Father Gregory McDonald at Summerside, he has a vote at St. Margaret's and probably none in Prince County and he might take a trip East for a few days. . . . There are a lot of voters in and about Mt. Stewart. . . . Hugh Currie might be able to look after them or Jas. Ross, Mt. Stewart. (He is rather slack I think). Father James Æneas Kelly's X., has a vote at Peake's Station, but I am afraid it will be rather difficult for him to manage it. Write him. . . . .

Austin had better write Charley Hyndman who votes at poll 32. He has lately turned Conservative and will likely be able to go down. . . . . .

Howlan and Perry are in town, probably settling the affairs of Prince Co. It is believed that Howlan wants Perry to take his Senatorship and let Yeo and Howlan be elected.

I am rather afraid there is little hope for getting our men in for Queen's (Don't mention it.) They seem pretty sure of it themselves but I think it is a forlorn hope."

FEBRUARY 19th, 1891.

"I want you to write also (or A. C. if possible) to Father Allan J. McDonald, Fort Augustus, to go to St. Andrews and vote. I have been talking to him and he does not know whether he will go or not.

Some one will have to send me some money. There is John Edmunds who ill have to be paid for his day off work. Dan McKenna wont stir without boodle (he now wants $10). I think Cyrus Shaw might write him (the words "and enclose him $5" are here erased) I wrote Cyrus to write him.

You had better write Henry B. Smith Ch'Town, who has a vote at St. Andrews and is mad at Blake and Ferguson, but he wont vote Grit and if I okey after properly will go to King's and vote Tory.

. . . . . .

There are several voters who will have to go by train the day before Election and whose tickets will have to be bought. Send me $25 or $30 if possible. I will keep account and spend judiciously. Jas. McCarron and Thos. M. Hughes are rendering me valuable assistance in looking up voters etc, and the former will know how to place any boodle. A. C. had better write to Alex. Horne and John Kelly Ch'Town who both have votes at Georgetown and who all are always appointed presiding officers at Ch'Town. They may not want to give up the job. The Committee here are going to try and see that they go but they had better be written. . . . . .

The two Sweeney's will have to go the night before to Newport poll and will have to get tickets."

FEBRUARY 25th, 1891.

"Yours received yesterday with $50 enclosed. I will use it judiciously. I will attend to John T. Gill when he calls. If you are sending any other orders for liquors, write me about them first if possible, as some of these craps might come in without any instructions to do so.

Yours of yesterday received to-day. . . . I wrote Father McIntyre about Jas McKenna who is a servant with him, and he will be attended to all right, I have no doubt. You wrote me about James McKenna before. . . . I saw Dan McDonald. He will be O. K., but wants his expenses paid. . . . I wrote Michael Griffin, St. Dunstan's College, to see Father Curran. Frank Curran told me his brother would likely go.

. . . . . .

S. S. Peterson and Chas. A. Hyndman and Donald Ferguson will have to be appointed agents. I wrote Austin and John McLean at Georgetown to-day and sent them forms about this matter.

FEBRUARY 27th, 1891.

"I believe the train is to stay at Georgetown till half past ten. If so, it will be O. K. I will likely find out to-morrow morning for sure, as we are to plank down the money for it to-morrow, $100 for the three Counties. It may be refunded, but keep it dark."

FEBRUARY 27th, 1891.

"I put M. W. Murphy, Post Office, on Malcolm Nelson's track. Nelson is now at Chias Point. All his people are Grits. . . . You had better send any liquor orders through me. I will get it at Connolly Bros.

FEBRUARY 28th, 1891.

"You had better get liquors by the case consigned to some one, not yourself, who will keep it dark. Say Rich. Collins, or whoever you like. Write me for it, I will get it at Connolly Bros."

MARCH 2nd, 1881.

"Yours of 28th inst. received with certificate for agent. . . . Also a bank check signed by Austin which I will fill out for . . . I ordered the 4 cases ($6 50 per case) at Connolly's to-day to be sent to Rich Collin, Montague Bridge, via Georgetown. It may possibly go by to-day's train. . . . Tell Austin or ——to write to Fred. Brecken personally. He is afraid he can't go. It is only laziness. I think a letter from —— or Austin would fetch him. I will also put some one here at him. It would be advisable to write W. E. Dawson to go also, as he is slack too."

The following are a few names extracted from the list of voters resident in Queen's County supplied with accompanying comments:

"Geo. D. Davison, can't be trusted in a ballot vote. Roik McDonald, Lot 48, Grit in this county, may get him all right I will see him, we are great friends. Chas. A. Hyndman, likely O. K., if we can get him to go. Rev. D. J. Gregory McDonald, Summerside, O. K., wrote J. McLean to write him. John Lewis, O'Neill's Vernon River, Grit. Father Doyle can work him, will write Doyle."

IMPORTED SEED OATS.

—:o:—

English Black Tartarian.

WE are now ready to book orders for this strong growing, prolific and valuable variety of English black oats, and expect to receive our first supply via "Stanley," about 23rd March. From reliable English sources we have the following descriptions: "Tartarian, 1st, early, 2nd, very prolific, in some cases here 11 to 12 quarters, (8 bushels each) per acre, the average being 7 to 8 quarters, very commonly 10 quarters, and vary in weight from 40 to 42 lbs. per bushel, natural weight." "No oats are in such general favor here as the Black Tartarian. They seem to suit all soils."

ENGLISH WHITE POTATO OATS.

A plump, heavy oat, bright in color with comparatively thin hull, valuable for export or meal. Our supply will be due about 1st April. Sample may now be seen at our store and orders should be sent in at once. Price on application.

Extract from a Private Letter to Beer Bros., from their Buyer.

LONDON:—

Since my arrival here from Paris, I find that all the important Spring Novelties are to hand, and I wish to give you some idea of the present fashions.

In Hats and Bonnets the styles have undergone such a change that it is quite difficult to decide whether or not our ladies will adopt the extreme styles now in vogue. Hats are simply plates of straw with the edges crimped in every conceivable conceit, whilst the Bonnets consist of a hole with a few bits of wire and some light material, such as tulle or crepe, puffed or shirred. There seems to be almost an unbridgeable chasm between last year's styles and the present, and the taste of our ladies will have to "rise" accordingly if they wish to wear the newest things. I have been successful in securing quite a number of first class model Hats and Bonnets which ought to interest every lady in Charlottetown. They have been bought at the right place, at the right price, and should sell right smart. Long feathers will not be used much this summer. Tips in bunches of three or more I found to be immensely used in Paris, and the same idea is just coming in favor here (London). They are placed on the back of all toques and on the front of all capotes, and everywhere on bonnets. The season will be one of lace and flowers, with a good dash of fancy ribbons. Small flowers such as heath, lilly of the valley, lilacs, etc., are the favorites, with roses and rose piquets for lower-priced goods. Poppies also remain good. As regards color, it is gold everywhere and in everything, gold colored velvets, gold tips, gold passementeries, gold tinsel, tinsel ribbons, etc. The demand from New York for these goods has been phenomenal. It is sure to be a great Millinery season. Hats and Bonnets made from frames almost taking the lead of straw. The styles of trimming have so materially changed that I do not think there is a Milliner in Charlottetown who will be competent to undertake the best work and make it up as it should be, without first visiting some large centre, such as Boston or New York; and I would recommend that we send our Miss A——— to one of these places at once, before taking charge of our Millinery Department in the Spring. Dress Goods, etc., in next.
