YMCA Secretary Leaving Charlottetown

The resignation of Mr. Gordon L. Maxwell as General Secretary of the Charlottetown Y.M.C.A. was tendered at a recent meeting of the Board of Directors and accepted. The announcement was made last evening by Mr. Arthur H. Duvar, President of the Board.

Mr. Maxwell, who was formerly of Vancouver, B.C. came to the Charlottetown "Y" in the Fall of 1954 after serving as a "Y" program secretary in Ontario. With Mrs. Maxwell and their two children he will be leaving shortly for Western Canada.

Mr. Duvar stated that negotiations are underway for the engaging of a new General Secretary to take over early in the Fall and an announcement will be made at a later date. In the meantime, the main summer activity of the "Y", the operating of camps for boys and girls at Holland Cove will be carried on as usual. The appointment of Mr. Alton Doliver as chairman of the Camp Committee was confirmed by the Directors and plans were finalized for the operation of the Camps.

Despite some handicaps, the Charlottetown "Y" has had a very successful year, and thanks to the co-operation of citizens in the 1957 financial campaign, is in a much improved material position. All things point to a greatly renewed interest and activity when the Fall season begins.

Closing Exercises At Vocational School

"Your success or failure in your life work will depend on your character and temperament and, through the exercise of your free will, the application of acquired knowledge and skills," Lt.-Col. Leo F. MacDonald told the graduates of the Provincial Vocational School yesterday.

Mr. MacDonald who is Principal of Charlottetown's Queen Square School, delivered the address to the graduates at the school's 12th annual closing exercises which were held in the P. W. C. auditorium yesterday afternoon. Dr. L. W. Shaw, Deputy Minister and Director of Education presided.

Seated on the platform in addition to the Principal of the Vocational School, Mr. Edward MacPhail, the Registrar, Mr. Percy Cameron, the head of the Home Economics Division, Miss Doris Anderson, Hon. Keir Clark, Minister of Education, Hon. Eugene Cullen, Minister of Agriculture, His Worship, Lt.-Col. J. D. Stewart, D.S.O., Mayor of Charlottetown, Mrs. Ernest Foster, Marshfield, and the Class Valedictorian, Mr. James Lee.

CERTIFICATES PRESENTED

Certificates were presented to 62 students who had qualified in one or another of the various day training classes by the Hon. Keir Clark. The various prizes awarded were presented to the winning students by His Worship, Mayor Stewart. The names of the students who were successful in obtaining certificates appeared in an earlier issue of this newspaper.

In his introductory remarks Dr. Shaw spoke briefly on the merits and advantages gained from the vocational training available to the young people of the province.

The things that really count in life are how you live and how you get along with others in your community Premier Matheson told the 1957 graduates. Urging them to remain in the Province the Premier said that to earn the same amount they might have to work a little harder and a little longer. "You must remember that hours count as well as pay," he said.

VALEDICTORIAN

Chosen as Class Valedictorian was James Lee, Charlottetown. Mr. Lee said in part, "A tradesamn's life is not just driving nails threading pipe, or using a stillson wrench. It can be varied in its activities; it can satisfy the creative urge that is natural to man; and a tradesman can experience the thrill of satisfaction just as completely as the artist or the engineer.

"We have chosen our life work in the technical trades, and in the expanding economy of this great nation, these trades will be closely linked with the nation's development."

Mr. MacDonald prefixed his remarks with a tribute to the Principal, his staff, and the students for the discipline decorum and training shown by the manner in which the closing exercises were carried out.

Continuing his address to the vocational school graduates, Mr. MacDonald said, "You will hear a man described as a rough carpenter, a poor mechanic, a second-rate electrician, an indifferent bricklayer. If you analyze these cases you will see that behind the poor workmanship lie the character traits of laziness, indifference and irresponsibility."

"You may be assured that, in your chosen field of work, you are going to find difficulties and frustrations. Work will become monotonous and you will be tempted to cut corners and jerry build. In times like these the strong character overcomes these temptations and makes for a good job well done."

"The Island needs young men of your calibre and I do hope that you will seek employment here rather than be led away by the false glamour of distant places. Life and experience teach that true happiness does not lie in material possessions alone."

Dry Cleaners NOTEBOOK

BY: P. R. McCORMAC

Moth preventives and moth killers are pretty common on the market today, and people have become pretty well educated to their use, so that moths are seldom a serious problem in any modern household.

But mildew is another story. Most people know, of course, that mildew is a fungus resulting from dampness; but many people who perhaps are unable to prevent dampness from invading their closets (I'm thinking particularly of people who live in basement suites or improperly protected houses) don't always realize that there are many other measures they can take.

Probably the oldest solution to this problem is to have a room sealed up tight, where you have a small heater of one kind or another burning constantly to destroy the moisture in the air. But this isn't a very practical plan in today's compact suites and houses, so I suggest one of the other methods:

You can buy a "mildew box"—which is a cardboard container with a substance that absorbs the moisture out of the air. You simply place this box in the closet and empty the water periodically, as it collects.

There are chemical mildew killers which are effective too. But the main rule to remember is never store garments that need cleaning.

Ordinary dust often found in stored clothing is the very "food" on which the mildew fungus feeds. So before you put any clothes away in storage, why not let us clean them for you? That may not eliminate all mildew trouble, but I'll guarantee it will go a long way toward cutting down on this costly and annoying problem. And your clothes will be ready to wear when you need them.
