

THE MUSIC CORNER

By Darrell Cole

Well it's been a long and hot summer hasn't it. Unfortunately with the arrival of fall comes the arrival of another school year. I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone GOOD LUCK (Believe me some of us will need it), have lots of fun, and party hardy. During the year be sure to tune into your radio station CIMN 700 AM where we will be playing your favorites all year.

The first album that I will be reviewing for the new year is Sammy Hagar's new self-titled album. After Sammy Hagar left his solo-career behind him to join Van Halen his fans felt as if they had been abandoned. However Sammy Hagar was still under contract with Geffen Records and Van Halen is under contract of Warner Brothers. Geffen Records was not to be pleased with Hagar packing up and moving to play for a competitor, especially after the success of his last album VOA. Through it all an agreement was made which saw Geffen get a part of Van Halen and another album from Hagar.

Everyone thought that this would just be a technicality for Hagar, something that he had to get out of the way before joining Van Halen. People, especially his fans, feared that this would be a terrible album not worth buying. Hagar took his time with this album and it has turned out to be a true Sammy Hagar album. The album was co-produced by Edward Van Halen, a close friend of Hagar's and now fellow band-member.

To me this is an excellent album, if not Hagar's best. If early sales are indicative of anything, this album is going to be a smash hit. The first single released "Give To Live" is a stirring ballad which proves that Hagar isn't only good at writing hard, fast-beat songs. Another good ballad is "Hands And Knees" which is sure to be crowd favorite if not a hit on the charts. One song on the album of which I am sure will be a hit is "Boys' Night Out." Believe me it is good! I also like the beat of "When The Hammer Falls" and "Back Into You." Those are my favorite songs from the album but the remainder of the songs are also very good. They include: Returning Home, Standin' At The Same Old Crossroads, Privacy, Eagles Fly, and What They Gonna Say Now.

The only problem with this album is that it is Hagar's last solo project for God knows how long and the album is so good that Hagar's fans are going to be even more disappointed and go into open revolt. No need to hide the women and children as I'm sure that Hagar will be back someday to release another solo album, even if the success of 5150 continues into Van Halen's next albums.

I loved this album and I recommend it to anybody that loves rock n' roll as it is well worth the price. In fact I loved the album so much that I am going to give it the first perfect score that I have ever given.

Rating- Sammy Hagar 10/10

Something that I would like to clarify concerns a record review I did last year on Bruce Willis' "The Return Of Bruno." I gave the record good reviews and everybody laughed at me. After listening to the record a few more times I tend to finally agree with them, IT DOES STINK. Now I can't stand Bruce Willis or his show "Moonlighting" and I tend to keep a styrofoam brick by my chair for whenever a commercial or show in which he is star is shown.

If you have any comments with regards to this column, or albums which you would like to see reviewed just leave a message at CIMN ph. 892-8980, or The Gem, which is located in the basement of the Utility Building. Also be sure to listen for my show on CIMN 700 AM Monday nights from 8-10 and Wednesday Afternoons from 2-4.
