HASZARD & MOORE

WEDDING THIS MORNING.

The marriage of Miss Fanny Chandler daughter of Mr. William Chandler, of this city, and Mr. John R. Copp, of the Post Office Department, St. John, was solemnized in St. Paul's Church this morning at half past six o'clock, in the presence of a large number of people. Rev. T. B Reagh, of Milton, performed the impressive ceremony. Mr. George Chandler, brother of the bride, supported the groom, and the bridesmaids were Miss Carrie Haslam and Miss Helen Moore.

The bride wore a travelling costume of sage green trimmed with white broadcloth and braid to match. Miss Haslam's dress was of Nile green trimmed with brocaded silk and steel ornaments, and Miss Moore wore white muslin. Both had hats to match. The bride and bridesmaids carried beautiful shower bouquets of cream and pink roses, the gift of the groom. The church was prettily decorated in honor of the occasion by the bride's associates in the Loyal Circle of King's Daughters.

A great many handsome and valuable gifts were received by the bride on the interesting occasion. Among the lot was a beautiful silver service from the dry goods house of Moore & McLeod, and a handsome silver tray from the firm's employes. The Loyal Circle of King's Daughters presented a very handsome morocco writing pad. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold watch and chain, and to each of the bridesmaids he presented gold rings with opal settings.

After the ceremony the happy couple embarked in the Princess, which was gayly decorated with bunting, on a tour of the Provinces which will include a trip through the famed Annapolis Valley. Mr. and Mrs Copp will reside in St John. They carry with them the best wishes of hosts of friends, to which we add those of THE EXAMINER.

THE bicycle team race at the Crescents sports, Dominion Day will be very lively as four or five teams are expected to compete. Each team will be composed of three men of any one club in the Maritime Provinces. Every man in the race will score one or more points, and the team making the most points wins the trophy and holds it for a year, when it must be raced for again. Any club winning it three times, owns it for good.

FORESTERS' ANNIVERSARY.—The members of Courts Avondale and Mount Stephen, of this city, intend celebrating the 24th anniversary of the order by attending divine service in Grace Church next Sunday morning, June 19th, on which occasion the chaplain of Court Mount Stephen. Rev. W J Kirby will preach an appropriate sermon. It is expected that all foresters will take part in the parade from Foresters Hall at 10.30 to Grace Church.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—The Summerside correspondent of the Guardian says: Mr Harold Sharpe, son of Mr D A Sharpe of this town, aged about 6 years, met with a very painful accident monday night. The little fellow was walking with his father when he slipped on the sidewalk and fell, a sharpe stick which he carried entering the eye socket just above the eye. Dr MacPhail was summoned and on examination found that the eye was uninjured, although from the nature of the wound there is some danger of inflammation. Yesterday evening, however, he was progressing favorably, and it is hoped he will soon be all right again.

JUDGE REDDIN'S FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Judge Reddin was held this morning. The attendance of citizens was exceedingly large, all classes and creeds being well represented, and the casket was covered with beautiful flowers expressive of the sympathy of special friends of the family. At St. Dunstan's Cathedral a Pontifical Mass of Requiem was celebrated by His Lordship Bishop Macdonald, assisted by Rev Dr. Doyle as High Priest, Rev S T Phelan as Deacon and Rev Dr Morrison as Sub-Deacon. The ceremonies were directed by Rev I R A Macdonald. The levee du corps was held by Dr. Morrison, who also officiated at the grave. The music by the choir under Mr Blanchard's direction was in keeping with the impressive service. The interment was in the Roman Catholic Cemetery.
