BEAT BUHL FIRST TIME IN '56

Dodgers Overtake Braves; Redlegs Bounce NY Giants

BROOKLYN (AP) — Brooklyn Dodgers, despite just five hits, jumped into a tie for the National League lead with Milwaukee Tuesday night, defeating the Braves 4-2 and knocking off Bob Buhl for the first time this season while old man Sal Maglie singled home two runs and won his 10th with an eight-hitter.

The Dodgers, who hadn't been in first place since April 28, and Braves now have 83-55 records with 16 games remaining. They meet for the last time this season tonight. Third - place Cincinnati, also with 16 left, is two games behind after defeating New York in a day game.

Buhl had whipped the Dodgers seven straight times this season, but didn't last four innings Tuesday night because of his wildness. The 26-year-old righthander, who had averaged less than three walks a game, passed seven—four of them in the fourth when Maglie's bases-loaded single put it away for the Brooks.

It was only the second hit given up by Buhl and the only hit in the frame. But it overhauled a 1-0 Milwaukee lead built on Ed Mathews' 35th home run in the second inning and Maglie never lost the edge.

The 39 - year - old righthander, whose only other victory over the Braves this year was a three-hit shutout, had a few shaky moments, but struck out six, walked none and had dandy fielding support.

CLEVELAND (AP — Bob Lemon of the Cleveland Indians pitched his 200th major league victory Tuesday night, smacking a two-run homer to defeat the Baltimore Orioles 3-1.

Only two other active pitchers—both with the Indians—have won 200 major league games, Bob Feller has 266 and Early Wynn 217. Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves tailed lat Sunday in a bid for his 200th win.

The 36-year-old Lemon, a former infielder-outfielder who was converted to the mound in 1946 and made his first start in 1947, became the 36th pitcher since 1900 to win 200.

It was also his 19th victory of the season and one more will give him a seventh 20-game season.

He held the Orioles to six hits. A homer by Gus Triandos in the fifth ruined his bid for a shutout.

Lemon's homer was the only earned run off loser Ray Moore, A wild throw by Willie Miranda and a fumble in left field by Bob Nieman accounted for two unearned runs.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — St. Louis Cardinals pounded out 12 hits, including two home runs, off four Philadelphia Phillies' pitchers to win their fifth straight game, 5-3 Tuesday night.

Bobby Del Greco and pitcher Herm Wehmeier each got three hits to pace the Cardinals' attack. Del Greco hit his seventh homer of the year in the eighth inning while Ken Boyer connected with his 23rd in the second.

Wehmeier's win over his ex-teammates was his 11th victory against nine defeats.

The defeat put the fifth-place Phils 5½ games behind the Cards and all but ruined any hopes they had of finishing in the first division.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Roberto Clemente singled home Bill Mazeroski from second base with one out in the last of the ninth Tuesday night to break a tie and give the sixth-place Pittsburgh Pirates a 4-3 victory over the cellar-dwilling Chicago Cubs. The Pirates had forged a tie with back-to-back home runs by Dale Long and Frank Thomas in the eighth.

The winning run came off relief pitcher Turk Lown who had taken over from starter Bob Rush had given up ehe homers. It was the 27th circuit clout for Long and Thomas' 21st.

The victory went to relief pitcher Roy Face, the workhorse of the Pirate staff and the fourth Pirate hurler.

Rookie Frank Robinson equalled the major league home-run record for a first-year player and Ed Bailey clouted a grand-slam homer Tuesday as the third-place Cincinnati Redlegs drubbed New York Giants 11-5 in the National League.

The Redlegs pounded four Giant hurlers for 14 hits, including home runs by Robinson, Bailey and Ted Kluszewski.

Robinson's homer was his 38th of the season, which not only tied Brooklyn's Duke Snider for the league lead but matched the first-year record figure of Wally Berger of the 1930 Boston Braves. The 20-year-old outfielder also chipped in with two singles and scored three runs.

Detroit Tigers backed Frank Lary's two-hit pitching with 14 hits—eight of them producing nine runs in the fourth inning—in a 12-0 rout of the Washington Senators in the American League.

SEEKS 20 WINS

Lary overcame an early streak of wildness and recorded victory No. 17, keeping alive his hopes of becoming Detroit's first 20-game winner since Hal Newhouser turned the trick in 1948. The only Washington safeties were a fourth-inning double by Roy Sievers and a fifth-inning single by Jose Valdivielso.

Dean Stone, the Washington starter, contributed to his own downfall with three errors, two of them in the third.

Bailey's grandslammer in the third at New York enabled the Redlegs to overcome an early 3-2 deficit and sent Joe Margoneri to the showers with his sixth defeat. Art Fowler took over the pitching duties for the Reds in the second inning from Larry Jansen and received credit for his 11th win, although he had to be bailed out in the seventh by Herschel Freeman.

Nivht games saw Milwaukee at Brooklyn, St. Louis at Philadelphia and Chicago at Pittsburgh in the National League, Boston at Chicago, New York at Kansas City and Baltimore at Cleveland in the American.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

COMPETING TONIGHT

The 24th renewal of the Prince Edward Island Colt Futurity Stakes will be raced tonight at the Charlottetown track and it will bring together over thirty 2-3 and 4-year-old trotters and pacers that have been kept eligible. These stakes have been the means of improving the breed in our province because of the importation of well bred stallions crossed on our well bred mares and it has made this little Garden of the Gulf famous all over Canada and the United States, because from here annually trotters and pacers have gone to take records and win purses over Maritime, Maine and tracks as far away as Quebec City. Among the youngsters that will be competing tonight will be some future greats and looking over the list we believe there will be some that will possibly break the records which have existed.

These records are as follows: Maritime bred 2-year-old pacer, 2:17 2-5, held by Janet Clegg by Abner T. Clegg, dam, Janet Bud. Owned and driven by George Bobey, Summerside, P. E. I. and made at Charlottetown, August 14th, 1953. Maritime bred 2-year-old trotter, 2:22¼, held by Guy Kalmuck by Kalmuck, dam, Ima Guy. Owned by George B. Lewis, Charlottetown, and driven by Willard Kelly, at Charlottetown, September 7th, 1936. Maritime bred 3-year-old pacer, 2:09, held by Jerry's Nightmare, by Abner T. Clegg, dam, Lee's Nightmare. Owned by James W. O'Brien, Elmdale, P. E. I. and driven by Earle Semple, at Charlottetown, August 14th, 1953. Maritime bred 3-year-old trotter, 2:14, held by Hillside Scott, by Bellini Scott, dam, Nessie. Owned by J. A. Kerr, Truro, N. S. and driven by Johnny Conroy, at New Glasgow, N. S. on September 13th, 1939. Maritime bred 4-year-old trotter, 2:12 held by Millie Kalmuck, by Kalmuck, dam Helen Dewey. Owned and driven by Willard Kelly, Southport at Woodstock, N. B., September 24, 1937.

Credit must be given to the Provincial Government for its $1,000 grant to the above Stakes and to the Charlottetown Driving Park and particularly to President, Dr. R. F. Seaman and the hard-working secretary, W. G. Gillespie, who have been the mainstay through the years of promoting these stakes. The owner of each winner will be presented with a silver tray engraved with the event and the date, and he will also receive a beautiful horse cooler specially made by a manufacturer in Ohio.

BEST IMPORT

Cecil Letcher's pacer Flaming Way has stamped himself as probably the best import for the money that came out of the Harrisburg sale last fall. This is prove by his performances at Charlottetown and also at Halifax last Saturday night when he won both dashes in the free for all in 2:08 and 2:07 1-5, the latter equalling the track pacing record made by Convair 2:01. Jerry's Nightmare was 2-3 and Newport Chief, that lowered the track record at Charlottetown Old Home Week, 3-2. Newport Chief has not shown anything like that form since until last Saturday night when he was second as above, or Jerry's Nightmare the form she displayed at Fredericton when she paced to a new track record of 2:06 recently.

Flaming Way has license to be a 2:00 horse, his sire, King's Counsel took a record of 1:58 and is the sire of three in 2:00. His dam, Jane Azoff, well known to Maritimers when owned by C. H. Horton and driven by Willard Kelly, had a record of 1:59½ and she is the dam of Wayzoff, 2:03 3-5, Fearless Way, 2:05 3-5, Echoway 3, 2:09 3-5, Winsome Way 3, 2:11, Yankee Dale 2:11 1-5 and Lucky Number 2:11 1-5. Jane was a really tough mare and stood some hard drives by Dr. H. M. Pharshall prior to her coming to the Maritimes.

Elliott Saunders of Lexington, Mass., who was present at Saturday night's races in Halifax, was greatly pleased by the drive given Zukie Volo by Don Seaman when she finished in front in the CC Trot and Pace. Don has quite a following at Halifax and he deserves to have as we consider he is one of the most promising drivers in the Maritimes.

At Saint John Raceway Saturday night the following horses took new records: Cover Up, owned and driven by J. R. Donovan, St. John won Dash 2 in 2:14 1-5, Janet Clegg won the third dash in 2:12.

TWO SPILLS

What the Sydney Post describes as an oddity of harness racing was two "spills" in one race which occurred at the Sydney Sports Centre last week and as a result three horses were out of the running, leaving only four to battle it out for the winner in the 8th race. The first time around a near pile up on the back stretch saw Georgie Direct thrown to the track with a smashed sulky and badly tangled in her harness. Then as the horses came into the back stretch on the second lap Maudine Reamore went into a break, owner-driver Neil MacAulay was thrown over the bike and Mike Chiasson, unable to pull wide with Lindy H., was also tossed over the sulky. Veteran driver MacAulay was badly shaken up though no serious injuries were believed suffered.

The Post speaks highly of the performance of Mr. Castle, owned by Don Rankin, and his driver Don Coadie, who is fast becoming one of the ablest reinsmen on the track and was the only double winner. Other winners were, Classified Trot and Pace, Amtico (S. McQueen) 1-2, Hi-Lo's Kilt (D. MacDonald) 3-1. Time, 2:20 2-5, 2:18. Amtico is owned by Sam McQueen, Sydney, and Hi-Lo's Kilt by Duncan MacDonald, Sydney. In races 2 and 7 Loretta Lee (M. Chasson) 1-4, Dusty Bars (Dr. Laffin) 4-1. Time, 2:16 -5, 2:17. Loretta Lee is owned by Miss Mary Roach, Dusty Bars by Dr. Laffin of New Waterford. In the fast class of the night the Classified Trot and Pace Lily Belle Lee (J. MacDonald) was 1-4, Bonnie Reamore (T. Reid) 3-1. Time, 2:15, 2:19 2-5. Lily Belle Lee is owned by R. MacKinnon, Sydney. Bonnie Reamore by Clarence Douglas, North Sydney.

Racing was exceptionally good at Moncton last Saturday night and horses took new records. In the first race, single dash, Lou Kalmuck, owned by Dr. J. Delaney, Moncton, and driven by R. Barrieau, was 1, Jolly Mark, owned by Dr. T. R. Furness, Kensington. 2. Time, 2:17 1-5. In races 2 and 6 Hilda Mac (L. Richard) was 1-3, Miss Ellis (C. Killam) 2-1. Time, 2:15, 2:15 4-5. Hilda Mac is owned by Leo Richard, Rogersville, N. B. and Miss Ellis by J. Ellis Thompson, Newcastle. In races 3 and 7 Reta Federal (H. Cormier) was 1-6, Scott Cash (R. Barrieau) 4-1, Hedgewood Chief (C. Robinson) 2-2. Time, 2:12 4-5 — a new record for Reta Federal, owned by M. C. Taylor, Moncton — 2:12 4-5. Race 4 was won by Lady Clegg, owned by J. E. Turner, Hunter River, and driven by E. Jay, Joppa Maid (E. Shaw) 2. Time, 2:16 3-5.

Many will be pleased to see Mr. Turner's mare and also driver Jay hitting the wire first in several races. Her record at the beginning of the season was 2:17 and she reduced it to 2:13 in a win at Charlottetown. Seven pacers took the word in races 5 and 8 with Bell Banks, owned by N. A. Renton, Moncton, and driven by E. Goguen, winning the 5th dash in 2:10 1-5 —a new record. My Volo, owned by Sunrise Stables, Calais, Maine, and driven by Joe Hennessey, was 2. In the 8th race with the same field My Volo finished on top with Bell Banks 2. Time, 2:10 3-5.

A GREAT MILE

Last Thursday night's 2,000 Free For All at Fredericton will be talked about for a long time with Harry Hirsch's pacer Convair 2:01 stepping one of the fastest miles ever paced over the reconstructed track. Time, 2:06 2-5, just two-fifths of a second over the track record which was made by Jerry's Nightmare August 9th. Convair won the remaining dash in 2:08. Another surprise was that Walter Rosecroft, driven by Tom Etter, was 2-2. It was expected that it would be Slicker Tass that would give the opposition to Convair but he finished 3-3 with Ann's Dream 4-4. In the 2nd and 6th dashes Betty's Princess, owned and driven by L. McKinney, Gagetown, was 1-1. John Jollity (Burt), 2-7, Vanity Lee (M. MacArthur) 3-2. Time, 2:12 — a new record — 2:13.

Following is the latest standing of leading drivers on the Grand Circuit: Joe O'Brien 46, William Haughton 29, Dell Miller 25, Frank Ervin 19, Ralph Baldwin 15, Ned Bower 14, Wayne Smart 14, Earle Avery 13.

The dates for the 18th annual auction of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company, Harrisburg, Pa. have been announced as November 12-13-14-15-16.

At DuQuoin, Ill. hundreds of workmen and many thousands of dollars are being spent in preparing the DuQuoin track for the 1957 Hambletonian. Heretofore this has been raced at Good Time Park, but because of the death of Mr. W. H. Cane, the proprietor of that track, the stewards responsible for the race have decided to move it to the above mentioned raceway.

Frost Hill Farm, Edinburg, Indiana, is owned by Roy Amos. He has kept only a few mares over the years but they have been carefully chosen and are out of the best sires in Kentucky. It is from that farm that Scott Frost 2:00, that is making the headlines for the third year in succession, came and many other famous ones. This year he is consigning 11 colts to Tattersalls' October first vendue at Lexington, Ky. Four of the colts are by Adios. His stud fee for this year was $5,000, but of course it was much less than that when the mares were bred.

Queen's Co. Ass'n. Advocates Revival Of Pheasant Program

At the first fall meeting of the Queen's County Fish and Game Association held at the Y. M. C. A. last night it was unanimously passed that the association good record in support of either a renewal of the present pheasant program at a program similar to it such as the release of full flyers to increase the pheasant population of Prince Edward Island.

The meeting, at which the association President Ralph Jenkins presided, dealt mostly with a discussion of the pheasant program which was inaugurated this year and which was described by Tom Gillies, chairman of the program as "very successful."

It was reported that 42.9 percent of the birds were released in Prince County, 30.5 percent in Kings County and the remainder, 26.6 percent in Queen's County.

Mr. Gillies also said; "While the number of birds released hasn't been as high as expected a great deal has been learned from the program and there will be a definite increase in the birds on the Island."

The meeting also expressed the hope that the bands of any released birds shot would be sent to the Provincial Association so that the migrating habits and other information can be determined.

A complete breakdown of the program costs, number released, etc., will be given at the next meeting.

During the evening a color film of the entire pheasant program up to the present was shown and it was said that it will be edited and released at a later date.

It was reported that radio and T.V. programs will be held during the coming months.

Other meeting will be held on the second Tuesday of each month at the Canadian Legion Hall.

Ottawa Faces Montreal With 13 Imports

OTTAWA (CP) — Ottawa's roughed-up Rough Riders set off for Montreal Tuesday night with 13 import players in tow. Coach Frank Clair will decide who plays before this afternoon's Big Four game with the Alouettes.

The Riders, beaten in their last three games after winning their first, have been hit by injuries and a general lack of sparkle, especially in the quarterback and pass-catching departments.

It is an injury to halfback Avatus Stone's left knee that has caused Clair to wait until today to decide which 12 imports he'll field against the Alouettes. If Stone, Ottawa's chief kicker, can't make it, tackle Tom Jones, late of Los Angeles Rams, likely will take his place.

Half Tom (The Bomb) Tracy, taken off suspension Monday, won't make the trip. He's not in good enough shape yet.

Meanwhile, Rider President Sam Berger has informed an Ottawa service club that the team is casting out lines for a good passing quarterback. However, there was understood to be no excess of optimism in other Rider circles over the prospect of getting what the Ottawa squad needs in this department.

Harness Racing

SUSSEX, N.B. (CP) — Saint John-owned horses won six ofthe eight dashes on a harness racing card here Tuesday night. Tom Day and Honey's Rascal were double winners. Other events went to Judy Clegg and Little Chuck, both from Saint John; Walter Federal, Sussex, and Leah Girl, Coverdale.

Patterson's Hand Completely Healed Ready To Train

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson, heavyweight contender, has completely recovered from the broken right hand suffered in the Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson bout and can go into immediate training for a title bout, chairman Julius Helfand of the New York Athletic Commission announced Tuesday.

Helfand made the statement after six physicians had made another examination on the hand.

Helfand said that Patterson could start training at once and suggested that he could fight within the month if he desired.

Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing Club, said the IBC would resume negotiations with Gus d'Amato, manager of Patterson, and Charles Johnston, manager of Archie Moore, No. 1 candidate for the heavyweight title abdicated by Rocky Marciano.

Hoad Beats Perry After Hard-Fought Struggle

TORONTO (CP)—Lew Hoad of Australia fought from behind Tuesday to overcome stubborn Boo Perry of Los Angeles, Calif., 7-5, 10-8, in a men's singles quarter-finals match in the international invitation tennis tournament.

The crowd of 1,000 was stunned as Perry held world-famous Hoad at bay. Hoad won a service break in the 17th game of the second set and held his own in the 18th. Perry, who had been beating down most of Hoad's lob shots, smashed the last one of the game into the net giving Hoad the winning point.

Hoad today meets Luis Ayala of Chile in semi-final play.

In the other semi-final Sven Davidson of Sweden meets Ham Richardson of the United States.

Althea Gibson of New York beat Marta Hernandez of Mexico 6-3, 6-2 in a third - round women's singles match Tuesday. Miss Gibson then met Karol Fageros of Miami, Fla., in the semi - finals and whipped her 6-0, 6-3.

Shirley Bloomer, 22, of England, played a tough match against 17-year-old Yola Ramirez of Mexico. She beat the Mexican 6-2, 6-1. Miss Bloomer meets Miss Gibson in the final.

Stamps' Players All Fined For Breaking Rules

CALGARY (CP)—Four Calgary Stampeder football players have been fined one game's salary each for an infraction of training rules, it was revealed Monday night by team manager Bob Masterson.

The players, Joe Paglici, Brian Burnthorne, Eddie Simms and Tony Pajaczkowski, were fined for playing cards in their apartment after a bed check had been made.

"We are paying everybody for a 100 per cent effort," said Masterson, "and thought we were getting it. We've found out differently."

Masterson said that any further breaking of training rules will lead to immediate dismissal from the club. He said the fines were levied prior to Monday night's game.

Magee Advances In U.S. Amateur Golf Ch'ships

Jimmy Skinner, Detroit coach, will direct the team. Red Storey will referee with Doug Davies and Bill Roberts as linesmen.

favorite Ken Venturi among the victors in the second round of the national amateur golf championship Tuesday.

Magee, finalist in the 1956 Canadian amateur, upset former college champion Hillman Robbins, Memphis, Tenn., by a score of 3 and 2. Robbins, considered a top-flight contender, missed putts on the second, fourth and 10th holes while Magee played steady golf, highlighted by his 15-foot putt on the 13th for a birdie.

The hottest player on the premises of the Knollwood Club as the field was reduced to 64 was a 20-year-old collegian, Rex Baxter, who smothered Harvey E. Woodard of St. Clair Shores, Mich., 7 and 6.

Venturi remained the solid favorite with defending champion Bruce Cudd, Walker Cup star from Portland, Ore., 4 and 2.

Cherry, another Walker Cup member, had to rally from two holes down with two to play to eliminate Frank Malara, Jr., 20, White Plains, N.Y., on the 19th.

Boardman TKO's Jimmy Carter

BOSTON (AP) — Larry Boardman turned loose a brutal right hand to floor battle - wise Jimmy Carter three times in the eighth round Tuesday night for a technical knockout at 1:35.

Boardman weighed 137, Carter 139.

The 20 - year - old Marlborough, Conn., youth gunning with confidence for a lightweight title shot at Joe Brown, made history at the Boston Garden ring with the three knockdowns.

Carter, fighting his 105th professional bout, had been to the canvas only twice before in an 11-year career.

When Boardman got him on the ropes following the third knockdown and pummeled him with a left hook and two steaming rights, referee Jimmy McCarron stepped in to signal the finish.

Carter, who held the lightweight championship three times, was rated the No. 2 contender and Boardman No. 1 by the National Boxing Association going into the

CAHA To Ask 75 Sportsmen For $100 Donations

TORONTO (CP)—The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association announced Tuesday it has decided to ask sportsmen for 750 donations of $100 to provide $75,000 to send a team to the world hockey tournament in Moscow next February and March.

The announcement, made by secretary-manager George Dudley of Midland, Ont., followed a decision by a commercial organization to drop plans for sponsoring the team.

The CAHA previously indicated it would organize an all-star team from outstanding players to be nominated by the coaches of senior A and junior A clubs across Canada.

Kitchener - Waterloo Dutchmen represented Canada at the last tournament, held earlier this year in conjunction with the Winter Olympics at Cortina d'Ampezzo, Italy, when Russia won. Penticton Vs had won it for Canada the previous year.

Dudley said the CAHA intends to begin organizing the all-star team early in October.
