For Business Men

Store Keeping.

Twenty years ago almost any kind of a show window was thought good enough; but in these days of competition it is necessary to have all the modern appliances. In place of the small bingy, cramped windows which were used in the retail stores of former generations, our metropolitan houses of to-day have large, roomy, well-lighted windows which show off the merchandise to the best advantage.

Retail business men in New York City, or in any large city, will not be particularly interested in this paragraph because they probably realize the importance of having their stores look bright, attractive and clean.

There are so many business men in the smaller cities, however, who neglect these things that it is well once in a while to remind them to keep up their store appearance.

I am reminded of this by a conversation which I recently had with a druggist from a town of ten thousand inhabitants in a western part of the State. He told me some things about his business, but led me to believe that he considered the matter of keeping his store nice looking as a matter of too much expense for him to stand.

The outside of your store plays an important part in your business. If dingy, dark, dirty and carelessly kept, it is very natural for the people passing to believe that the same conditions exist inside as out.

Of course, it is true about stores as it is about people that you cannot always judge a man by his clothes; but whether this is the correct way to judge or not does not cut any figure, as the world generally will pass their judgment upon you from what they see on the exterior.

There is a great difference between an untidy store and a plain store. A great many of the best houses in the country have a plain, unassuming appearance, but you will find all of them very neat and clean about the premises.

Very few people will go into a dirty store for the purpose of buying a light-colored silk-dress, or any other goods that they desire to be fresh and clean. The outside of your business may be very plain, yet you can keep it polished up and shining, so that people will know at once that you are wide awake and enterprising, even though your store may not be half so fine as some of your neighbors.

A nice new awning over the door makes a shady spot for warm days and a dry spot for wet days, which many people will take advantage of, when passing, to stop and look in your windows.

A fresh coat of paint now and then might cost you a few dollars, but the expense would be very little compared with the nice appearance it would give your house.

A new set of window shades for the upstairs windows would add greatly to the looks. It is surprising how careless some stores which claim to be quite metropolitan are in regard to the appearance of their upstairs windows. Some very unsightly things are plainly seen from the outside and spoil whatever neat appearance the lower floor may give the store.

It will be quite an advantage to you in your business if you can cause people to comment upon the nice looks of your place as they pass on the street.
This appearance will act somewhat as a bait to draw them inside the store.

Then you should keep the inside of the house correspondingly clean and tidy. The floor should be kept swept and scrubbed often enough to keep

The Peoples' Druggist

Drugs are expensive. Sometimes they are more expensive than need be.

And sometimes they are not so reliable as they ought to be.

There was a time when the prices of drugs were away up—too high altogether.

That is not the case now. The Apothecaries Hall changed that some time ago.

You can get prescriptions from pure drugs at the proper prices—no fancy profits.

You can get all my reliable special remedies; they've been tried and found effective.

The price—the main thing—will be found right in every case.

Geo. E. Hughes them free from the least particle of dirt. Show cases and shelves should be dusted many times a day. Goods will soil quickly coming in contact with dusty shelves and counters, and the amount that you would save in your goods would more than pay the cost of having some one whose duty is to keep things clean. If the floors and counters of the store look dirty people will naturally think that the goods in the boxes are the same way, and more than probably this will be the case.

Not only should your store be nice-looking in the front and in the centers of the aisles, but you should make it a point that your clerks keep the places behind the counters free from litter and trash. Very often customers get a peep behind the counter and it does not look very well to have it piled up with rubbish.

Another thing which will greatly add to the good appearance of your store is to have your goods carefully arranged on the shelves. One piece of goods lying one way and another another gives a very unsightly appearance.
Everything about a business house should look as neat as a pin, to use an old expression, and the store that can get the reputation of being the cleanest the most orderly store in the city will more than likely get a large portion of the best trade.

It is often very hard to get a store cleaned up nicely if it is once allowed to get out of order, and therefore it is well to take things at the start. Begin the morning by rearranging stocks just as soon as they get out of order. It will take very few minutes now and then to put the goods back in place, whereas, if allowed to run on during the entire day, everything will be so mixed up before night that half the clerks will not know what they have in stock, much less be able to straighten it out in a reasonable time.

The only way possible to keep the floors of a store clean is to have a strict rule that no employee shall be allowed to throw anything on the floor.
Have a box here and there in some out of the way place where scrap paper, etc., can be placed. Keep your porters on the move emptying these boxes and picking up any scraps which the customers may drop. A small boy with a dust rag, going from counter to counter, can very easily keep everything polished and shining. All these things will add to the value of your business and count for a good deal in the long run.—Charles F. Jones in Printer's Ink.

KIDNEY

A Disease Peculiar to Railroad Men, which is readily Cured by

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Did it ever occur to you that most railroad men die of kidney disease?

Such is the fact, however, and the disease is known among railroaders as "railroad kidney."

The first and most marked symptom is a weak, lame and aching back. You may think at first that you are only tired; but as this trouble increases day by day, kidney disease, with all its terrors, is fast claiming you as a victim.

Mr. Geo. Cummings, for over 20 years engineer on the Grand Trunk running between Toronto and Allandale, says: "The constant duty with my work gave me excessive pains in my back, racking my kidneys. I tried several remedies until I was recommended by my fireman, Mr. Dave Conley, to try Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Two boxes have completely cured me and I feel to-day a better man than ever. I recommend them to all my friends."

PERFECTLY SATISFIED.

Listowel Gentleman who has no Complaint to Make Regarding Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Listowel, Ont., July 10—Mr. Thomas Tamblyn of the firm of Tambly and Clime, grocers, was lately in receipt of a communication from a gentleman in Toronto who is gathering statistics as to cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Some three years ago Mr. Tamblyn was troubled with a weak back and a severe pain in the kidneys. He used Dodd's Kidney Pills and his trouble was removed.
The Toronto gentleman asked if the cure had been satisfactory. Mr. Tamblyn took the letter and wrote on the bottom in a firm hand, "The cure was quite satisfactory."

piles. The first application brings relief from the terrible itching, and it is very seldom that more than one box is required in effecting a permanent cure.
