A gala evening's entertainment was provided for a large crowd of people on Wednesday night, when the Georgetown Community Welfare League put on their lobster supper in the Recreational Centre, which was followed by a dance in the Town Hall. An evening engagement between the Souris and Georgetown baseball teams of the King's County Baseball League took place on the adjoining diamond and was called in the fifth inning, with the score standing at a 3-3 tie. Suppers were served from five in the evening to ten p.m. The bounteously laden tables were steadily patronized between those hours. The lobster supper offered the public was handled by the good ladies of the town, whose donations of high-class baking and the decorating and serving of the tables could not be surpassed anywhere. PRIESTS REMAIN IN KOREA TORONTO, July 7-(CP)—The Red Cross said today that three Canadian Franciscan Fathers are in South Korea. A spokesman said the Red Cross was informed the three chose to remain despite the Communist invasion. They were identified only as Fathers Roy, D'Aoust and Bellerose.

Georgetown Community Welfare League are deeply appreciative of the wonderful work done for them by the ladies of the town and surrounding district, on many occasions. During the serving of the supper, those who were so minded, had the opportunity of playing any or all of a large number of games of chance. Rounding out a highly successful evening was the dance in the Town Hall, which was attended by a capacity crowd, who danced to the popular music of Al Blanchard and his musicians.
