AN ELECTOR SPEAKS

Sir,—Sir Louis Davies told the people of Pownal on Monday night that the Conservative party, and each individual member of it was opposed to the railway and bridge, and that opposition to the construction was the policy of the party. He must have thought the people of Pownal were a very ignorant class if he thought they would believe nonsense of that kind. If he had been in the House of Commons when Mr. Blair introduced the Railway Bill he would have heard him say that the Liberal party in going on with the work were only carrying out the policy of the Conservative party. But Mr. Davies was not there, and our esteemed representative Mr. Martin was the man to whom Mr. Blair referred the House for the information respecting the work. Mr. Davies will find that exaggeration and loud and indignant denunciation of his opponents will not help him.

People here are of the opinion that Sir Louis would be better employed in his office in Ottawa.

POWNAI.

The old story of Prometheus is a parable. Prometheus was on terms of intimacy with the gods. From them he stole fire, and gave to men. For this sin he was bound to the rocks of Mount Caucasus, and vultures were set upon him. They only ate his liver. This grew again as fast as it was pecked away. Are his sufferings to be imagined?

Take a modern interpretation of the parable. There is cooking without fire. In cooking and eating the mischief lies. The stomach is overtaxed, the bowels become clogged, they cannot dispose of the food that is given them. The impurities back up on the liver. Then come the vultures—the torments of a diseased liver. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is more than equal to the vultures of dyspepsia and its kindred diseases. There is no more need of suffering from dyspepsia than there is of hanging one's self. Sold by all medicine dealers the world over.

Send 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and receive free a copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

Gloves, gloves, mens gloves, 50 dozen. A second shipment, gloves for walking, gloves for driving, lined and unlined gloves. Prices 25c to $2.50 per pair. Yours for gloves.—J. B. Macdonald & Co.

Success comes to those who persevere. If you take Hood's Sarsaparilla faithfully and persistently you will surely be benefited.

MORELL DAIRYING COMPANY.

The President Gives a Complimentary Supper.

A very pleasant evening was spent on the 6th inst., at the residence of R. W. Davison, Esq., St. Peter's Harbor, when the Directors of the Morell Dairying Co., Ltd., of which Mr. Davison is President, gave a supper to their cheese-maker Mr. John McAulay, of St. Peter's Bay. At 9 o'clock the party sat down to a table groaning under the weight of good things provided. After doing ample justice to the "inner man" the remainder of the evening was spent in songs, speeches, etc.

John McGregor, Esq., Bangor, one of the veterans of the Company, made the speech of the evening. Mr. McGregor is a thorough Britisher and does not feel too old to don the claymore in defence of old England, justice and fair play to all, should occasion demand it. It is to men of similar mettle that England's might is due. Not the least pleasant part of the programme was the presenting to Mr. McAulay the following address which speaks for itself:—

To Mr. JOHN McAULAY, Cheese Maker.

Sir,—The undersigned, Directors of the Morell Dairying Co., Ltd., in behalf of themselves and the patrons of the Company, at the close of the seasons work feel that we cannot allow you to depart without expressing to you our entire satisfaction with the manner in which you have conducted our business during the season just closed, which has been the most successful in the history of the Company. You have, by your untiring energy and close attention to the details of the business, contributed in no small degree to that success. Since you have come amongst us your conduct has been exemplary. By your industry, integrity and sobriety you have won a high place in our confidence. We feel that whoever may have the good fortune of securing your services in the future will have a man who will do his duty. You have our best wishes for your success.

Yours respectfully
R. W. DAVISON, President.
H. D. McEWEEN, Secy Treas.

PATRICK SINNOTT.
GEORGE HOOPER.
JOHN J. MURPHY.

Mr. McAulay, who is deservedly popular replied in a short speech. It is needless to add that all the toasts were drunk in pure cold water. In the wee sma' hours the company parted to the stirring strains of "Auld Lang Syne."

JENIUS.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

—Sir Louis having taken the stump on behalf of the candidates of the Provincial Government it will be in order for Senator Ferguson to call a number of meetings and submit the other side of the question.

Flow End Ties as popular as ever.—In the early part of the season a fair proportion of puffs and tecks were sold, but retailers have not disposed of them, particularly puffs have been slow sale, so that now the demand is largely for Imperials and English Squares. Batwing and other wide-end ties have been in greater demand than usual for this time of the year, which is owing to the high cut of waistcoats, and they will continue to sell all the season. Puffs are doing better to-day than two weeks ago. A puff is a winter scarf, and this shape will go better as the winter advances.

Don't allow anyone to persuade you that there are other places just as good as ours for clothing. There are others but none so good, none so cheap.—Prowse Bros. 264 3ines.
