Fine Concert in Hartz Hall

A large crowd attended Hartz Hall last evening to thoroughly enjoy a recital of music by Robert Watt, son of Sydney N. S. with Clifford L. Gates, L.R.S.M., R.M.T., Charlottetown, as accompanist.

Although it is understood that Mr. Watt has only studied voice for the short period of five years, he attained the highest marks in Canada last year in the McGill examinations. Last evening he more than lived up to the reputation which had preceded him to this Province.

His voice was true and resonant, and his diction so well developed that each word of every song could be clearly understood. The confidence which Mr. Watt lacked in his first few numbers was regained as he entered his second group and it was here that the soloist showed the quality and technique which won for him the gold medal in 1950.

His breath control and sustained notes, accomplished with apparent ease, proved that as a pupil of Mr. Gates he had been in excellent hands. Soft high notes were beautifully done in a number of his selections, and the vigor and vitality with which he interpreted others brought enthusiastic applause from the audience.

Mr. Watt, now organist at Trinity United Church, is to be an outstanding accompanist, staying in the background when necessary, and building up the selections of the vocalist as the occasion demanded. In his group of three piano selections he played with a sympathetic and intelligent interpretation which left the audience wishing for more.

The recital was sponsored by the choir of Trinity United Church and it hoped that more evenings of this type will be sponsored by this and other choirs of this city. Program for the evening was as follows: Mr. Watt, "Where'er You Walk"; Handel, "Thus When The Sun"; (Samson) Handel; "Then Shall The Righteous Shine"; (Elijah) Mendelssohn; "An Evening Hymn"; Purcell; "Silent Night"; Vaughan Williams; "Sweet Bird Tweety"; Peter Warlock; "Lord Randall"; Cyril Scott; "Love Went A-Riding"; Frank Bridge; "The Little Road to Bethlehem"; Michael Head; "The Tree in the Wood"; Folk Song; "When I Think upon the Maidens"; Michael Head; "Where My Caravan has Rested"; Hermann Lohr; "For You Alone"; Henry Geah; "You Are My Heart's Delight"; Evans; "The Love Life"; Anna Zucchi; "Gray Days"; Noel Johnson; and "Fill a Glass With Golden Wine" by Roger Quilter.

Selections by Mr. Gates were "Adagio Moto" (Sonata in C Minor), Beethoven; "Impromptu"; F. Schubert; and an untitled composition by Edward MacDowell, written in 1920.

Of Public Importance — "Where the Trans-Canada Highway goes is a matter of public importance," he stated. "Apparently this control by one man takes the pressure off ministers who are much weaker than he and who cannot take the pressure of people coming in and inquiring about the passageway of the road. He is carrying the whole load and it is a secret one."

Charges Postmen Now "Pack Mules" — KINGSTON, Ont., March 8.—(CP)—Daniel C. Cross, national president of the Canadian Postal Employees Association, said today that the Post Office Department is trying to make "pack mules" out of its letter carriers.

He made the comment during an interview. The Post Office has decided to cut mail deliveries in residential areas to one a day and to double up routes in an effort to economize on operating expenses.

"It won't work satisfactorily," said Mr. Cross. "How are people going to feel when they get their morning paper in the evening? That's what may happen."

He said carriers have been helping to sort afternoon mail. Before they leave the post they pick out the mail for their routes.

"It's going to take them about an hour longer now. And they're going to have twice as much to carry."

Stresses Importance Of Urging Claims At Ottawa

"We got to get more money in the Province to run the business as it should be run", Hon. Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, former leader of the Opposition, stated yesterday in the Legislature during his speech on the Draft Address after he had told the House that finances were the one thing that worried about.

Dr. MacMillan stated the place to go for more funds was Ottawa as this Province has adequate claims on the Dominion of Canada from the time of Confederation. "This has been proved three times in the past, first by Chief Justice Mathieson in 1912 when we received a yearly increase in subsidies of $100,000; secondly by the Duncan Commission in 1926 when we got another annual increase in subsidies of $125,000; and thirdly by the White Commission in 1934 by which we received a further increase in subsidies of $155,000 each year.

"That door is still open. Go after it," he told the Premier. "What always makes me mad is the way the Maritimes have been treated while Western Canada has received plenty."

Premier Jones asked Dr. MacMillan to repeat his figures on yearly subsidies and to state the amount that had been received.

Dr. MacMillan replied that they had received an award of $7,500,000 to which Premier Jones answered "on the same basis we have received over $60,000,000."

"Where is it?" questioned Dr. MacMillan, "After you went to your first conference you stated the distribution was never fair, just or equitable. The Dominion Government could wipe off a debt of $60,000,000 for British Columbia. What do we get? Nothing. I am not blaming any government for it, we have all got to fight the battle."

Huge Budget — "The budget here will be about $8,000,000 this year. We will get a little over three and a half million dollars from Ottawa and raise two and one half ourselves. Where will we get the rest?"

I have seen too many evidences of over and unnecessary expenditures of money. The Government of Prince Edward Island is now big business and big business financial mistakes are easily made.

"What will the Trans-Canada Highway cost, about $200,000 with its bridges? I do not agree with the Premier that it should be kept secret. Take more people into your confidence," he advised the Premier.

"Look at the desperate conditions the roads are in this spring and our big expenditures in health. We need more money to run our business and if there is anything I can do to help out, I will be glad to do it."

The Department of Health and Welfare, he stated, was doing a tremendous job. He approved the opening of the polio clinic this week and stated that the Province was fortunate in obtaining the services of Miss Kathleen Jackson, physiotherapist.

Charges — (Continued from page 1) ors that it will be the last sitting of this Legislature Mr. Mathieson stated.

"The administration of crown companies was whitening down the system of responsible government," he continued, "and whitening down the responsibility of the Government ministers."

"Last year some member criticized the administration of the industrial Corporation on account of its five unexperienced directors and a manager who was a stranger to the country. There were people in charge whom we did not think were capable of carrying out the work. I would not be competent to carry it out myself."

The general manager in my view is a public servant. He was guest speaker at a Board of Trade meeting last summer and he made statements which not only affected some of us here personally but also our system of government.

"It is perfectly all right for a public servant to describe what his department is doing but one thing he doesn't do is to begin talking policy and abusing members of the Opposition. If it is the general practice for public servants to go about denouncing the opposition then we have an end to responsible government and in its place have a bureaucratic government."

War Industries — With regard to the distribution of war industries, he stated that matter was being poo-phooed again at Ottawa. There is no reason, except lack of push, why we can not have a distribution of these industries.

"I have been informed that there is no reason why articles that require semi-skilled labor could not be made here. We have plenty of space and plenty of buildings and we could manufacture small radios and small arms parts."

"Because we must share by taxes in the burden of production and in lives by casualties why should we not share in the profits that accrue for making articles that will aid in our own self preservation?"

Stresses Importance Of Urging Claims At Ottawa

He was gratified to note that the incidence of venereal disease last year was the lowest of any province in Canada and had been dropping year after year. The two cases of typhoid reported last year showed that the incidence of this disease was dropping, he stated.

He commended the Government for their work in reducing the death rate from tuberculosis and presented figures to show how the rate had been decreased. In 1931 it was 119 per 100,000 people, the highest in Canada.

Following are figures of the death rate per 100,000 for other years as outlined by Dr. MacMillan: 1940, 59; 1941, 74; 1943, 44; 1945, 45; 1946, 58; 1946, 40; 1946, 23.

"One time we looked at the death rate of Alberta and Saskatchewan from this disease with envy and now we have surpassed them," he said. "We are building the Sanatorium and it shows what a wise move provide rest facilities for the victims."

Mental Hygiene — He said the intention of the Government to provide a new treatment centre at Falconwood for mental diseases was a good thing and was needed for a long time. He noted that Dr. Murchison was taking further training in the causes and cures of mental diseases and stated that other mental specialists were needed. "One of our big problems here is to get trained personnel," he stated.

He said that great progress had been made in medical circles here due to the harmony that existed between the different medical organizations. "We are in a good fine enviable position as far as Public Health is concerned," he added.

"In 1931 there was no Public Health department. There was nothing done until I started it. Mr. Saville said I was only Premier a short time but I introduced the old age pensions scheme here that was previously turned down by his party."

"We have certain duties to perform as Christians. There has never been any doubt in my mind but that we are at war. We are in our third world war and this is the worst of all. This is a war to abolish Christianity. Every minister and priest is an object of hate to those who follow the doctrine of atheistic Communism."

He asked the Government to give the problem of rent control serious consideration and stated that he would support any measures they would take in the matter.

With regard to agriculture he stated that the farmers who had followed a practice of mixed farming through the years were well off. He never thought much of the potato business and stated that anyone who puts all his eggs in one basket is foolish.

"There is lots of chance for success in the Province," he said, referring to the opportunities provided by the Vocational School. He wished the School every success.

Premier and Federal Government concerning the dangers that such a strike was exposing us to and that unsatisfactory replies had been received.

"The only minister in Ottawa who was trying was the attorney-general and he was not successful because he was there all alone," he stated. "He admits he got nowhere at all until he finally asked the Deputy Minister of Labor to arrange a conference with the labor and this move proved successful."

"There was a dangerous situation developing. We should have sent a strong delegation up there. There were a number of people who were eager to go and I am quite convinced that it would have proved successful had that action been taken. It would not have put us in the very humiliating position of going to the labor people."

War Industries — With regard to the distribution of war industries, he stated that matter was being poo-phooed again at Ottawa. There is no reason, except lack of push, why we can not have a distribution of these industries.

"I have been informed that there is no reason why articles that require semi-skilled labor could not be made here. We have plenty of space and plenty of buildings and we could manufacture small radios and small arms parts."

Presbytery Meetings Held At Zion

The March meeting of the Presbytery of P. E. I. was held in the Hall of Zion Church on Tuesday, the 6th, with the Moderator, the Rev. D. A. Campbell of New London in the chair and the Clerk, the Rev. T. H. B. Somers, at the desk.

The following ministers were also present: Rev. G. C. Webster, Rev. J. A. McGowan, Rev. F. N. Young, Rev. G. B. Cunningham, Rev. Donald Nicholson, Rev. R. S. Quigley and Rev. E. S. Hales, together with the following Elders: Mr. George P. Matheson, Mr. D. A. MacKinnon, Mr. George Jardine, Mr. Brecken Simmons, Mr. D. J. Riley and Mr. Geddie Douglas.

Acknowledgment included an acknowledgment from His Honour, the Lt.-Governor, of the good wishes of the Court upon his appointment. On motion of the Clerk the Presbytery offered its happy congratulations to the Moderator and Mrs. Campbell upon the birth of their daughter; and the sympathy of the Court to the Rev. J. P. Mackay upon the recent death of his mother.

Procedure was taken to complete the incorporation of the Board of Trustees of the Highfield Congregation. Arrangements were made with the Kirk Session of Mount Stewart to have the grave of the Rev. Peter Gordon, pioneer minister on the Island, properly cared for at the expense of the Presbytery.

The Rev. J. A. McGowan, of Kensington who had accepted a call to a Charge in the Presbytery of Picou was at his own request translated as and from March 31st. The Rev. D. A. Campbell was appointed interim-moderator of the Kensington Charge.

Approval was given to the proposal that Miss Margaret MacDougal, Deaconess, serve the various presbyteries of the Synod in the interests of young people's and Sunday School work under the auspices of the Eastern Division of the W. M. S. Approval in principle was given to the proposal that a chaplain be named to serve the various social service institutions in the province.

The Court nominated the Rev. J. Logan Veneto of Ottawa for the moderatorship of the forthcoming General Assembly. The Very Rev. C. Ritchie Bell of Montreal was nominated for the chair of Pastoral Theology in the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

The following were named Commissioners to the June meeting of the General Assembly in Ottawa: Rev. G. C. Webster, Rev. George B. Cunningham, Mr. D. J. Riley and Mr. D. A. MacKinnon.

Reporting on the budget, Mr. Young announced that the total gifts for missions and general purposes outside the local parishes had in 1950 amounted to the largest sum raised since before 1925. Mr. Somers drew the attention of the Court to the fact that five Elders of St. James' Congregation, namely, Dr. G. F. Sewar, Mr. A. W. Hyndman, Mr. W. Chester S. McLeur, M.P., Mr. A. E. Morrison and Mr. W. A. Stewart would next week reach the 25th anniversary of their ordination to the Eldership. The Court expressed its warmest congratulations and good wishes. The statistical report for the year 1950 showed marked increases in livings over 1949 for the whole Presbytery. The next meeting of the Presbytery is pointed to take place in the Upper Hall of St. James' Church on May 8th at 11 a. m.

Seed Drill Survey Carried Out By Dept. Of Agriculture

It is estimated that weeds cost Canadian farmers at least 186 million dollars every year, states a bulletin issued by the Provincial Department of Agriculture. One of the ways that weeds take a huge toll is by competing with crop plants for water, plant food, and light. Experiments have shown that weeds in grain crops reduce the yield from 10 to 80 per cent. Even at a 10 per cent loss in yield, this represents a terrific loss to the farmer.

The seed drill survey carried out by the Provincial Department of Agriculture in the spring of 1950 shows that some farmers planted as many as 100 weed seeds per square yard. This is what they actually planted and does not take into account the large numbers already in the ground.

The seed drill survey shows that out of 154 samples of oats only 35 graded No. 3 or better. No. 3 seed is the lowest grade under the Seeds Act and allows 15 noxious weed seeds, a total of 100 weed seeds and 250 other crop seeds per pound. Out of the 154 farmers who had samples taken only 35 planted reasonably clean seed and yet 129 of the 154 made an attempt to clean their seed. Of these 129 that tried to plant clean seed 94 failed in the attempt.

About two-thirds of those who tried and failed cleaned their own seed. The other one-third had their seed cleaned by a power machine. Only four bought No. 1 graded seed. The most common fault with both types of machine is trying to hurry too much. If a farmer takes his seed to be cleaned, he usually won't do it till just before he wants to plant and expects to have it cleaned the next day. The operator hurries the seed through and the result is a poor job. The same thing applies to the farmer cleaning his own grain. A hurried job of cleaning does little good. One might just as well be in on the couch as the stove as turn the crank of the fan as he is going to feed the machine too fast.

Farmers are advised to check up on their screens. They are pretty badly worn in most cases and often patched with string and even binder twine. Write the

Trinity Church Junior W. A. Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Junior Women's Association of Trinity United Church was held on March 7, in the Social Hall. Mrs. Fred E. Gamble, the president was in the chair.

The minutes and correspondence were read by Miss Dorothy Keefe, and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Ernest Matheson. A substantial sum of money was voted to Mount Allison University. It was also decided that the Jr. W. A. furnish the new minister's study and Mrs. J. C. Montgomery's Mrs. Earl Taylor, and Mrs. F. E. Conrad were appointed to look after the matter.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, a white elephant auction sale was held, with Mrs. J. W. McKenzie auctioning off the donations, and Mrs. H. E. Pierce, Mrs. Eric Found, Mrs. Jack Clarke, Mrs. T. A. Laidlaw and Mrs. George Johnson assisting. A considerable sum of money was raised with much enjoyment.

The meeting ended with a social cup of tea.

company and see if they can supply new ones, preferably perforated zinc. These last longer than worn wire and they don't sag or break so easily. Use a 1-14 x 1-2 for oats and a No. 9 round for barley. Hand fanners will do nearly as good a job as a big machine if one takes time and uses the proper screens.

"If there is a Forano machine in your locality," says the bulletin, "take your oats there early. If the operator isn't set up to clean, help him to do so. Take a look at the screens that he is using for your oats. A 1-2 x 1-2 x 9 is about the best for the bottom screen. This is also an excellent screen for mixed grain. If he doesn't have one, keep after him till he gets one. A 1-15 x 1-2 or 1-16 x 1-2 will not do a good job on Abegweit or Erban or any variety with large kernels. Be sure that the wind is on good and strong. What if a few good oats do blow out you get them back and they all make feed."

"Take from 20 to 40 per cent more oats to be cleaned than you need. Allow for that many to be cleaned out and see that they are. If the operator tells you that your oats are very good and that only 10 per cent were cleaned out, he didn't do a good job. Nobody's oats are that good."

"Before you plant your grain, treat it for smut and increase your yield. "The price of feed is too high for you not to grow as much grain as you can so don't plant weeds at present prices, they aren't worth much."
