PRINCE EDWARD ANNOUNCES A MAN CALLED PETER

The management of the Prince Edward Theatre takes uncommon pride in announcing the engagement, beginning Monday, October 10th, of a new motion picture version of the inspiring book, "A Man Called Peter". We know that this is a film you will treasure all the years of your life. It is a remarkably faithful portrayal of the life of a great and truly humble preacher who left an indelible imprint on all who knew him.

As a dramatic documentary "A Man Called Peter" is an outstanding achievement in film production. It has real entertainment value as well as having something timely to say that will be long remembered. The inclusion of carefully chosen portions of Dr. Marshall's famous sermons and of his prayers in the United States Senate is a stroke of genius. They are the strongest part of the film. You are undoubtedly familiar with Catherine Marshall's unforgettable story of Peter Marshall's life, which led the non-fiction best-seller list for 128 weeks. The movie has been produced by Twentieth Century-Fox with loving fidelity. Producer Samuel G. Engel and Director Henry Koster have exercised the greatest care and restraint to guarantee a faithful, tasteful and truly uplifting film. The production is in CinemaScope, has been photographed in color by De Luxe, and stars Richard Todd and Jean Peters as Mr. and Mrs. Marshall.

Religious leaders, prominent lay citizens, film critics and other responsible figures who have previewed "A Man Called Peter" have attested to the dignity and the pleasure. We think you will be pleased to lend your support and patronage to our showing of this extraordinary film.
