REINDEER TRAPPED
LENVIK, Norway (AP) — A howling winter storm has trapped more than 600 reindeer on a mountain ledge on Senja Island in northern Norway. Laplanders trying to rescue them reported Thursday 30 had plunged to their death. The herd roamed onto the ledge in search of grazing areas in heavy snows. A dozen men attempted to reach the herd Wednesday but were driven back by high winds, snow and sleet.

'MAVERICKS' BUSY
Thirty thieves who stole $300 worth of liquor Wednesday night from the Alberton liquor store are thought to have adapted their method of operation from the television show "Mavericks". A front of 14 inch panel in the door by 14 inch drilling approximately 40 neat one-half inch holes around the perimeter of the door. The procedure used by "crooks" to open a safe on the television show. Two cases of quarts, two cases of pints and some loose bottles were taken through the hole in the door which appears barely large enough to permit a person to squeeze into the building. The hold thieves carried on their work undiscovered although apartments are located on the second floor of the building which is located on Main Street. Town Police- man Ralph Hardy and the RCMP are investigating the break.

You'll make the wisest choice whichever Chevrolet you choose!

These four different cars are alike in one very important way. Each is a Chevrolet. That means any one will give you more for your money in performance, beauty and comfort . . . plus far greater worth at trade-in time. However, each of these fine cars has its own way of being distinctive, too, because each is tailored to the interest of a certain kind of buyer. There's our big Chevrolet with its Jet-smooth ride, luxury and styling. Chevy II with its parkable size, sparkling performance and outstanding fuel economy. Corvair with rear engine manoeuvrability and the instincts of a sports car. And the new Corvette Sting Ray, North America's most exciting car. So, whichever your choice, you can be sure it's a wise one.

See four entirely different kinds of cars at your Chevrolet dealer's One-Stop Shopping Centre. Be sure to see Bonanza on the CBC-TV network each Sunday. Check your local listing for channel and time.
