Way Cookie Crumbles

Guess he's just the way the cookie crumbles, and no one is to blame, but it does seem to be the Combines' can't face those big, bad Royals with a team virtually at all strength. Of course, the Combines were trounced 9-4, and we doubt if there is that much difference between a Fox and a Mann (just a couple of biological detours, according to Darwin) but you're looking forward to seeing the Combines and Royals at Civic Stadium next Friday evening and a win for the Prince County boys would really help. (See the morale of fans and players alike.)

We hear that all three teams, Eagles, Combines, and Royals have decided to register Intermediate "A" this winter, and this nonsense about the team straggling first at a certain date going into mainland playoffs

Working On Substitute

The Penguins are at last doing something about finding a substitute for Donnie Frizzell, their star forward, who is away for nearly a few months over for J. L. for competition. Bucko Trainer had young McQuaid brought from the posts Friday night against the Combines. It is now considered that the kid was playing his first NHL game, but he missed a strike for a break when the puck struck him from the side of the head and he made a few fine saves, and with a little more experience may be just what the Penguins need to replace Frizzell, who played a steady game all winter for the Baby B's.

Last Week's Bouquet

Seems that "hat tricks" lately are no trick at all. Scoring three goals in a game is getting smelly. "Smell" Gillis. Have a better way to thrill us; they scored two apiece, and so must get the call. Well, we initiated the new feature, "last week's bouquet" and found out that it certainly isn't our homecoming that won't come back.

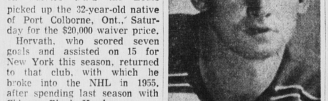

Last Week's Brickbat

They say that you teach Enns, but Enns would have done something about it. That's what you made a mistake.

Leaflets Acquire Bronco Horvath

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs have acquired Bronco Horvath, a veteran who made his big mark on the National Hockey League as center of Boston Bruins "The Line" of days gone by.

New York Rangers put him on waivers and the Leafs picked up the 23-year-old native of Port Colborne, Ont., Saturday for the $20,000 waiver price. Horvath, who scored seven goals and assisted on 15 for New York this season, returned to that club, with which he broke into the NHL in 1955, after spending last season with Chicago Black Hawks.

He had his heyday with the Bruins, with whom he played four years prior to last season, now with Detroit, and Johnny Mowers, who scored seven goals and assisted on 15 for New York this season, returned to that club, with which he broke into the NHL in 1955, after spending last season with Chicago Black Hawks.

Saints Defeat Counties 79-5

SACKVILLE, N.B. (CP) — St. Dunstan's University of Charlottetown gained a hard-earned 79-5 win over Mount Allison University in a see-saw N.B.P.E.L. intercollegiate basketball league fixture Saturday. The winners had a 45-3 lead at half time.

Jim Mikol and Fred Hillis were the other scorers. Binkley, American League rookie of the year last season, was the projected and made only 20 saves.

Marcel Pelletier played goal for Baltimore in place of Mac-

Saints Defeat Phalanx 63-55

Saint Dunstan's Junior Varsity defeated Phalanx 63-55 in a regular Island Senior 'C' game Saturday.

The Saints were scoring a 34-21 edge at half time but in the final session the home team had the edge in play but not enough to overcome their opponents. Phalanx outscored the Saints 12-9 in the final half.

Roy Doiron was tops for the home with 16 points. A. Sprague had 11.

Here are the lineups: Saints: L., Silvio 15, H. Callaghan 13, P. Mulally 5, P. Grant 2, M. Corrigan 6, B. Garvey 8, F. Ferguson 4, J. Chin the American, now a Toronto AHL form club.

Phalanx: S. Harper 8, J. Madock 2, Total — 63.

Dolbe 16, H. Ladner 2, F. C. Buras 2, R. Sealabour, J. A. Strang 11, K. Johnston, J. Ives 8, Total — 55.

A doubleheader is slated for this evening at Saint Dunstan's gym. The home team will play host to BYC. Game time is 7 o'clock. Phalanx and RCMP meet in the second game.

High Scoring Trio

Jack Kane's Varsity Saints defeated visiting Mount Allouettes 11-6 in a wide open intercollegiate game at the 62nd rink Saturday afternoon and his line of Dick Tingley (left), Bob Marshall (centre) and Billy Mulligan (right) were the big guns, each scoring three goals. Tingley was the biggest point-getter of the game with six assists to go along with his "hat trick." (See story on page 12).

Asper Captures Crosby Tourney

PEBBLE BEACH, 20th (AP) — Bulky Billy Asper won the $50,000 Bing Crosby golf tournament Saturday by a 2-over-par 74 over the Pebble Beach course for a 72-hole total of 285.

Asper knocked a tremendous 7-yard approach shot to within 10 feet of the hole on the 18th for the par he needed and then watched on television as first runner-up Gene Sarazen missed the putt which he needed to tie the hole and force a 36-hole playoff.

Asper needed a 12-foot putt to tie but missed by less than an inch to take a 74 for the 18th and 286 total.

Nicklaus needed even pars on the final two holes to tie Asper.

Crothers Show Heels To A Competitors Sat.

LOS ANGELES (CP) — Two golden Canadian track stars, Bruce Kidd and Bill Crothers of Toronto, showed their speed in the 400-meter race for the second week in a row to win their events Saturday night at the Los Angeles track and field meet.

Kidd, 19, set a meet record for two miles, running it in eight minutes, 43.8 seconds, just a shade slower than the 8:32 he achieved at Boston one week earlier in setting a record for the Kravis of Columbus indoor event. He drew a standing ovation from the crowd of 12,336. The previous record, 8:32, set in 1961 by Laszlo Taras.

Crothers, like Kidd a University of Toronto student running in East York Track Club colors, ran away with the 1,000-yard event in 2:08.3. The week earlier he set a Boston meet record of 2:08.6.
