HAPPENINGS

Audrey Jenkins, Women's Editor; Phone 4-8506

The Junior Ladies Aid of the P.E.I. Hospital are planning a 10-12 a.m. Coffee Party at the Dundall Home on Saturday, Oct 19.

Proceeds from this affair will help pay for vitally needed equipment in the Intensive Care Unit.

If you find you cannot "drop-in" that morning, why not mail your donation to Mrs. J. Norman MacLeod, 36 Brackley Point Road, or Mrs. Gordon Lord, 32 Goodwill Avenue.

Colonel K.M. Johnston, who is past president of the Signals Association of Canada, attended a meeting of that organization in Kingston, Ont. He and Mrs. Johnston also visited her sister, Mrs. W.E. Raney, and Mr. Raney in Lorne Park, Ontario.

Four recent employees of the Island Telephone Co. left Tuesday morning for Ontario.

Misses Patsy Lidstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lidstone, Harley St., Parkdale, and Barbara MacCabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom MacCabe, Grafton St., City, went by rail to Hamilton where they will reside for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lidstone, uncle of the former.

Misses Margaret Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Duffy, Beasley Ave., Parkdale and Verna MacEachern, daughter of Mrs. Vern MacEachern, Brighton Rd., City, also left by car for Toronto, Ont., where they will stay with Mrs. R.G. MacKinnon and her family, sister of the latter.

Miss Verna MacLeod, Charlottetown, returned recently from New York, where she visited her sister, Mrs. Joseph Burda. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Donald MacLeod, Victoria, who is remaining for a time in New York.

With play gradually coming to a close for this season at the Belvedere Golf and Winter Club, winners of recent matches are as follows. —

A fairway stroke match played on Sept. 16th was won by Mrs. A.G. MacMillan.

A Medal round played on Sept. 19th resulted in Mrs. E.C. Taylor having low gross and Mrs. D. Samson low net.

The Longworth trophy was won by Mrs. Lloyd Cox with Mrs. John Mustard runner-up.

Goodwill medal monthly winners played off for the trophy with Mrs. C.M. MacLean emerging as winner.

Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Jenkins, West St., have returned from Toronto, where Mr. Jenkins attended the Federation of Automobile Dealers Association of Canada, and was elected vice-president of that organization for the coming year.

They also visited his sister, Mrs. R.E. Foss and Dr. Foss in Boston. Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Mellish of Charlottetown accompanied them.

MR. AND MRS. SCOTT WOODSIDE

Wedding Reception Held At Shining Waters Lodge

Margate United Church was the setting for a beautiful double ring ceremony in August when Valerie Jean, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilford Woodside, Clinton, was united in marriage with Alan Scott Woodside, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Woodside, Margate.

Rev. W.A. Paterson of Margate United Church officiated, assisted by the Rev. Waldo Elliott of New Glasgow, N.S.

Miss Beulah Moase was in charge of the wedding music, and accompanied the soloist, Miss Judith Woodside who sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden" as the bride entered the church, and accompanied the congregation as they sang "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven". Miss Woodside sang, "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

Baskets of white and colored gladioli enhanced the beauty of the altar. The guest pews were marked with pew bows and baby's breath tied with white satin ribbon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white peau de soie. It was fashioned with a scalloped neckline, and fitted bodice with lily point sleeves. The softly pleated skirt emphasized back fullness and ended in a slight train. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and tiny brilliants. She carried a cascade of yellow sweetheart roses and English ivy.

Miss Elizabeth Davison, maid of honor, and Miss Elizabeth Caseley, bridesmaid, wore identical gowns of turquoise peau de soie. Rounded necklines and three quarter length sleeves were features of the tightly fitted bodices. The slim street length skirts had bell shaped overskirts of matching fabrics. Their wedding ring hats, shoes and gloves were the same shade as their gowns. They carried semi cascade bouquets of white and yellow shasta mums.

A niece of the groom, Miss Jill Harris, was flower girl, and wore a full dress of white organza with turquoise sash and headband. She carried a basket of yellow snapdragon and sweet peas with white and yellow ribbons. Little Ronald Elliott, New Glasgow, N.S., was the ring bearer.

Philip MacDonald of Summerside was best man. The ushers were Ralph Woodside, cousin of the bride, and Paul Caseley, nephew of the groom.

The bride's mother chose a sheath style dress of rosewood lace over taffeta with satin trim and matching bolero jacket, feather and marabou hat and accessories to match. Her corsage was tangerine carnations. The groom's mother wore an original gown of silk print in shades of blue, a white ostrich feather hat and her corsage was white feathered carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception for approximately 80 guests was held at "Shining Waters Lodge", Cavendish. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, and flanked with lighted tapers.

Barry Woodside, brother of the bride, capably attented the guest book. Rev. Elliott proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. The groomsman proposed a toast to the bride's attendants and read the telegrams.

For a honeymoon trip to Boston and Niagara Falls, the bride wore a three piece double knit brown suit, and her accessories were in shades of beige and brown. Her corsage was yellow feathered carnations.

The newly wed couple will reside in Margate. The bride is on the staff of the Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce, and the groom is with the staff of Willard MacDonald, Ltd., Summerside.

Two Ring Ceremony Is Held At Kensington United Church

The Rev. L.M. Murray officiated at the double ring ceremony uniting in marriage Judith Ann Picketts and John Lowell Coulson at Kensington United Church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Picketts, Kelvin Grove and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Coulson, Sea View.

Baskets of pink and white peonies made a pretty setting for the bridal party, and the guest pews were marked with orange blossoms tied with bows of white ribbon.

The organist, Gordon Murray played "Praise the Lord, the King of Heaven," as the bride entered the church, and accompanied the soloist, Miss Nancy MacMurdo, who sang "O Love Divine" prior to the ceremony, and "O Perfect Love" during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was radiant in her floor length gown of nylon organza over peau de soie. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scooped neckline outlined with pearls. A panel of lace traced with sequins extended from the neckline into the bouffant skirt, and the long sleeves were styled with lily points.

A halo of sequin trimmed nylon net held her embroidered shoulder length veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of red roses with white ribbon streamers entwined with ivy. Following the ceremony the bride presented her bouquet to her great aunt, Mrs. Thomas MacKay of Springhill. N.S.

Miss Myrtis Picketts, as maid of honor for her sister, wore pale green flocked nylon over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt accented with a sash ending in a bow at the back. Her headdress was a matching wedding ring hat and veil, and she carried a nosegay of white mums centered with yellow.

Miss Lorraine Coulson, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, wore a similar ensemble in pink, and carried a nosegay of white mums with pink center.

Mary Coulson, sister of the groom, and Grace Picketts, the bride's niece, were flower girls, wearing identical dresses of pink nylon over taffeta, matching wedding ring headdresses and white gloves and slippers. They carried tiny baskets of mixed flowers.

Jerry Adams was best man, and the ushers were Alan Picketts, brother of the bride, and James Thompson.

A reception for 80 guests was held in the assembly hall of the Church. Flowers were used in decorating, and the bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake topped with a tiny bride and groom beneath an arch of lily-of-the valley, roses and wedding bells.

The Rev. Willard Picketts of Toronto, uncle of the bride, offered grace and proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom responded.

The guest book was circutated by Carol Smith, niece of the bride.

Receiving with the bride and groom, the bride's mother, Mrs. Picketts, wore a black redingote over rose and white taffeta, matching hat and accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Coulson, mother of the groom, chose a pale blue floral printed silk sheath with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

For a honeymoon trip in Nova Scotia the bride chose a pale blue linen suit, matching hat and white accessories and wore a corsage of red carnations.

New London WMS Plan Thank-Offering Service

KENSINGTON — The September meeting of New London WMS was held at the home of Mrs. Oscar MacKay with 18 members answering roll call with a verse of scripture.

The theme for devotions was "The Prayer of Dedication". Mrs. Wilbur MacKay was leader. Scripture was taken from 1st Kings. The Season of Prayer was given by Mrs. Roy Brown and Mrs. Don MacKay. Members of the lunch committee were in charge of the program.

The new sick committee was appointed, and are: Mrs. Fred Campbell, Mrs. Earl Murray, Mrs. Ellis Burgoyne, Mrs. Ian Henderson and Mrs. Leigh MacEwen.

During a discussion of the Thank offering service, Mrs. Wilbur MacKay and Mrs. Angus Green were named for the music committee, and Mrs. Oliver Bernard was asked to speak to Rev. Mr. Campbell in the hope that he will be the guest speaker.

It was decided that the New London Church would act as host for the next Presbyterial, providing no other group is desirous of having it.

Mrs. Francis Murray and Mrs Mont MacEwen will be in charge of flowers.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction.

MARGATE UCW

Mrs. Hillard Woodside led the worship service at the September meeting of the Margate UCW, held in the church vestry. Mrs. Justin Woodside assisted with the service on the theme, "Co-workers with God", which concluded with prayer and a hymn.

The president, Mrs. Heath Mayhew presided during the business period, opening with the purpose repeated in unison. Roll call was answered by 17 members with a verse of scripture containing the word "Life". The treasurer, Miss Vivian Woodside, reported a balance on hand of $121.34.

The groom is employed with Seeman Brothers. New Annan, and the bride is on Holman's Credit office staff. They are residing at Sea View.

Out of the province guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Palmer, Bobby, Sally and Julie, Halifax; Rev. and Mrs. Willard Picketts and Darrell Picketts, Toronto; Mrs. Gladys Frizzell, RN, Sydney, N.S.; Mrs. Thomas MacKay, Springhill, N.S.; Mrs. Thomas Knight and Mary Elizabeth Knight, Winchester, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Dana Coulson, Springfield, Mass.

MR. AND MRS. DONALD A. FLACK

Wed At Long Creek Baptist, Couple Reside In Dartmouth

The Long Creek United Baptist Church was the scene of the marriage of Margaret Grace, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm MacNeill, Long Creek, to Donald Alexander, eldest son of Mrs. Flack and the late Stanley Flack of Montreal. Baskets of assorted summer flowers decorated the church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. W.R. Howard. The soloist, Miss Geraldine Hopkins of Springhill, N.S., sang the Lord's Prayer and O Father all Creating, she was accompanied by Mrs. Hector Currie of New Dominion.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of tissue faille. The bodice featured a bateau neckline, long lily-point sleeves and a dropped waistline. The softly gathered skirt was emphasized with side and back fullness. Her halo style headdress of peau de soie leaves intertwined with seed pearls held a finger tip veil of illusion tulle. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and English ivy.

Miss Doris Carruthers of Deep River, Ontario, was maid of honor; Miss Elizabeth MacNeill of Calgary, sister of the bride, and Miss Constance MacDonald of Long Creek were bridesmaids. They wore similar gowns of cobalt blue shantung. The tightly fitted bodice featured rounded necklines and cap sleeves. Their street length bell shaped skirts were softly pleated at the waistline. Their pillbox headdresses repeated the color of the dresses and featured short tulle veils. They carried semi-cascade bouquets of shasta daisies in shades of blue and yellow.

Mis Dawn MacFadyen, flower girl, wore a dress of white organza over taffeta with a cobalt blue shantung sash. She carried a basket of shasta dasies.

Larry Flack of Halifax was best man for his brother. Malcolm MacNeill brother of the bride, Bill Flack bother of the groom and Graham MacPhail Charlottetown ushered the guests.

For the reception at the Shore Acres Motel the bride's mother received wearing a navy dress of silk shantung. She sheath style dress featured a waist length jacket of similar fabric. She wore a hat of white maribou and matching accesories. Her corsage was white and shrimp carnations.

The groom's mother wore a dress of ice blue lace over taffeta. The slim skirt featured a side panel of matching blue organza. Her floral hat repeated the color of her dress. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

A toast to the bride was proposed by Premier W.R. Shaw and responded to by the groom. Larry Flack proposed a toast to the bridesmaids.

For a honeymoon trip to Cape Breton the bride chose a linen suit of twilight mauve, her hat of floral silk was in blending shades, she wore matching accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Flack, a B.Sc. graduate from Mt. Allison University is employed with National Research Council Halifax, and Mr. Flack who has his B.Sc. B.F.D. from Dalhousie is on the teaching staff of Prince Andrew Senior High School, Dartmouth. The couple will reside in Dartmouth, N.S.

ELLEN'S DIARY

Old-Time Foot Pedlars Ply Their Trade No Longer

"So we get two harvest-days in a row!" one of the crew, presently at its work, commented this morning with a pleased smile. The dew lifted in the sunshine, and mellow then the day was, blue-skied and fair.

"And how goes the harvesting" a salesman come by this afternoon inquired. — Salesmen, we on farms continue to have. Not so many perhaps as once, but always interesting folks, bringing us glimpses of other ways of life. Sometimes we wish for a sight of such vendors as were to be seen in our childhood, so that our youngsters might enjoy, as we did, their varied charms: the cheerful tin-man with his horse-drawn van: And in it the pints and pails, the funnels and pans and all that ware which was so shinlingly new; the peddler on foot, we would see again, with his trays and bundles, that held a bewitching miscellany of things for young lass and lad. What fetching jewelry, with gems agleam! What jackknives and Jews' harps and harmonicas were there, to tempt one to buy

Indian folks too, occasionally walked throuh our young years — a quiet people, vending with few words their baskets at the door: white baskets in the neat peck size, of use to younger children at the potato-harvest; the prettily decorated "market" baskets for the mother of the home, so attractively shaped, and useful. And the miniature ones for the little daughter, charmingly colored, woven and fashioned, we fancied they could only have been made by one who had small ones of her own.

An odd band of Gypeles too, rode into those now quaint years. A covered wagon and a patient horse carried them, sometimes with a swarthy man or more, and dogs, we were sure were unfriendly, walking behind. The dark-eyed, olive-skinned women, dressed in bright colors, vended their laces, and begged to read palms, at the doors they came by.

Those some no more now to rural Island scenes.

"The harvesting? It makes some progress. If we could get continuing good weather like this" we said with a longing to this afternoon's salesman.

"I reckon" he smiled, "that's everyone's wish!

The sun caressed the colorful leaves on the yard-maple's boughs. Sere ones drifted down on a wisp of wind from the golden willow close by, and beyond over the country side, the field dreamed their autumn dreams.

"So the men are busy" he said turning away. "There is a saying that farmers must make hay when the sun shines. That is true too of the harvest, isn't it"

"So true" we nodded.

"Here's a four-leaf clover to bring you a mite of good luck" Jamie smiled presenting us with one this evening, he had chanced to spy about. And what better good fortune could there have been for us today, than in being favored with the day so blue-skied and fair, which allowed farm-folks to tend happily to the affairs of their harvesting

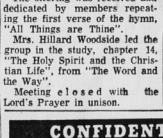
CONFIDENTIALLY YOURS

—by Byrne Hope Sanders

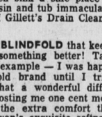


MONTREAL, October 3rd — There isn't a gal I know who isn't pining for something or other, perhaps it's a new dining room suite, a new living room rug — maybe, a dashing new fall outfit. If there is something you're yearning for . . . you can probably finance it through a low-cost BANK OF MONTREAL Family Finance Plan loan. This modern plan is life-insured for your protection and payments can be made in regular monthly instalments spread over two years or even longer. Talk it over with your husband tonight — then visit your neighbourhood branch of the B of M tomorrow to arrange for your B of M Family Finance Plan loan.

ALL THAT SPARKLES IS NOT CLEAN . . . for instance your kitchen sink, bathroom basin and tub may look immaculate, but dangerous germs breed in every drain. That's why I urge you to use GILLETT'S DRAIN CLEANER every week, to combat the filthy muck where germs breed . . . because liquid disinfectants simply can't budge it. The big difference lies in Gillett's special churning, boiling action . . . leaves drains fast-running, clean and sanitary. So keep your kitchen sink a safe place to wash food and dishes, your bathroom basin and tub immaculately clean . . . by putting 2 tablespoons of Gillett's Drain Cleaner in every drain, every week!

DON'T LET PAST HABITS BECOME A BLINDFOLD that keeps you from buying something better! Take Toilet Tissue as an example — I was happy enough with my old brand until I tried WHITE SWAN. What a wonderful difference! Yet it's not costing me one cent more per roll to enjoy the extra comfort that goes with White Swan's exquisite softness, absorbency and "Feather Touch" perforation. You'll like the greater firmness too when you get your White Swan Tissue in white or the popular new pastel colours. So do make it a habit to ask for White Swan and enjoy the luxury of this best-selling, much better toilet tissue!

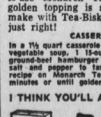
A GREAT COMBINATION FOR A DELICIOUS MAIN DISH! . . . Next time you want a hurry-up meal for your family, try this recipe starring easy-to-use Monarch TEA-BISK. The fluffy, golden topping is so quick and easy to make with Tea-Bisk and always turns out just right!



CASSEROLE CAPER

In a 1½ quart casserole combine 1 tin of condensed vegetable soup, 1 15-ounce tin of cut green beans (drained) and 1 lb. of ground-beef hamburger which has been panfried until lightly browned. Add salt and pepper to taste. Cover with Tea-Bisk topping following the easy recipe on Monarch Tea-Bisk package. Bake in 450 degree oven 10 to 12 minutes or until golden brown. Serves 4 to 4.

I THINK YOU'LL AGREE that one of life's pleasures is a wash that comes clean — really clean — from the gentle suds. Well, there's easy and inexpensive way to achieve this . . . with that wonder-working CALGON water conditioner. Just add it to your wash water, with less of your favourite soap or detergent, and to the rinse. Linens will gleam . . . colours come up bright . . . towels fluff up like new . . . regain their natural softness. This is why washer instruction booklets recommend Calgon. Yes, the pleasure of a really clean wash will be yours when you use Calgon!



THERE'S NO NEED TO LET YOUR WORK SUFFER because of rheumatic, arthritic or neuritic pain. This letter tells you why:—Mr. Francis Smith of Vancouver writes, "I have suffered a great deal from lumbago. I am a carpenter and the pain made it hard for me to bend or stop. I have tried everything and have found that nothing compares with Templeton's TRC's for quick and satisfactory relief". Do try TEMPLETON'S TRC's if you suffer in this way. And for even faster, DOUBLE ACTION relief, apply Templeton's FLAME-ream Liniment (in the handy, roll-on applicator bottle) externally, when you take TRC's internally.
