Let's Talk It Over

by "d"

Pigskin Purses Out Of Sows' Ears

"Education is everybody's business" is a slogan of educational authorities for Education Week this coming March. Very true, and it is also true today that "Everybody is education's business."

A far cry from a century ago when only the top layers of society were thought to be worth educating. Today we try to fashion our curriculum so that the boy and girl who cannot go on to a university will receive the education best suited to their individual needs and capacities to learn.

Educatonal heads have stopped trying vainly to make silk purses out of sows' ears, but they have discovered that those same sows' ears make very serviceable pigskin purses, and they are now bending their energies to that end.

They do not stop there. There are so many boys and girls who cannot see the value of an education until it is too late. Or, perhaps we should say, until it was too late.

It is no longer too late. Because ambitious boys and girls, men and women, who discover that the "primrose path of dallinace" which they followed in their youth did not bring them to the land of heart's desire can remedy the matter by taking advantage of the adult education program which our present system provides.

It is probable they can never quite make up for the wasted years, but they can at least partly remedy the situation. Truly, today, "Everybody is education's business."

GLENWOOD Y. P. U.

—The Glenwood United Church Young People's Union held their weekly meeting in the church on Friday evening, Feb. 1st, with a good attendance. The president, Miss Esther Stewart, teacher at Dunblane, presided and led in the opening worship.

The study was entitled "How Tolerant Are You"? and was presented by Miss Myrtle Wilson, who has just recently resigned as the teacher at the Milburn School as she is planning to enter the services.

The study was very practical and concerned four different situations that confront young people involving the questions: (1) How tolerant should we be to people of different races, customs and traditions; (2) How tolerant should young people be when asked by their friends or at a party to take a glass of wine, etc., when they have never started drinking and are opposed to it; (3) How tolerant should we be with people like the Communists who demand free speech and all the cherished liberties of our democratic system and yet use them to wreck our Government and blood-bought freedom.

These questions brought forth much interesting discussion. Taking part was Mr. Heber H. Hardy of Elmsdale, P.E.I., who is the lay minister serving the West Cape charge, of which Glenwood is a part, and Rev. W. G. Dickson of O'Leary, interim chairman of the charge.

The minutes were read by Miss Yvonne Betts and were adopted as read. The Y.P.U. are planning a Valentine Party in the Glenwood Hall.

Rev. Mr. Dickson brought a short message to the young people on the text: "Grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ". This is one of the most active and largest young people's groups in the Western Presbytery Union and the members are all of young people's age. Splendid leadership is being given by Mr. Hardy. The meeting closed by the Mizpah Benediction.

Borden Man Charged With "Joy Riding"

A young man from Borden, charged with "joy riding", appeared before Magistrate R.S. Hinton in county magistrate's court in Summerside yesterday morning and was remanded for trial later this week.

He was arrested about midnight on Saturday when Constables MacKay and Champion spotted a car belonging to Ross McEwen, Stanley Bridge, that had been stolen earlier that evening from in front of the Imperial Diner.

The Constables gave chase and in endeavoring to escape the police, the accused found himself cornered in an alley way leading to Holman's Wharf, where he abandoned the car and took off running across the harbor ice with Constable Champion in pursuit.

Inspired by a desire to eliminate the frequent theft of cars in Summerside, the Constable proved to be the faster runner and soon had overtaken the culprit and placed him under arrest.—S.
