

AGRICULTURAL SHOW PLAYS BIG PART

MIGHTY PROUD OF HIS HORSE

Great racing thrills await eager patrons

Harness racing fans are preparing themselves for what they hope will be the greatest week of horse racing ever staged in the Maritime provinces.

As it stands now, E. Frank Acorn, is getting ready to present 11 programs to the huge crowds expected to jam their way into Charlottetown Driving Park.

Racing gets going Monday night Aug. 17 and continues every afternoon and evening until Saturday. It's a sure bet that some terrific drives and finishes will be in evidence in every one of the race programs.

The virus that plagued horses at all Maritime tracks appears to have abated and prospects are bright for all horses stabled at the CDP to be fit and ready to strut their stuff. The horses which have appeared here ever since opening night in early June will have mainland competition once the big week gets underway. However, you can figure the locals will give a right smart account of themselves when they battle with the invaders from the mainland.

Frankie Daniele is bringing over Hockster for the invitational $200 free-for-all Monday night Aug. 17. Also in the Daniels' fold are Merry Note, an outstanding trotter and the fine three-year-old Gladly.

Jimmy Given has another fast one for Monday night's big feature. This time Jimmy brings along Crash Drive that should bear plenty of watching. Art Porter, well known in racing circles throughout the maritimes, will be one of the visiting drivers. Art handles Port Wally Boy, Watch Top and D 1 e Regent. The veteran horseman from Kensington, Myron MacArthur, will be up behind Dee's as the $200 feature on opening night. Dee's Boy is a 2 year old great favorite with Island race fans and should be ready to head all others to the wire in one of next week's big events.

BACK IN TOWN
Back in Charlottetown is the local driver-trainer, James "Roach" MacGregor. Roach has a pretty fair looking stable and his charges include the ever-popular free-for-aller, June Boyd. Elmer's Week, Avilon Werles, Six Alexander, Kim Sue and Shelton Byrd.

one of the British Consals trophy during Old Home Week, is coming this weekend with such notables as Don Star, Spurge, Spensive Spud and Josee 1 e Co-Pilot.

Of course Clarke's big brother Elmer will be here. Folks will remember a few years ago when Elmer captured The Evening Invitational and The Gold Cup and Sancer with Francis Brea's Siro's Best and War Cry Ranger. This time Elmer's big one is Edgewood Scott, the pacer that many are figuring will cop the lion's share of the big purses Old Home Week.

Dale and Finny Lee son str. Annie Laloupe is sending over her classy Highland Led.

The local horses will be doing their utmost to outclass these mainland invaders and the entire week should produce great excitement.

Of course Monday and Friday nights will be the greatest drawing cards. These are the nights the bettors will take over in the big free-for-all.

All that's needed now is for the weatherman to re-operate. If things go right racing fans should witness the greatest thrills of their entire racing lives.
