Let's Talk It Over

Down our way, it looks as if jail birds might be developing into carrier pigeons. The thriving town of Summerside, which we citizens like to think is justly famous for its enterprise and public spirit, is in danger of becoming notorious for its jail.

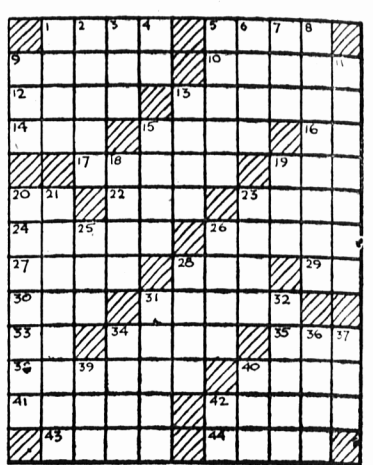

According to report some of the prisoners leave the jail at night, we don't know whether it's with or without permission, make raids on business houses in the town, and even as far afield as O'Leary, and shades of Ripley, store the loot in the jail!

There are poor, honest people in Summerside who, in the struggle to keep the wolf from the door, are finding the going pretty rough.
