UNIVERSITY OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

OCTOBER 20, 1969

So I found out that many radicals, or people who call themselves radicals, can't be judged radicals until you see what they do with their own lives, unless you see what they do when they have real power.

Are they willing to relinquish the power? If they're not they're no different than anybody else.

—Eric Mann

*O dark dark dark. They all go into the dark.
The vacant interstellar spaces, the vacant into the vacant,
The captains, merchant bankers, eminent men of letters,
The generous patrons of art, the statesmen and the rulers...
Or as, when an underground train, in the tube, stops too long between stations
And the conversation rises and slowly fades into silence
And you see behind every face the mental emptiness deepen Leaving only the growing terror of nothing to think about.*

—T.S. Eliot
from East Coker

*Nothing to think about
nothing to think about
nothing to think about*
