

Mary Howard Is Bride Of Mark Doyle

A fall wedding was solemnized at St. Mark's Roman Catholic Church at Burton, Lot 7, P. E. I. on October 28, at 8 a.m. by Rev. J. N. Trainor P.P. when Mary Lorraine, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howard of Cape Wolfe, Lot 7, was united in a double-ring ceremony in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Mark Claydon, son of Mrs. Harold Doyle and the late Harold Doyle of Campbellton, Lot 4, P. E. I. The bridal chorus was played by Mrs. B. Howard, aunt of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of white all-over lace and satin with bouffant skirt of illusion tulle. The strapless bodice had a matching bolero with Peter Pan collar and all-over lace motifs. A Victorian headdress with a veil of illusion tulle studded with pearls and sequins completed her costume. She carried a white prayer book with streamers of satin ribbon and white carnations.

She was attended by her sister, Jean, who wore a maize gown of all-over lace and satin and matching bolero. A maize halo completed her costume. She carried a bouquet of 'maims'. The groom was attended by his brothers, Raeborn of Summerside.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a grey suit of ottoman trimmed with velvet. She wore a corsage of red carnations. The groom's mother wore a taffeta dress of peacock blue with a corsage of yellow 'mums'. In the tastefully decorated dining room at the home of the bride's parents, a wedding breakfast was served to 40 guests. The table, which was adorned with bridal cakes, was presided over by Miss Katie Howard, aunt of the bride. The toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. J. N. Trainor and was responded to by the groom. Guests of honor were Rev. J. N. Trainor, Rev. Fr. McDonald of East Point and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Delgan, Freetown, P. E. I. maternal grandparents of the bride.

Later in the day the bridal party left on a short trip returning in the evening to the home of the bride's parents, where neighbors and relatives gathered to wish them many years of wedded bliss. The numerous and costly gifts showed the esteem in which the young couple were held.

After a motor trip to U. S. A. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle will make their home in Montreal. The bride's going-away suit was navy blue with pink accessories. The groom is employed with the Department of Highways in Ontario and the bride is on the staff of Zeller's, Montreal.

Dior's Latest Fashion Proves Popular in British Stores

LONDON, (CP) — The first extra inches. Less than £14 will purchase a smart rough tweed two-piece dress with easy waist, natural hipline and unaccentuated bust.

These down-to-earth copies of Paris' most controversial fall line — originals of which cost £200 to £250 — seem to indicate that the H-line isn't as hard on natural curves as first thought. Women with measurements that fall below Hollywood standards can wear it and make the most of those Miss Kay Wilkens and the bridegroom by Mr. Gerald Arnold. Mr. Steve McNelly and Mr. Earl Smith were ushers.

For her wedding the bride chose a waist-length gown of white Chantilly lace over satin and net. She wore a short lace jacket fashioned with Peter Pan collar and long sleeves over the strapless bodice. A beaded white sash and lace cap held her shoulder-length veil. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, the gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a bouquet of Happiness roses.

Following a reception at La Touraine, the couple left on a motor trip to the New England States and the Maritime provinces. For travelling Mrs. Shama wore a green and white tweed coat dress with tan accessories, a light beige coat, and a corsage bouquet of yellow carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Shama will make their home at 104 Driveway, apt. 5, Ottawa, on their return. Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. R. Barry Reid, Victoria; Miss Helen Shama, Mr. William Shama, Mrs. Salem Korrey, Mr. Emmett Callaghan, Charlottetown; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, Summerside, P. E.
