Local and Other Items.

PROMOTION.—Mr. J. S. McDonald has been promoted to the railway agency at Port Hill.

YOUNG LADIES JOURNAL.—This excellent monthly for July is at the Diamond Bookstore.

F. H. & C.—Port la Joie Encampment meets to-night at 8 o'clock. The second and third degrees will be conferred.

TO KEEP the beard from turning gray, and thus prevent the appearance of age, use Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers, the best dye made.

KINKORA RACES.—Don't forget the Kinkora races on Monday the 24th inst. A good day's trotting is expected. The track is in good order.

SMALL FLEET.—Capt. Puloit, of the cutter Critic, reports the American fleet to be small so far. The Critic is cruising on the north side of the Island.

TO BE SURE.—Terra Haute Express: Wabble—"Isn't it strange that lightning never strikes twice in the same place?" Wabble—"Not so very strange. After it strikes once the place isn't there any more."

DAMAGED.—A good deal of early wheat is reported as damaged in the west by the Hessian fly or grub. Some farmers in Kildare are said to be ploughing up the wheat land and resowing. All other crops are looking splendidly.

A RARE TREAT.—Mrs. Scott-Siddons, by the sheer force of inborn genius, carries everything before her. She is an actress to all intents and purposes, and, more than this, she is one of nature's own actresses.—London (Eng.) Era. See advertisement in to-day's issue.

TWENTY MILE RACE.—The twenty mile go-as-you-please race at Souris came off yesterday as advertised. There were three entries, viz: D. McKinnon, Charles McInnis and L. McCormack. They came to the pole in the order named. Best time two hours and three minutes.

I. O. O. F.—In the last number of the Dominion Oddfellow, a corre pondent from Campbellton, N. B., writes: "An effort is being made to secure the services of a reverend brother from P. E. Island to deliver an address on Oddfellowship, and an appropriate programme is being prepared."

BETTER STILL.—There is no use in puffing the announcement that wild strawberries are on sale at Moncton, when we have them ourselves in large quantities. A friend writes us that he enjoyed a dish of this delicious fruit with the usual baptism of cream on the 15th inst., and that they are now on everybody's table.

THE OAR.—A Toronto despatch says:—"After taking part in several regattas in the States, and winning every race in which he competed, Wm. O'Connor, champion oarsman of America, has returned to Toronto. He will leave again in a week or two for England to row Searle, the Australian, on the Thames, for the championship of the world."

NEW VERSION.—A new version of the Mary's Little Lamb story is given in the Arnold, Neb., News. Here it is: Miss Bertha Needham had two visitors at her school last week that were rather unwelcome guests, consisting of two large snakes. One crawled in at the open door and was quickly despatched by her scholars, when another one was discovered hanging over the top of the door-sill, which met with a similar fate.

MORE PREDICTIONS.—Rev. W. E. Chrismas is lecturing on "Prophetic Events" in Orpheus Hall, Halifax. He says that Christ's second coming will take place in 1901, and that before the expiration of twelve months a terrible war will break out in Europe, as a result of which the 23 kingdoms will be formed into only ten, and Ireland will have self government. Canada and America will benefit by the outbreak, but England will suffer greatly.

STILL THEY COME.—Another breach of promise case is reported from Nova Scotia. Catherine Davidson, living near Springhill, sues Stephen A. Herritt, of that town, for $1,000 damages. Mr. Herritt was a widower, and Miss Davidson was his housekeeper for many years. All went smoothly until three or four years ago, when he married, after which she claimed that a promise of marriage to her had been made, which he denies.

A NEW HALL.—Chicago is to have an Oddfellows temple, and like everything else undertaken in that city, it is to be erected on a grand scale, and will cost $1,000,000. The new building will be located in the business portion of Chicago, and will be arranged to accommodate all the Oddfellow lodges in the city. In addition to the lodge rooms there will be a large auditorium that will accommodate 10,000 people. Office rooms will also be arranged for, and it is the intention of the association to make it the finest temple in the country.

SENSITIVE.—A well-known punster was yesterday afternoon testing the water supply in front of his store on Queen Street, when two countrymen drove by. One of them requested a small quantity of the beverage, which was granted by the generous donor, exclaiming, "let us spray," and pointing the nozzle over their head as a dew-ty. But the gentle rain from heaven was not in this case "twice blessed," for the recipient displayed chagrin, and hied away to the court of justice in order that his injured majesty might be avenged. He is still at large.

A CLEVER PERSONATION.—There were many instances of personation at the recent mayoralty election in St. John. Progress has the following: A well dressed lady entered Queen's ward polling booth, Tuesday morning, gave the name of a qualified voter, and voted. She looked like a woman, she spoke like a woman, walked like a woman, and for all the uninitiated knew, was a female. But she wasn't. ——— had shaved off his mustache, borrowed a neat fitting dress and personated a woman voter.

Tendency of our Fish Trade.

On Monday there went from St. John, by way of the Short Line, shipments of fresh fish and lobsters amounting in all to about a ton. They were consigned to parties in Sherbrooke, Waterloo, Quebec and Montreal.

Messrs. Leonard Bros., of St. John, forwarded a car-load of fresh fish by the I. C. R. to Montreal on Monday morning. The weight of the shipment was 20,000 lbs. In the afternoon the same firm made consignments by the Short Line to Sherbrooke and other points in Ontario and Quebec.

Personal.

Premier Mowatt and family have gone to Europe.

Rev. Father Danaher, of Halifax, was taken suddenly ill a few days ago. At latest accounts, however, he was reported improving.

Cardinal Gibbons will shortly perform the initiatory ceremony toward ordaining the first colored priest in the United States by admitting Randolph Uncles to the clerical state.

A Buffalo despatch says the family of Alex. Sullivan, who figures in the Cronin murder case at Chicago, reside in Amherstburg, Ont., in comfortable circumstances, and are highly respected.

Theodore Tilton, now a white-haired old man, is to be seen every night at a famous chess cafe in Paris. There is talk that he will soon publish a history of the great Beecher-Tilton trial.

Engineer Burke, of the British man-of war Caliope, the only vessel which escaped from Apia harbor during the great storm there, has been promoted to be fleet engineer as a reward for his services in enabling the vessel to steam out of the harbor.

Much sympathy is felt with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wood, on account of the death of their children, noticed in another column. Because of the nature of the disease their friends were deterred from rendering the assistance that it was in their hearts to give.

The Prince of Wales has just been elected President of a committee formed with the object of erecting a monument over Father Damien's grave at Molokai, and the construction of a leper ward to be attached to the hospital for skin diseases in London.

It is stated that on Dominion Day Her Majesty will confer titles upon several leading public men in recognition of services rendered to Canada. The names of Messrs Masson, Chapleau, Mowatt and Robinson are whispered in connection with the expected honors.

Major Frost, of Boston, has received a despatch from London, stating that Lord Salisbury had granted the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia rifle team permission to visit England, armed and equipped as a military body. The team will leave for London next Wednesday.

United States Minister Lincoln delivered a very neat address at his first public appearance in England. No doubt the expression of astonishment at the warmth of greeting was sincere. It must have struck him as a courteous return for the treatment accorded the British Minister at Washington.

The Pictou heirs of the Innes estate are uncertain whether the amount is $15,000,000 or $30,000,000, Miss Innes appears to have made a will which is "a perfect curiosity of mystical indefiniteness." In a letter to the Halifax Herald John Walter, Sr., of Riverdale, claims the $30,000,000 for the youngest daughter (now living) of Murdoch Innes, who came to Pictou in 1803.

News Notes.

A subscriptions has been started in Cork, Ireland, for the Johnstown sufferers.

The Connecticut Senate has sustained the Governor's veto of the Secret Ballot Bill.

Affairs in Crete are quieting down. The Greek Government is acting as peacemaker between the warring factions.

Smallpox and yellow fever are said to be committing great ravages in Rio Janerio and the adjacent country in Brazil.

Ontario whitefish and trout are now on at sale at St. John, N. B., owing to the quick transport by the Short Line.

Princess Eugene Esterhazy, a leading beauty of Austria, has died, it is said, of grief for the late Crown Prince Rudolf.

Russia, Germany and Austria have sent an identical note to the Swiss Government advising it to deal more severely with Anarchists and Socialists.

The Westminster Review points that there are 800,000 more widows that widowers in England, and moralises upon this fact in a ponderous and instructive manner.

The iron steamship Pomona, from New York for Montego Bay, has been lost off Baracoa, Cuba. The crew of 14 were saved. The steamer was valued at $60,000.

A colored constable at Austin, Tex., undertook to arrest a white horse thief the other day. A free fight took place between friends of the parties, which resulted in the death of four whites and two blacks. A dozen were wounded.

English are reaching after Maritime Province breweries as well as American. An offer from some English capitalists to purchase the large brewery of Simeon Jones, of St. John, N. B., has been declined, the amount offered not being considered up to the value of the property.

Whatever may be said as to the lack of enterprise in Nova Scotia, no one can truthfully charge the banks of that province with not being alive to business and branching out in all directions. New Brunswick, P. E. Island, Cape Breton are covered with agencies of Halifax banks; two of them have located in Montreal, one in Minneapolis, and now the Bank of Nova Scotia has opened out in Kingston, Jamaica, where W. E. Stavert, recently agent at Moncton, represents that bank.

A French count when brought into court by eighty-two different creditors acknowledged that he was somewhat financially embarrassed, but he wanted a little more time to conclude a marriage with an American girl. It was granted.

Torturing Horses.

Under this heading a correspondent of the Empire calls attention to the "American Bearing Rein" so commonly used in this civilized age:

"Observe any horse in harness with a tight check-rein and see for yourself what he is made to endure—his nose held up in the air, and the weight of his head and neck supported by the muscles of the latter in an unnatural and constrained position for a long period must be an almost unendurable strain, the only slight relief being afforded by resting on the bit in his mouth; and I have seen many a horse with his mouth full of blood and foam after a long drive, especially in the summer. Watch a horse in waiting at the side of the pavement, attached to a post or weight wearing one of these reins (which is rarely, if ever, unhooked, as it might easily be from the saddle), his head ceaselessly turning from one side to the other seeking rest and finding none, and his eyes showing as plainly as words could the intense discomfort he feels. And now, what can anyone advance in favor of this barbarous check-rein? Here is a reason or two against it:

1. It is undoubted cruelty; the misery it inflicts is on the noblest of animals.

2. It ruins the appearance of a horse, who cannot carry himself properly thus strapped up; in fact an arched neck or crest is impossible when this rein is used; it conduces to a "ewe-neck."

3. It spoils the mouth, rendering it hard and callous.

4. It makes a horse fretful, impatient and irritable to a degree, and is the cause of many a runaway and accident.

5. A horse cannot judge properly where he is putting his feet when his head is held up in a star-gazing position, and he cannot recover himself as well from a consequent stumble.

In conclusion, I will add that I pity from the bottom of my heart the horses condemned to endure this torture, and trust that some means may be found to abolish its use or misuse."

About Horses.

There is a mad competition among the wealthy residents of Buenos Ayres, South America, to see who shall own the best running and trotting horses. The man who secured Prince Wilkes for $30,000 undoubtedly leads the procession among the trotters, but the running horses in Buenos Ayres are more evenly matched. An offer of $50,000 was recently made for the English race horse Goldseeker, winner of the Suburban Handicap.

Little Queen, 2.40, by King Herod, foaled May 28, a black colt by Herod, 2.24½. The aggregate ages of sire and dam equal forty four years. Owing to close relationship and old age a small-boned, weakly colt was predicted. The result is the strongest, largest, biggest-boned foal the mare has ever had, though she has had seven foals before by large Clay and Hambleton stallions.

The pacer Belmont Boy, a son of the trotting stallion Nutwood, that created such a sensation in California last season, making a record of 2.15, and showing himself to be game as well as fast, died recently from pneumonia. The loss is a severe one on the owner of Belmont Boy, an offer of $15,000 having not long ago been refused for the stallion. Pacers that are by such strongly trotting-bred sires as Nutwood are apt to speed at either the pace or trot with more uniformity than almost any other stallion, this having been shown in the case of Sidney and others.

Telegraphic Tips.

LIVERPOOL, June 15.—The British steamer Kansas and the Dutch steamer Lestris collided this morning. Both vessels are badly damaged.

ASHLAND, Wis., June 15.—The Colby mine at Bessemer has practically shut down. This is due to the fact that the grade of ore it has been producing is not profitable. Colby was third in the list of great mines in 1888.

LONDON, June 15.—The sailors' strike at Leith is collapsing. Shipowners find little difficulty in securing crews.

CITY OF MEXICO, via Galveston, June 15.—The roof of the Merced market fell in yesterday, burying a number of persons. Eight dead and forty-five wounded have already been taken out. The soldiers are removing the rubbish and searching for bodies.

DIED.

At West River, June 19, Mrs. David McEwen, daughter of William Hyde, aged 64. [Funeral Friday 21st, at 11 o'clock.]

At Pownal, Lot 49, on the 13th May, Evelyn Henry, aged 6 years and 2 months. On the 19th, Georgia Jane, aged 4 years and 3 months, and on the 26th of May, Edward Earl, aged 2 years and 6 months, of scarletina, children of Henry and Melinda Wood. "Of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

Though cast down, yet not forsaken,
Though afflicted, not alone;
Thou didst give and Thou hast taken,
Blessed Lord, "Thy will be done."

At Montague Cross, on Thursday, the 13th inst., Patrick A. O'Connell, eldest son of John O'Connell, Esq., in the 22nd year of his age. The deceased was a young man of good moral character. He served in his father's store for a number of years and won and enjoyed the good will and esteem of customers, neighbors and all with whom he became acquainted. He left his home in May, 1888, for the United States, where he found employment until April, 1889, when his health failed. His medical attendant advised a change of air and on the 5th inst., he left New Hampshire for his native home, where he arrived on the 8th inst., in a low and exhausted state. His remains were interred in St. Michael's Church Yard, Montague West. The largness of the funeral procession (three-fourths of a mile in length) formed a true estimate of the respect and esteem in which the deceased was held. May his soul rest in peace.

THE benefits of vacation season may be greatly enhanced, if, at the same time, the blood is being cleansed and vitalized by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. A good appetite, fresh vigor, and buoyant spirits attend the use of this wonderful medicine.
