Victor Lord of Klondyke, is registered at the Driard Hotel, Victoria, B. C. Lord, or "Lucky Lord" as he is called, is on his way to Warwick, Que., where he will spend the winter with his aged parents. He returns from Klondyke with a big bag of nuggets, enough to keep him for the rest of his days, even after giving his numerous friends a scarf pin each. Mr. Lord will return to Klondyke. His advice is: "If you go take plenty of warm clothes and supplies for one year."

Sir Louis Davies, brother-in-law of the Rev. C. F. Wiggins of this place, is of Welsh descent and after his visiting in company with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. Gladstone at Hawarden, he went to Lanewet in South Wales. Newspapers report that every window in the little gray stone town greeted him with his flag and device, there was a band, an illumination, speeches and winding off with the Welsh rendering of Land of my Fathers.—Sackville Post.

Mr. Charles Haystead, of the Josie Mills Dramatic Company, with several members of the company passed through the city yesterday afternoon going to New York. The company finished its season at Parrsboro Monday night, opening the new house there. Mr. Haystead says the company has made money in the provinces. After a rest, they will reorganize and open on September 11th at Ottawa, playing four weeks there and go thence to Winnipeg.—St. John Telegraph.

A pessimistic view is taken by the London Spectator of the conditions likely to develop under the United States tariff. It says: "Never before has the complete domination of the trusts over the Republican party been made so palpable to the average man. Congress has been ordered to protect the trusts, and has observed. We find protection stripped of its old pretentions and excuses. It is reduced to a bare mercenary aspect. It means the ending of wealthy corporations to levy tribute upon the masses, and to use the powers of the Government to enhance piles that are already enormous. We believe that, with a just cause behind them, the United States might safely defy all the machinations of hostile Europe, but in an aggressive policy, dictated by selfish pecuniary interests, it must be plain that the United States runs a serious risk of collision; and how fatal that might be to all the highest interests of mankind are abundantly clear. We trust that all wise and right minded Americans will sound a warning against this bill. If the alternatives for the republic are to be on the one hand a policy of jingoism and on the other hand a policy of crude confiscation, then a very serious crisis for order, freedom and national self-government will have arrived."

After.... Taking

a course of Ayer's Pills the system is set in good working order and a man begins to feel that life is worth living. He who has become the gradual prey of constipation, does not realize the friction under which he labors, until the burden is lifted from him. Then his mountains sink into molehills, his moroseness gives place to jollity, he is a happy man again. If life does not seem worth living to you, you may take a very different view of it after taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

A satisfactory beverage for outing parties is unquestionably Sovreign Fruit Syrups. Among its great variety in flavors all tastes are suited.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

ECLIPSE OF THE SUN—The partial eclipse of the sun this forenoon was witnessed by many of our citizens.

CALL HERE.—The person who advertised a watch chain in THE EXAMINER a day or so ago will kindly call at this office.

POLICE COURT.—This forenoon a lad named Francis Gormley was fined $5 or 20 days for stealing from the premise of Carvell Bros., on the 23rd May last. Several other lads implicated in the steal were disposed of at the time.

John Gormley, for being drunk, disorderly and fighting on the 29th May, was fined $8 or 40 days.

The case of Thomas Meek, charged with violating the Sunday Observance Law, was adjourned until the 31st inst.

SHIPPED FROM SUMMERSIDE—On Tuesday five horses were part of the Northumberland's cargo, Mr Edward Sinclair, of Bass River, taking away three, and Mr. H. Collett, of Carleton, shipping one. Mr. Chas. A. McNutt also sent away 60 sheep and lambs. On Wednesday Mr. Jos. Steeves, of Moncton, took away three, and Mr. Reid of the same place six. One of the latter was a large chestnut purchased from Mr. Wm. Tanton, of the Back Road. Considerable oats and eggs also formed part of the cargo on the latter day.

PICNIC YESTERDAY.—The League of the Cross picnic at Midgell yesterday was a success in every respect. The weather which prevailed throughout the day was all that could be desired. Eleven well-filled coaches comprised the special train which left about nine o'clock in the morning and arrived home about the same hour in the evening. A special train from Souris also brought a goodly number. The "small boy" particularly enjoyed himself. A good programme of sports was carried out, liberal prizes being given to the winners. The band of the society rendered choice music at intervals during the day. The committee in charge desire through the press to thank all those who helped, by donation and services, to make this year's picnic a success.

HOTEL IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. P. S. Brown' the hustling proprietor of the Revere Hotel, has lately made some alterations in that centrally-located hostelry which cannot fail to add to the popularity of the house. The front of the building has been re-arranged and the change is decidedly for the better. To the left of the main entrance a new reception room has been opened. The office on the right has also been re-arranged and improved. A new steel ceiling, beautifully ornamented, has been put in this room by Lowe Bros and the walls have been artistically papered and decorated by Mr. Crossman. The electric light service has also been augmented. The rooms on the second floor have also had improvements made to them, and altogether many most important changes have been made. Mr. Brown reports receiving a large share of patronage.

A VICTIM OF HOLMES.

The Remains of Minnie Williams Thought to Have Been Found

Interest in the story of H. H. Holmes, the multi-murderer, hanged at Philadelphia, is revived by a sensational discovery near Momence, Kankakee county, Ill. There have been found a skull and bones, undoubtedly the remains of Minnie Williams, the typewriter, one of the numerous victims of Holmes. The remains of a log cabin in the thickly wooded district on the banks of the Kankakee was the scene of the discovery. In his confession Holmes distinctly stated that he brought Minnie Williams to Momence. The two stopped over night at the principal hotel in the place. The following day he took Miss Williams in a buggy some distance from this city. In a lonely cabin where the cries of his victim could reach no human ear, the heartless man of crime murdered the girl. Then he burned the cabin and with it the body. The relatives of Minnie Williams were informed and a decent burial accorded the victim's remains.
