

Eli Perkins on Children.

To-day I sat in a car seat on the Lake Shore road, behind a pale, care-worn lady, who was taking a little boy from Cleveland to Ashtabula.

"What is that, Auntie," pointing to a heap of corn. "O, that's corn, dear," answered the care-worn lady.

"Who makes it?" "God makes it, dear." "Does he make it in the day-time or in the night?"

"In both, dear." "And Sundays?" "Yes, all the time." "Ain't it wicked to make corn on Sunday, Auntie?"

"O, I don't know. Do keep still Freddy—that's a dear! Auntie is tired." After remaining quiet a moment, little Freddy broke out:

"Where do stars come from, Auntie?" "I don't know; nobody knows." "Did the moon lay 'em?"

"Yes, I guess so," replied the wicked lady. "Can the moon lay eggs, to?" "I suppose so. Don't bother me?"

A short silence, when Freddy broke out again: "Fanny Mason says oxen is a owl, Auntie; is they?"

"O, perhaps so!" "I think a whale could lay eggs—don't you, Auntie?"

"O, yes—I guess so!" said the shameless woman. "Did you ever see a whale on his nest?"

"O, I guess so!" "Where?" "O, I don't know! Do keep still, Freddy!"

And the lady gave a sigh and looked out of the window. A moment afterwards Freddy looked out of the window and saw a man milking a cow.

"What is he doing to the cow, Auntie?" "Milking her, dear." "Where do they put the milk in, Auntie?"

"Oh! in her mouth!" "Did you ever see them put the milk in?" "O, yes!"

"Where?" "I mean no, Freddy, you must be quiet—I'm getting crazy!" "What makes you crazy, Auntie?"

"Oh dear! you ask so many questions." The little boy seemed to be puzzled and thoughtful a moment; but soon his curiosity got the better of him, and, as the car passed a pasture in which were a sheep and a lamb, he asked:

A MARVELOUS STORY

TOLD IN TWO LETTERS. FROM THE SON: "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 2, 1882.

Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the enclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years, but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.

Yours truly, W. M. FILLIPE. FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the Sarsaparilla in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 11, 1882. Yours gratefully, HIRSH PHILLIPS.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA CURES Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blisters, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5.
