BRISTOL

Mr. Jack Rouster, has received the appointment as a new Post Master at Morell. He takes over the office next month when Mrs. Marion Jay follows her husband into retirement after forty eight years serving the public. Mr. and Mrs. Anselm LaPierre were business visitors to the city Wednesday along with Mrs. Bill Aylward and her mother Mrs. Viney Kelly and Herb McDermott. Mrs. George McKenzie, who went to Boston following the sudden passing of her husband last summer to reside with her daughters, has returned to the old hometown for the summer at least where members of her family and several grandchildren spend the summer. Mrs. Mary Norton, was here from Halifax, last week to visit her parents Mr. and Mrs. John R. O'Brien, and other relatives. The former Mrs. O'Brien, she left here many years ago to reside in Halifax. Mrs. Wilfred Stewart, the former Lila O'Brien, is visiting in Halifax, guest of her brothers who reside there. The elementary school in the village has closed its doors for the last time. The school built only a few years ago is of no more use with the erection of the new and much larger high school. The present high school will take care of the lower grades in future, while the other school, located across from the telephone office, will be sold. The lobster season is over and news of the fishermen report it was a poor, late, rough season. When Canada celebrates her 100th birthday in 1964 we hope to have this vicinity's grand old lady Mrs. Connolly to take part in the big event. Now ninety-eight, Mrs. Connolly will be one hundred years old in 1964. Mr. Neil Matheson, the "Across the Island" reporter for this paper plans to visit Mrs. Connolly soon for her story of the history of long long ago. She resides with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Connolly. ADVISES INOCULATIONS GALT, Out. (CP)—Dr. R. J. Smith, medical officer of health, Monday advised all citizens to have typhoid inoculations. An Ontario health department official is expected here this week from Toronto to investigate the source of an infection which has sent seven persons in hospital with paratyphoid in the last month.
