HARVEST SONG.

Ho! rouse ye lads!—the morning breeze Has swept the mist from the stream, And afar on the hills, the towering trees Are tip with day's first beam.

GOD HATH A VOICE.

God hath a voice! it speaks from on high,
And echoing, bursts through the canopy sky;
It whispers, though faint, in the straggling breeze,
And rears in the foam of the billowing seas;

MOFFAT'S

VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES.

THESE Medicines are indebted for their name and channels of life, and ending them with renewed vigour. In many hundred certified cases which have been public, and in almost every species of disease to which human frame is liable, the happy effects of Moffat's Life Pills Phenix Bitters have been gratefully and publicly acknowledged by all persons benefited, and who were previously un-quainted with the beautifully philosophical principles upon which they are compounded, and upon which they consequently act.
The Life Medicines recommend themselves in diseases of excess and description. The first operation is to loosen the coats of the stomach and bowels the various impurities crudities constantly settling around them; and to remove hardened faeces which collect in the convolutions of the intestines. Other medicines only partially cleanse these leave such collected masses behind as to produce habitual constipation, with all its train of evils, or sudden diarrhoea, with its dangers. This fact is well known to all regular anatomists who examine the human bowels after death; and hence prejudice of these well informed men against such medicines or medicines prepared and heralded to the public by ignorant persons. The second effect of the Life Medicines is to cleanse the kidneys and the bladder, and by this means, to restore the lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the urinary organs. The blood, which passes red colour from the agency of the liver and the lungs, before passes into the heart, being thus purified by them, and ed by food coming from a clean stomach, courses freely through the veins, renews every part of the system, and triumphantly mounts the banner of health in the blooming cheek.
Moffat's Vegetable Life Medicines have been thoroughly tested, and pronounced a sovereign remedy for Dyspepsia, Indigency, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Appetite, Headache, Headache, Restlessness, Illtemper, Anxiety, Langour and Rheumatism, Gout, Dropsies of all kinds, Gravel, Worms, Asthma and Consumption, Scoury, Ulcers, Inverterate Sores, Strangury, Eruptions and Bad Complexions, Eruptive complaints, skin clouds and other disagreeable complexions, Salt Rheum, Erys-sipelas, common Colds and Influenza, and various other plaints which afflict the human frame. In Fever and Ague, particularly, the Life Medicines have been most eminently successful—so much so, that in the Fever and Ague Districts, Physicians almost universally prescribe them.
All that Mr. Moffat requires of his patients is, to be particular in taking the Life Medicines strictly according to the directions.
It is not by a Newspaper notice, or by any thing that he can say in their favor, that he hopes to gain credit. It is by the results of a fair trial.
