Sacredness of Work.

All true work is sacred. In all true work, were it but true hand labor, there is something of divineness. Labor, wide as the earth, has its summit in heaven. Sweat of the brow, and up from that to sweat of the brain, sweat of the heart, which includes all Kepler calculations, Newton meditations, all sciences, all spoken epics, all acted heroisms, martyrdoms--up to that "agony of bloody sweat," which all men have called divine.

Who art thou that complainest of thy life of toil? Complain not. Look up, my wearied brother. See thy fellow workmen there, in God's eternity, surviving there, they alone surviving, sacred band of immortals, celestial bodyguard of the empire of mankind. Even in the weak human memory they survive so long as saints, as heroes, as gods, they alone surviving, peopling, they alone, the immeasured solitudes of time.

To thee heaven, though severe, is not unkind. Heaven is kind--as a noble mother; as that Spartan mother, saying while she gave her son his shield, "With it, my son, or upon it." Thou, too, shalt return home in honor to thy far distant home in honor. Doubt it not--if in the battle thou keep thy shield. Thou in the eternities and deepest death kingdoms art not an alien, thou everywhere art a denizen. Complain not; the very Spartans did not complain.--Thomas Carlyle.

CHARLOTTETOWN Business College

AND Writing Academy

Will re-open for the Fall and Winter Term ON AUGUST 29th.

"Let the Searchlight of Practice illuminate the dark places of Theory"

A THOROUGHLY Progressive, Practical Institution, in which young men and women are not only taught Bookkeeping (in all its applications to Commerce) both by single and double entry, but are trained how to do business by actual business transactions. Their students act as buyers, sellers, traders, bankers, book-keepers and accountants in actual business operations, and the currency issued by the College Bank, and the mdsse. issued from the Emporium are used in bona-fide business transactions, just the same as in mercantile and banking houses. Book-keeping in itself may be learned at home, but a knowledge of how to transact business cannot be thus acquired. That our course and system of training is eminently practical will be testified by testimonials from business men and from students who are now holding lucrative and responsible positions.

SUBJECTS:

Book-keeping by single and double entry (theoretical and practical) Actual Business Practice, Business Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Law, Railroading, Steamboating, Banking (actual practice in the College Bank), Typewriting, Shorthand, and Navigation.

FACULTY:

L. B. Miller, Principal, Teacher of Book-keeping, Arithmetic, Business Practice, Business Correspondence, Typewriting and Navigation. A. C. McMillan, Vice Principal, Teacher of Railroading, Steamboating, Banking, Accounting and Actual Business Practice. J. Harry Williams, teacher of Business Penmanship. Wm. Moran [discensed] Teacher of Shorthand. George S. Enman, Esq., [Law Firm McDonald & Inman] Lecturer on Commercial Law. For circulars or full information write or apply to L. B. MILLER, Principal. All interested are cordially invited to call on the College and inspect our system of training and work in general.
