Gouthro-Kennedy Nuptials

St. John's Church, New Glasgow, was the scene of a very pretty wedding Thursday afternoon, August 24, when Jennie Ellen, daughter of Mrs. Meina Kennedy, formerly of Montague, and the late Joseph Kennedy, was united in marriage to Donald Francis son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gouthro, New Glasgow.

To the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus played by the church organist Mrs. Hugh Ryan, the bride entered the church on the arm of her cousin Mr. Peter Landry by whom she was given in marriage.

She looked very lovely in a floor length gown of white slipper satin with sweetheart neckline, and fashioned with fitted bodice and full skirt ending in a slight train. Her long lace sleeves ended in points over the wrists. Her floor length veil fell in soft folds from a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a beautiful bouquet of red roses.

Miss Violet Boudreau, friend of the bride acted as bridesmaid. She was becomingly gowned in blue taffeta with matching head-dress, and carried a bouquet of red roses. The winsome little flower girl was attired in yellow taffeta and carried yellow and mauve mums. Mr. Benjamin Leadbeater, friend of the groom, was best man and the ushers were Mr. Jerome MacDonald and Mr. Robert Gouthro.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for approximately thirty guests was held at the Norfolk Hotel.

The bride's table was centered with the three tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom. The cake was cut in the traditional manner by the bride and groom. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kennedy chose a blue taffeta dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother wore a black satin dress with matching accessories and dances were held in the Kilmuir School on Thursday nights, August 3 and 10 respectively. These were sponsored by the Kilmuir Women's Institute members, who were in attendance to serve ice cream and other refreshments. Excellent music was furnished by local talent, Messrs. L. Lecco, G. Hume, M. MacKinnon and the Misses Eleanor and Florence MacKinnon, assisted by other volunteer musicians. A special feature on August 10, which created much interest, was some variety step dancing by the Misses Jessie MacGowan, Audrey Ricks and Messrs. Lawrence Lecco and Walter Campbell. The proceeds are to be used to purchase window shades and to make other needed improvements in the school.

Whim Road and Vicinity

Mrs. Basil MacKinnon and young son, David, Kilmuir, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Nicholson, Valleyfield.

Messrs. John and Billie MacPherson, Bellevue, spent the weekend at Whim Road, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell.

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Mack MacKinnon, who are now residing in Kilmuir, were honored with a miscellaneous shower held at the home of Mr. MacKinnon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl MacKinnon, Kilmuir. Friends and neighbors who gathered there presented the young couple with many useful and beautiful gifts and extending their best wishes for luck and happiness. Entertainment for the evening consisted of instrumental music, singing and several contests which were enjoyed.

Prior to school opening, two successful school ice-cream fesories and wore a corsage of red roses. Following the reception the bride and groom left on their honeymoon to Prince Edward Island. For travelling the bride wore mauve taffeta with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. While in Montague the young couple were tendered a shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Landry, on Friday, August 25. They were the recipients of many beautiful gifts which were opened by Mrs. Les MacDonald, and the verses read by Miss Lorraine Landry. Following this a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Andrew Landry. Their many friends wish the young couple many years of happiness.
