DEATH BY ELECTRICITY. Daniel Mullane, aged 17, the son of William Mullane of Brooklyn, was instantly killed on Friday night by an electrical shock. The house where the accident occurred is a five-story building, with a restaurant in the basement. Over the restaurant is a large metal sign. Beside this sign is an electrical storage box. This is connected by wire with a metre under the stoop. Two wires run out into the restaurant, where they furnish power for electric fans.

WE HAVE ALL SEEN THEM. People who are proud of their humility. People who talk all the time and never say much. People who never say much and yet speak volumes. People who say a great deal and do very little. People who say little and do a great deal.

THE PROFESSION OF WIFE. (From Harper's Bazar.) Of the three distinctively natural womanly professions, those of wife, mother and housewife that of wife has been comparatively neglected of late years. On the other hand, that of motherhood and housekeeping have attained the dignity of sciences. The periodical literature of to-day teems with special advice and instruction to those holding these professions. Now it is asserted that women have become mothers and housekeepers altogether too much. Young children must be properly cared for, and homes must be made and kept by women. This is undoubtedly true. But to be a complete mother and housekeeper is not the end and aim of every woman's existence, even though she is married and has children. Many women have thought so, and in carrying out their idea have submerged mind and body, leaving such sacrifice laudable and necessary. But in doing so they have ignored and nearly lost sight of a profession of equal dignity and importance. Nay, of primary and paramount importance and dignity, since the "woman" and the "wife" may exist without either of the other professions, while the others cannot exist without her. The first year or two of married life has been heretofore thought sufficient time for a woman to give to her husband as companion, comrade, friend—in short, specially to her profession of wife. After that she sinks herself more or less completely, according to her disposition and temperament, into being a mother and housewife. However finely equipped the woman may be mentally and physically for social, intellectual companionship, and for a life in which such powers take a prominent part, she appears to regard the sacrifice of her own profession of wife as inevitable, and for the most part she consents to it with a good grace. Slowly but surely the husband is relegated to his newspapers, his literary circle, his club and his special friends for entertainment and solace. But his home is a marvel of order and neatness, his clothing is in perfect order, and his dinners are unexcelled in excellence. What more does the man want? His children are models of health and propriety. His wife is a devoted mother and a notable housewife. What can a man ask more than this?

THE BLOOD is the source of health. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla to keep it pure and rich. Be sure to get HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA. USE SKODA'S DISCOVERY, the great blood and Nerve Remedy.

Like a Miracle Consumption—Low Condition Wonderful Results From Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Miss Hannah Wyatt Toronto, Ont. "Four years ago while in the old country (England), my daughter Hannah was sent away from the hospital, in a very low condition with consumption of the lungs and bowels, and weak action of the heart. The trip across the water to this country seemed to make her feel better for a while. Then she began to get worse, and for 14 weeks she was unable to get off the bed. She grew worse for five months and lost the use of her limbs and lower part of body, and if she sat up in bed had to be propped up with pillows. Physicians Said She Was Past All Help and wanted me to send her to the 'Home for Incurables.' But I said as long as I could hold my hand up she should not go. We then began to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She is getting strong, walks around, is out doors every day; has no trouble with her throat and no cough, and her heart seems to be all right again. She was a first class appetite. We regard her cure as nothing short of a miracle." W. WYATT, 88 Marion Street, Parkdale, Toronto, Ontario. Hood's Pills are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless. Sold by all druggists. 25c.
