

DECLARATION DAY.

DEMONSTRATION OF A LIBERAL TRIUMPH.

SATURDAY last, being the day appointed for declaring the candidates having a majority of votes duly elected, that ceremony was performed in Charlotteville for Queen's County in the most orderly manner.

After the Declaration of Candidates, the triumphant Liberals and their friends, to the number of several hundreds, in sleighs which appeared to extend about a mile in length—formed themselves in procession, and drove through the principal streets of the City. The procession was headed by the City Band, and immediately followed by a Car, tastefully constructed, in which were the County members elect and several of their friends. It was drawn by six splendid horses; and all through the line of sleighs there was an abundant display of flags. Many private residences and places of business throughout the City also displayed the national banner; and, indeed, our fellow citizens generally gave evidence of their joy at the change which has taken place in our political affairs.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We have received several communications, which, from various causes, we have been quite unable to attend to. Communications requiring corrections and alterations are altogether inadmissible at a busy time like the present.

"Detective," writing on the subject of Mr. Bass's supposed claims to the Public Printing, will please accept our thanks for the interest he evinces in our behalf. We prefer not to publish the letter, so that Mr. Bass cannot say that his supposed claims have been prejudicial in the least by the Examiner.

NEARLY all our Colonial papers, received by the last two mails, publish in full the Bill now or lately before the Imperial Parliament for the Confederation of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick; and it is worthy of remark that the papers opposed to the measure publish the Bill as well as those that are in favor of it.

We have, as a matter of duty in providing intelligence for our readers, given a synopsis of the terms of the Bill on our first page, and in the inside of our paper we have given some extracts from the Bill itself, including that important clause which leaves it optional with Prince Edward Island to remain out of the Union. It is very desirable that all classes in the community should read this clause; and we hope that no over-sensitive anti-Confederate will censure us for furnishing this piece of intelligence.

"A Colonial and American Mail reached Town last night. We observe no news of special importance in our late papers.

A dividend of 6 per cent. declared for the half year ended 31st February last, is now payable by the Bank of Montreal. The dividend is payable in cash, and in the manner in which they have been paid in former years.

W. H. POPE AND THE CONFEDERATION BLUE BOOK.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

Will you do me the favor of inserting in the next issue of the Examiner the enclosed copy of a communication this day addressed by me to the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies?

W. H. POPE. Ardgowan, Prince Edward Island, March 8th, 1867.

In a Blue Book laid before Parliament on the 8th February, 1867, containing correspondence respecting the proposed Union of the British North American Provinces, there is contained a Despatch from Lieutenant Governor the Honorable Arthur Gordon, to the Right Honorable Edward Cardwell, M. P., which is numbered 54, and dated Frederick, July 2nd, 1865.

2. Along with this Despatch Lieutenant Governor Gordon transmitted to Mr. Cardwell copies of a correspondence which had taken place between the Governor General of British North America, and himself on the subject of certain alleged discrepancies between the text of the Resolutions of the Quebec Conference, as transmitted by the Governor General to England and to the Maritime Provinces, and as printed to be laid before both Houses of Parliament in England and the Legislative Bodies in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island and Newfoundland, and the text of the same resolutions as laid before the Canadian Parliament.

3. The fourth paragraph of Mr. Gordon's Despatch is as follows, viz: "I consider the change an improvement, for I look on everything tending to raise the power of the Central Legislature and diminish that of the local Assemblies as a beneficial alteration on the Original Scheme, but there are many who would not think so; and Mr. Pope, the Colonial Secretary of Prince Edward Island, himself a Delegate, and out of the few warm friends of Federation to be found in the Island from which he comes, informed me that he had his consent been asked to such an alteration it would have been decidedly refused."

4. I beg to inform you that Lieutenant Governor Gordon must have altogether misapprehended the import of my observations to him upon the subject of the alteration in the Resolutions to which he refers; and that he erroneously attributes to me language which I never used, and sentiments which I never entertained.

5. I had the honor of being one of the Delegates, and also one of the Honorary Secretaries of the Quebec Conference. The duties of Secretary were, however, discharged by Lieutenant Colonel Bernard; and at the rising of the Conference that Gentleman undertook to see the Resolutions, as revised and finally passed, engrossed preparatory to their being submitted for signature.

6. I left Canada before the Resolutions were engrossed, and I did not see them, as engrossed, until June, 1866.

7. I had the honor of conversing with Lieutenant Governor Gordon at Frederick in May, 1865. I was at the time aware that His Excellency's Ministers were opposed to Confederation, and that there were different versions of the Resolutions of the Quebec Conference; and that Mr. Gordon's Government had requested His Excellency to ask the Governor General for an explanation of the discrepancies.

8. For these reasons, as well as from the fact that I had not seen the engrossed text, as signed by some of the Delegates, I was particularly guarded in my replies to Mr. Gordon's enquiries on the subject. I remember that I distinctly informed His Excellency that my consent had been refused to the alteration to which Mr. Gordon refers, had it been asked.

9. I may be permitted to state that I would have preferred a Legislative to a Federal Union, but being convinced that a Legislative Union was impracticable, I was an advocate for giving the fullest powers possible to the Central Legislature, and should never have given my assent to anything so monstrously absurd as investing the inferior Legislatures with power to alter the Electoral Districts of the Superior Legislature; and further, that the Resolution to which Mr. Gordon refers, as amended, in my opinion, expressed the views of the Conference, and received my full concurrence.

I have the honor, to be, Sir, Your obedient, Humble servant, W. H. POPE.

The Right Honorable the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

OUR DEFENCES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE EXAMINER. DEAR SIR,—From the ambitious views entertained by Canada, and advocated by a small minority in the Island favoring Confederation, an absolute necessity now exists for placing this country in a permanent situation to resist any combined or sudden enterprise.

No doubt an appearance of weakness will not fail, in due time, to invite an attack, whilst a state of preparation will show the utter impossibility of its succeeding. The country should not only be in a situation to oppose a successful resistance to any invading enemy, but so organized as to inspire a general sentiment of security and safety, without which she cannot long be able to preserve her independence and rank in the political scale of nations.

Our Volunteers are probably the happiest expedient which could be employed to meet the exigencies of these eventful times. There may be many objections to it as a national system, so as to render its continuance precarious, destructive of nearly all discipline, without which armed bodies are but mobs, more formidable to their friends than to their enemies.

In the event of Great Britain removing the regular troops, consisting of two companies of the 4th King's Own Regt. from the Island, it will be necessary for the Government to supply their place with a local permanent regular force of one or two efficient companies. Such troops will require at times an infusion of recruits to supply unavoidable losses, and it would be advisable to establish a depot in each County in training for that purpose, or Volunteers from the embodied Militia. It is essential that an efficient staff should be employed to drill the Militia for a period of 28 days in each year, devoting one month to each County, and comprising through the year a general knowledge of the duties required by a Regiment in a short space of time, thus rendering the corps in some measure effective. The number of men required to be drawn by Ballot, for a period of two or three years, and under course of drill to receive six pence per diem; to appear in their usual dress on parade, otherwise to be clothed in the most simple and inexpensive manner possible.

"A Colonial and American Mail reached Town last night. We observe no news of special importance in our late papers.

expense of the Government, such clothing as last for their term of service. Substitutes to be allowed for those drawn by ballot, who are not disposed to serve.

The number of Battalions of Infantry in the first instance should be three, being one for each County, to be gradually increased as may be required. No officers should receive commissions unless fully competent practically to command their respective Companies or Regiments (as the case may be) in the field; and those who are now incompetent should forthwith be dismissed.

The Staff to be employed in drilling the Militia in January, February and March; the Volunteers the remainder of the year, in such localities as may be deemed most desirable.

These observations are equally applicable to Troops of Cavalry, and Troops and Battalions of Artillery.

It will be necessary, to protect the harbors of Charlotteville, Georgetown and Summerside with Batteries, to prevent an enemy approaching our towns and destroying our properties. No doubt the British Government will cheerfully contribute the largest portion of the expense to meet our wishes. I have thrown out these few remarks in the hope that some able person will do subject that justice which it deserves. I may be induced to offer some observations respecting the Militia Bill, the apparent injustice towards the working class, and the appointment of inefficient Field Officers.

In the meantime, I am, yours, PIPE CLAY. Charlotteville, March 9, 1867.
