Service in the United Church, Breadalbane on April the 22nd, was conducted by Rev. W. B. MacPhail who chose as the theme, "Following Christ Through Life." "That Christ is the Saviour, and we must believe," he stated, "and live for Him immediately and wholeheartedly as the disciples did. A good guide for one's life is, "Do all the good you can, in all the ways you can, just to all the people you can, just as long as you can." The hymns sung were: "I Am Thine O Lord", "Saviour Let Me Walk With Thee", and "O Set Ye Open Unto Me."

Sunday evening service in the Christian Church was led by Rev. L. Richardson who spoke on the subject, "Intercession." Throughout the pages of the Bible we see the names of many great men, such as Noah and Abraham, who have pleaded, prayed and interceded for the people. Christ prayed "that they all may be one." Each Christian can by fervent sincere prayer for others, as well as for himself, help to achieve this great desire of His Master, and, at the same time impart a greater power and brighter radiance to his own spiritual life. The hymns sung were: "Brightly Beams Our Father's Mercy", "Again The Lord of Light and Life", and for the invitation, "Softly and Tenderly". The offertory number by the choir was, "My Hope Is Built on Nothing Less."
