

WOMAN MURDERED AT LITTLE HARBOR LAST NIGHT

Mrs. John MacKinnon Shot Through Window As Kneled At Prayers

Mrs. John MacKinnon of Little Harbor, a few miles east of Souris, was shot to death in her home last night around 8.30 o'clock. Authorities suspect it may have been murder.

Mrs. MacKinnon, a widow woman and the mother of nine children, was killed as she knelt in prayer with two of her younger children. The shot was fired from short range, apparently from just outside the window.

The R. C. M. P. detachment in Souris was rounding up a search party to comb the area for the person who fired the shot. Several members of the Charlottetown detachment left for the area and Inspector N. W. Churchill stated late last night that the R.C.M.P. from Nova Scotia would be called in if required.

The children, who were praying with their mother, said they heard a second shot shortly after the first. Authorities reported that the woman was apparently shot with a .22 rifle.

Deputy Attorney General, Mr. J. O. Campbell left Charlottetown shortly after midnight for the scene of the tragedy.

Mrs. MacKinnon, believed to be about 41 years of age, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MacAulay of Little Harbor. Her husband died about two years ago.

In addition to her nine children, Mrs. MacKinnon is survived by five brothers and one sister. The brothers are George, St. Catharines; Albert, Souris Line Road; Joseph, Souris West; Charlie, Ontario and the sister is Mrs. S. J. MacDonald, Chepstow.

One of her daughters, Miss Mary Estelle MacKinnon, is a nurse in training at the City Hospital. The two children with her at the time of the shooting are believed to be fourteen and seven years of age. Coroner Dr. M. N. Beck of St. Peter's Bay ordered an inquest and a jury was sworn in. The time and place of the inquest was not known.

Island Officer Pilots Rescue Plane In Ontario

The first sighting of a plane which had been forced down and lost for six days in the bushland of Northern Ontario, was made by the crew of a plane piloted by Flying Officer Henry Brown of Alberton, P.E.I.

When discovered, the pilot of the missing plane, Bruno Vannier of Sturgeon Falls, Ont., was in an exhausted condition and required hospital treatment, having had only two chocolate bars and one apple to eat in the six days he had been stranded on a small island in Yorkston Lake.

The complete story of the exploits of Flying Officer Brown and his companions appeared in the Nov. 2nd issue of the Toronto Daily Star. Besides F/O Brown, the crew of the rescue plane was Flying Officer Peter Olenick, who sighted the wreckage, and Corporal H. C. Image.

F/O Brown is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown of Alberton, and learned to fly three years ago on an air cadet scholarship. He was a member of the No. 60 Squadron, Charlottetown Air Cadets at the time he obtained his Air Cadet Pilot.

Korean Truce Talks Appear Near Collapse

By WILLIAM JORDEN
MUSAN, Korea, Nov. 9 — (Friday) — (AP) — The Korean armistice talks, tightly tied up on the buffer zone issue, resume at Panmunjom at 11 A.M. today (9 P.M. Thursday, E.S.T.).

Suspecting a Red booby trap the Allied negotiators Thursday "completely rejected" Communist proposal to fix a demilitarized zone immediately once and for all — regardless of future battlefield changes which might favor the United Nations.

The Allies insisted, however they were still hopeful — but far from optimistic — of future progress.

Meanwhile, the Korean truce question was raised Thursday at a much higher level — at the United Nations General Assembly in Paris. State Secretary Dean Acheson of the United States challenged the Russians to work sincerely for peace in Korea, declaring that an armistice "could open the door to broader consultations on other aspects of the far eastern situation."

(Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Malenkov in turn demanded a cessation of hostilities in Korea within 10 days, withdrawal of Allied forces to the 38th parallel and

Court of Queen's County Magistrate

The preliminary hearing of the case against Robert Rackham of Brookfield, charged with manslaughter, commenced in the Queen's County Magistrate's Court on Wednesday, and was adjourned by Magistrate Gilbert A. Gaudet until Monday, Nov. 12th, after the evidence of eight witnesses for the prosecution and four defense witnesses had been heard.

The charge resulted from the death of Wendell Johnston, also of Brookfield, in a truck-train collision at Winsloe crossing on June 7th last. Appearing for the Crown was John P. Nicholson and for the accused, D.L. Matheson, K.C.

Convicted on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while his ability to drive was impaired by alcohol, a resident of Kinross was fined $60 and costs or 60 days, and a resident of North Rustico pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle while his license was suspended. He was fined $50 and costs or 30 days.

A resident of Charlottetown was convicted of intoxication in a public place, third offence, and sentenced to three months in jail, and for his second offence on the same charge, a resident of Charlottetown was fined $30 and costs or 60 days. A similar charge against a resident of Alexandra was dismissed, and on a second charge, that of pointing a shotgun at another person, he was convicted and fined $50 and costs or 30 days.

A resident of Vernon Bridge, convicted on a charge of common assault, was fined $10 and costs or twenty days, and in addition was required to enter into a recognizance to keep the peace.

In the air wings the Communists put about 100 of their Russian-supplied MiG into clearing skies over Northwest Korea. Three duels were fought with 60 American Sabre jets.

Fifth Air Force headquarters claimed one Mig was shot down in flames and two damaged. The air force announced Allied planes returned safely from two of the encounters. No statement was made about the third.

A Communist communiqué claimed three Allied planes were shot down.

Queries Minister Re Rustico Harbor

OTTAWA, Nov. 8 — (Special) — By means of questions on the House of Commons order paper W. Chester S. McLeure, Conservative member for Queen's today put pressure on the Public Works Department for action on repairs to Rustico harbor. Mr. McLeure asks:

"Has the contract for repairs to the breakwater at Rustico harbor been completed?"
"If not, can the work be completed during the winter season?"
"Who are the contractors?"
"What is the amount of the contract?"
"Does the contract call for a time limit for completion?"

Mr. McLeure also asks if provision will be made for the Rustico fishermen in order that they may be able to use the new type dragger boats. He further calls on the Minister of Fisheries to state if changes have been made in the Prince Edward Island lobster seasons and if so what the changes are.

Turning to agriculture, the Queen's member asks for Federal regulations governing the manufacture of margarine for human consumption, and asks specifically what amount of each kind of oil or other ingredient is used in the manufacture of margarine?

Discussion On Fishery Matters

A discussion on small fishing industries of this Province featured yesterday's session of the Fisheries Development Committee held in the Court House. Presided over by the chairman Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell, the committee held an open meeting and discussed possible ways of improving harbors to make the use of draggers possible.

Consideration was given to the special needs of the Rustico area which is one of the largest fishing areas here and the Committee will explore all possibilities of bringing aid to the fisheries of that section.

Dr. A. W. H. Needler, Director of the Biological Station at St. Andrews, N.B., led a technical discussion on the cold storage of fish, especially lobsters, and told of the varying degrees of temperature at which they would best keep their flavor over a long period of time. He said that packaged lobster meat apparently did not keep as well as when the whole lobster was stored.

The general meeting was then adjourned until Friday, December 14, when it is hoped to have Professor J. Gordon's report on the fisheries economic survey he completed this summer.

Planting Of Oak Tree Will Follow Royal Custom Here

The oak tree which Her Royal Highness the Princess Elizabeth will plant during her visit to the Experimental Farm this afternoon, was grown on the station from an acorn produced by the tree planted in 1919 by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, it was learned yesterday from Mr. R. C. Parent, Supervisor of the Station.

The first tree to be planted at the Station by a member of the Royal Family, was an elm tree planted by the Duke of Connaught in 1912; and that will be alongside this tree that will be planted by the Princess Elizabeth.

The Royal Highness will present the Revolver Challenge Cup to Corporal William Beatty of the Summerside Detachment, R. C. M. P.

An exhibit in the marquee at the Farm is an aerial mosaic map of the central part of the Island, the work of Frank Gaudet, Chief Forester, and Wendell Proffitt, Forestry Engineer, of the Department of Industry and Natural Resources. Also on display will be the map of the Royal Tour executed by the pupils of the Model School.

Tea foxes and ten mink, including the pearl platinum type from which the cape, the gift of the Province to Her Royal Highness, was made, will be exhibited under the supervision of Dr. C. K. Gunn, Supervisor of the Dominion Fur Ranch, Summerside. The animals comprise the chief mutant and standard types in the present day fur ranching industry.

The colours of the animals range through the soft pastel shades of blue and brown to the luxurious darker shades of the standard type of fur bearing animal. This exhibit is shown in a floodlit marquee suitably decorated in Royal colours.

271 Nominations

about 35 miles west of Ottawa. Mr. Doucett, 54, was reported "resting comfortably" tonight.
The total of 271 compares with the 290 candidates who contested the last provincial election in 1948. A record 317 entered the 1945 election, also won by the Progressive Conservatives who have been in office since 1943 after nine years of Liberal Party government.

Premier Frost, in a straight two-party fight in a Victoria riding, heads the list of 90 Progressive Conservatives who held 53 seats in the last House. His Liberal opponent is Edward Harding, a restaurateur in Minden, 30 miles north of Lindsay. Mr. Frost has held the seat since 1937.

Leading the Liberal Party for the first time in an election is Walter Thomson, Pickering lawyer elected head of the provincial party last year.
Mr. Thomson, whose party held 13 seats plus one Liberal-Labor seat in the last legislature, is seeking election in his home riding of Ontario. He has three opponents: Oshawa's Mavor Michael Starr, Progressive Conservative; T.D. Thomas, who held the seat for the

Speakers Discuss Current Problems In Education

Dr. A. W. Trueman, President of the University of New Brunswick, and Dr. Clement Cormier, President of St. Joseph's University were the principal speakers at the morning session of the Central Advisory Committee on Education for the Atlantic Provinces, held in the Prince of Wales College, held in the Prince of Wales College, held in the Prince of Wales College, held in the Prince of Wales College.

Dr. Trueman spoke on "A norm for required College English," and discussed the many weaknesses in the teaching of English, emphasizing that students should have a thorough grounding in English before leaving high school. He described the significance of a good grounding in language and literature in the history of human culture, in communication between men, and in the creation and development of ideas. He said it is vital to human progress and individual thinking.

Speaking on "Summer Schools as University credits," Dr. Cormier discussed the benefits of summer courses to ambitious students who could not take a full time degree course, but he warned that care should be taken to retain proper standards of university work. Summer courses sometimes require only a bare minimum of content, effort and thought.

He suggested that perhaps universities should give diplomas rather than degrees for summer course work to distinguish this work from that of earned degrees. After his address it was agreed by the meeting that a committee be set up to examine summer course facilities in the Maritime Provinces.

School Curriculum
A progress report on school curriculum revision was given by Dr. O. V. B. Miller, New Brunswick, Dr. A. B. Morrison, Nova Scotia, Dr. L. W. Shaw, P.E.I., and Mr. P. J. Hanley, Newfoundland. There were brief accounts of recent changes in school curriculum. A report on the possibilities of holding meetings between Maritime and Maine educationalists was discussed after a report on the subject by Dr. P. J. Nicholson, President of St. Francis Xavier University.

An invitation to the Central Advisory Committee was extended by Dr. A. W. Trueman for the 1952 meetings which will be held at the University of New Brunswick. The meeting adjourned following a motion of thanks for the hospitality of Prince of Wales College.

The meeting of the Common Examining Board of the Atlantic Provinces convened at 2.30 p.m. under the chairmanship of Dr. L. W. Shaw, and sat throughout the afternoon and evening. The business dealt with consisted of the secretary's report by Mr. R. W. Kane of Halifax, financial reports, and reports of examination setters and markers.

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 7 — (Reuters) — Eva Peron, wife of President Juan Peron, was resting today in hospital after successfully undergoing what was announced as a major operation yesterday.
