Que. Separatist Group Claimed Overemphasized

By DAVE BUTLER

HALIFAX (CP) — Mrs. C. Kirkland - Casgrain, minister without portfolio in Quebec's Liberal government, said here the 1,500,000 French - speaking people in Canada outside Quebec look to the province as their spokesman.

Mrs. Kirkland-Casgrain says the cause of the Acadian and western French-speaking people is not the same as that of Quebec.

Speaking at a press conference here she described herself as defender of both the English and French-Canadians.

She said the press has blown the importance of the separatist action in Quebec out of all proportion.

The 36 - year - old mother of three was in Halifax to attend a two-day interprovincial conference on collective bargaining.

Mrs. Kirkland-Casgrain said the Montreal world fair will be instrumental in forming an understanding between French and English speaking people in Canada.

"Many Canadians have not visited Montreal but I feel that when an occasion such as the world's fair comes along, people will come from all parts of the country."

She said Quebec would "pay whatever it owes" as a result of its taking over some of the province's power companies.

She said foreign investors would be paid for their holdings.
