To the Editor of the Colonial Herald. SIR,—Perceiving the leniency of the Crown lawyers, upon my late trial for alleged libel, to be much vaunted, of perhaps you will permit me to make a few remarks upon the subject. The Solicitor General performed his duty ably and well, but it has been noticed that the Attorney General was never observed, upon any previous occasion, to exert himself so strenuously—more so he could not possibly have done, had he been contending with a practised adversary, instead of a person who was never in a Court of law before, except as an evidence or a juror.

Your obedient servant, D. MACLEAN. Charlottetown, 5th July, 1843.

THE FAMILY LIFE MEDICINES. THE celebrated Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters, prepared and sold by Dr. Wm. B. Moffat, 375, Broadway, New York, may now be said to be the most respectably established and extensively adopted family medicines in the United States.

They have not only won the sanction and recommendation of all the candid and philanthropic portion of the medical profession, who have observed their invincible efficacy in general derangements of the stomach and bowels, and their astonishing effects in many varieties of acute and chronic disease, but what is far better achieved the distinguished and now certainly pre-eminent position which they now occupy in public and domestic estimation. They are proved by their works, and make no appeals to vulgar credulity. If the proprietor were disposed to make an invidious comparison between these self-established medicines and any others, he might confidently assert and challenge contradiction that there is no medicine known to the medical profession, or named in their books, concerning an immense accumulation of voluntary testimonials from respectable persons and families in all parts of the Union, far and near, who give their names and residence to the unsolicited statement that they have been completely and speedily cured of the following diseases, and of many others not here enumerated, by these Life Medicines alone, when other medicines had been long employed in vain, viz: Scrofula, in its dreadfully advanced and destructive stages, when large portions of the flesh and bones of the face had been destroyed; Piles of five, ten, twelve, thirty and even thirty-five years standing; Turgescence of the Liver, and chronic of the most hopeless character; Bilious Cholice, and every conceivable variety of bilious affections; Marasmus Tabes, or Decline, and Marasmus Phibitic, or Consumption, in more advanced stages than any on record; Dyspepsia, in all its chronic and acute varieties, with its frightful train of distressing symptoms; Worms of all kinds, both in children and grown persons. Diarrhoea, both serious and bilious; Costiveness, both habitual and occasional; Fever and Ague, in its three principal varieties, and intermittent remittent fevers, of all kinds; Hypochondriasis, and other extremely complicated nervous affections, with nervous debility in general; Sall Rheum, Running Scald, and St. Anthony's fire, and generally, including Erysipelas, Pimples of the heart, and Determia and shallow, unhealthy complexion; Palpitation of the heart, and Derivation of blood to the head, settled pains in the organs, limbs, back, head and side; affections of the bladder, kidneys, spleen, throat, and pleura; jaundice, dropsy and gout; together with those general affections of the system which arise from complicated causes.

The certificates of these cures are in the proprietor's possession, and will readily be shown to all who desire to see them. A small selection from them have been published in Moffat's Medical Manual, which is now new and enlarged edition is preparing for the press. The reason why these medicines, which in ordinary family use operate so powerfully and effectually as laxatives, cure so great a variety of formidable diseases, and while as cathartics, cleanse the alimentary canal, and relieving the liver and the absorbent vessels of all impurities, they lay the foundation for the cure of all specific diseases, they are compounded of unique and unprecedented variety of choice and exquisite ingredients, some of which are almost unknown to the profession, which exert a specific action upon many complaints, without in the slightest degree affecting the general system, otherwise than as simple purifiers, when those complaints are not present. Both the Pills and the Bitters are mild and agreeable in their operations, causing neither prostrations nor nausea, and requiring neither confinement nor peculiar diet. Their effects are uniformly to produce an immediate sense of renovated health, and new life and vigour to both body and mind. They cannot be taken without benefit, and should be procured both by individuals and heads of families, and constantly kept on hand not only as remedies but as preventatives of disease. They are prepared and sold wholesale and retail, by Dr. William B. Moffat, 375 Broadway, N.Y., and also by the AGENTS—NEW YORK COOPER & BREMNER, Agents for Prince Edward Island.

These valuable Medicines may also be had on application to Mr. George Farley, Sealestown, Bedeque; Mr. George Wigginton, Crapaud; and Mr. Edward Henry, Lot 18. Charlottetown, August 12, 1842.
