Vehicles Power Windows Now Moving Into Houses

By SEAN FINLAY
TORONTO (CP) — Three years ago house-builder Joseph Koblenky flicked a switch operating his car's power windows and a dream was born. That simple action started him on a train of thought which now $25,000 in research and countless experiments later, brought a new gadget to Canadian home owners — windows that open and close at the touch of a button.

gauge will close the windows when rain falls. Mr. Koblenky, a 53-year-old native of Winnipeg, said: "The car's power windows gave me an idea and I simply adapted a principle. The idea of power windows in homes struck me as something that was bound to come."

Eventually to be sold across Canada under the name Electro-Glide, the windows are primarily for installation in new homes, but can be adapted to older homes. Powered by a motor built in the United States, the windows run on a nylon track.

Washington Ponders Motor Vehicle Pact

By ARCH MACKENZIE
WASHINGTON (CP) — An agreement with Canada to abolish tariffs on most motor vehicles and their parts was described here by U.S. state undersecretary, Thomas Mann, "as one of the most significant international economic initiatives that we have taken in a number of years."

Trade in automotive products alone in 1964 was about $700,000,000. Connor noted that the U.S. automotive exports to Canada in the last two years averaged about $600,000,000 a year, a tally against imports from Canada of $80,000,000.

The agreement, signed Jan. 16 by Prime Minister Pearson and President Johnson, removes tariffs at the manufacturing level for most motor vehicles and the original parts in them. Said Mann: "Canada has laid aside the alternative of an autonomous automotive industry and has joined with us to create a rationalized and integrated North American automotive industry."

Under this bill, tariffs would be removed from imported Canadian cars retroactive to January. Canada has removed its tariffs on American material effective Jan. 17.

Mann said the existing price differential between the two countries runs about 10 per cent higher in Canada. In understanding between the Canadian government and the chief subsidiaries of parent American automakers, it was indicated that production by 1968 will run approximately $241,000,000 higher than would have occurred without the agreement.

Officers were chosen by the board after the annual meeting of CP, the national news-gathering co-operative, attended by newspaper executives and editors from across Canada.

Stuart Keate of Vancouver Sun was re-elected president of the Canadian Press by his fellow directors. A. F. Mercier of Quebec le Soleil was re-elected honorary president. St. Clair Balfour, Winnipeg Tribune, first vice-president; and R. A. Graybiel, Windsor Star, second vice-president.

HELSINKI (Reuters) — Miss Judy LaMarsh, Canadian minister of health and social affairs, arrived in Finland Tuesday for a three-day informal visit. She will see Finnish ministers of social affairs and education and study the Finnish national health plan.

CONTRACT BRIDGE

South can make the contract if he plays correctly. He wins the club with the ace, draws two rounds of trumps, cashes the A-K of spades, ruff a spade, and then plays the ten of clubs.

The bidding:
South West North East
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass
2 ♠ Pass 3 ♠ Pass
3 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ Pass
Opening lead—queen of clubs. A declarer certainly has a right to assume that his opponents are trying their best to damage him. He can surely base at least some of his plays on the method of defense adopted by one or both defenders, and this reliance upon the opponents' plays will often prove of assistance to him if a difficult situation.

First, let's suppose that East ducks, allowing West to win with the jack. In that case, West must yield a ruff and discard or else return a heart, permitting South to score the queen. Second, let's suppose that East takes the ten of clubs with the king. He also must yield a ruff and discard or return a heart. Obviously, his best return is a heart, which has the advantage of giving declarer a chance to go wrong in deciding whether to play the five or the queen.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's how to work it:
One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
