

His Majesty's court of King's Bench at Westminster, and the venue in such case laid at Westminster in the county of Middlesex.

X. And be it further enacted, that any penalty or forfeiture inflicted by this Act may be prosecuted, sued for, and recovered, by Action of Debt, Bill, plaint, or information, in any of His Majesty's courts of record at Westminster or Dublin, or in the court of exchequer, or in the court of session in Scotland, in the name of His Majesty's Attorney General for England and Ireland, or His Majesty's Advocate for Scotland, respectively, in the name of any person or persons whatsoever, wherein no essoin, privilege, or, licence, or, privilege, or, licence, or, privilege, or, licence, shall be allowed; and in every action or suit the person against whom judgment shall be given for any penalty or forfeiture under this Act shall pay double costs of suit; and every such action or suit shall and may be brought at any time within twelve months after the offence committed, and not afterwards; and one moiety of every penalty to be recovered by virtue of this Act shall go and be applied to His Majesty, His heirs or successors, and the other moiety to the use of such person or persons as shall first sue for the same, after deducting the charges of prosecution from the whole.

XI. And be it further enacted, that if any action or suit shall be commenced, either in Great Britain or elsewhere, against any person or persons for anything done in pursuance of this Act, all rules and regulations, privileges and protections, as to maintaining or defending any suit or action, and pleading therein, or any costs thereon, in relation to any acts, matters, or things done, or that may be done by any officer of customs or excise, or by any officer of His Majesty's Navy, under any Act of Parliament in force on or immediately before the passing of this Act, for the protection of the revenues of customs and excise, or prevention of smuggling, shall apply and be in full force in any such action or suit as shall be brought for anything done in pursuance of this Act, in as full and ample a manner to all intents and purposes as if the same privileges and protections were repeated and re-enacted in this Act.

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to subject to any penalty any person who shall enter into the Military service of any Prince, state, or potentate in Asia, with leave or licence, signified in the usual manner, from the Governor General in Council, or Vice President in Council, of Fort William in Bengal, or in conformity with any orders or regulations issued or sanctioned by such Governor General or Vice President in Council."

A PROCLAMATION

BY HIS HONOR

Sir ROBERT HODGSON, Knight,
Administrator and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Island, Prince Edward, and the Territories thereunto belonging, Chancellor, Vice Admiral and Ordinary of the same, &c., &c., &c.

WHEREAS, on the night of Tuesday, the Sixth day of July last, a certain building known as the "Hospital and Surgery and Quartermaster's Rooms," forming part of the Victoria Barracks Buildings, and situate at Brighton, in the Common of Charlottetown, was consumed by fire; and whereas, on the night of Saturday, the Fourteenth day of August, instant, a certain other Building, known as the 'Officers' Quarters,' and other buildings in the rear thereof, and being also part of the said Victoria Barracks Buildings, were also consumed by fire; and whereas, it is apprehended that the said fires originated by the wilful and felonious act of some evil disposed person or persons, at present undiscovered, Now, therefore, in order to the discovery and punishment of any person or persons guilty of any of the aforesaid atrocious acts of Incendiarism, I have thought fit, by and with the advice and consent of Her Majesty's Council, to proclaim; and I do hereby proclaim and offer a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS, to any person or persons not the actual party to the act, who will give such information and evidence as will lead to the discovery, apprehension and conviction, of the offender or offenders.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of this Island, this Twenty-sixth day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and in the thirty-third year of Her Majesty's Reign.

By command,
BENJAMIN DAVIES,
Colonial Sec'y.
