Presentation.

MR. COLEMAN, Superintendent of the P. E. Island Railway, has been presented by those of the officials on the Intercolony Railway, at Truro, of whom he was lately the chief, with a very handsome silver ice-pitcher, salver and goblet, and the following address:

TRURO, N. S., 25rd May, 1883.

James Coleman, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—We, the undersigned, members of the Intercolony Staff, at Truro, while tendering our hearty congratulations upon your well deserved promotion to the position of Superintendent of the Prince Edward Island Railway, cannot allow you to leave us without expressing our sincere sorrow at your removal, our intercourse with you having always been of the most pleasant nature.

We beg you to accept the accompanying slight token of our regard. Please convey our best wishes to Mrs. Coleman, whose absence we feel will be a loss to this community, where her many amiable qualities have so endeared her.

- WM. RENNELS, Chief Train Despatcher. THOS. REGAN, Trackmaster Esq. in Div. C. F. W. BELL, Train Despatcher.

This tribute to the worth of Mr. Coleman is the more gratifying that it comes from those with whom he has been most intimately associated and who know him best.

Several fights have taken place in the mountains between Albanians and Turks, resulting in heavy losses on both sides.

Eighteen officers were found guilty of complicity in the burning of Alexandria and sentenced to various terms of penal servitude.

About forty boys from England have just arrived in Toronto. They range in age from 6 to 16 years, and are a smart and intelligent looking lot.

The coroner's enquiry into the causes which led to the late terrible disaster on the Brooklyn bridge ended in a verdict that the deaths of the victims resulted from suffocation by being trampled upon, and the jury further found "the officers and the trustees responsible," in not having the bridge properly policed.

In the Commons on the 7th, Mr. O'Donnell, member for Danganran, gave notice that he would move that the appointment of the Marquis of Lansdowne as Governor-General of Canada, was calculated to excite great discontent, both among oppressed Irish in Ireland, who look upon the appointment as in no sense a conciliatory movement on the part of the Government, and among free Canadians.

The agent of the Liberian republic has just negotiated with Spain a convention providing for the repeal of the law prohibiting the introduction of free black laborers into Cuba. Two hundred thousand slaves in Cuba will become free in 1888.

Sir Wm. Harcourt, Home Secretary, read a letter from Lord Roseberry in which the latter stated that he had not resigned the office of Under Secretary for the Home Department because of the Home Secretary's statement in the House touching his duties.

It is related that the New Orleans mint once had an assayer, now gone to tell the secrets of his mysterious operations where all has to be told, who knew how to manage a mint for his personal advantage.

In the British Commons, on the 7th, Lord Randolph Churchill called attention to the mission of Mr. Errington to Rome, and argued that there could be no doubt that the Government had recommended him to the Vatican, the recent papal manifesto in regard to Irish affairs being the result.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Polite Reply.

MY DEAR SIR,—When I write anything approaching to what may be termed personal. I think it right to put my name to it, and not to shelter myself under a nom de plume.

P. S.—As to my opinion of the comparative merits of the Stewarts and the Guelphs I would quote from Shakespeare the words "Pauca verba," or, in English, "Least said is soonest mended." R. B. S.

GET THE BEST!

THOSE IN WANT OF SPECTACLES

SHOULD

CALL AT E. W. TAYLOR'S,

SOUTH SIDE QUEEN SQUARE, CITY.

HAVING had many years experience in fitting and adjusting Glasses, both in England and this country, he is confident there are not many having a deficiency of vision, who, by trying his Glasses, will not find themselves considerably benefited, as many residents of both city and country can testify.

Some persons are already using Glasses to strong for them, thereby injuring the eye. Others are trying the eye too much by not using Spectacles when they really need them.

For Long or Short Sight or Weak Sight,

WE KEEP A SELECTION OF

SPECTACLES AND EYE-GLASSES,
