Up to the present the 115 has been doing excellent work in clearing out the heavily silted channel, but the great amount of work yet to be done will not be finished before the fall shipping. The presence of the No. 9 would have assisted greatly in speeding up the clearing out process. However, it is possible that it may be sent here later in the fall.

The W. M. S. Rally for King's County was held in the United Church, Lower Montague, Tuesday afternoon at 2 p. m., and was attended by some 85 delegates from the following auxiliaries: Mt. Stewart, St. Peter's, Murray River, Murray Harbour, Valleyfield, Montague and Lower Montague, as well as a number of visitors. Mrs. MacLeod presided at the meeting which opened with a worship period conducted by members of the Murray River auxiliary. The delegates were welcomed by Mrs. Mort MacLean, Montague and Mrs. William Bruce of Valleyfield replied. Greetings from Mrs. MacFarlane, Island president, and from Mrs. John Scott, Christian citizenship convener were brought to the delegates. The convener for Christian fellowship gave a splendid report, and the supply stressed the need of used clothing for overseas relief, and also the need in Labrador.

Mrs. Avard of Charlottetown, who attended the Maritime conference branch meeting at Sackville on June 6, 7, 8, gave a very fine report of the meetings and urged the members, if possible, to attend the next bi-annual meeting. T. groups. Miss Newsom was guest speaker for the afternoon, and was introduced by the president. Miss Newsom is a home missions worker. She told of her own personal experience in the "coke ovens" near Sydney, N. S., where she was sent by the "Mission Band in 1922. In coke ovens she worked among Hungarians, Ukrainians, etc.

Miss Newsom realized one of the first great needs was to establish a fresh air camp for the children. One year later her dream was realized, and she with another mission worker, and some forty children set up their tents on land given for their children, are also on holiday at the Kilmuir home. They motored from Mississippi via Toronto, where they visited Mrs. MacDonald's parents and family.

Lt. and Dr. MacDonald and family have also been visiting their sister, Mrs. W. A. Bruce, Mr. Bruce and family at Valleyfield.
