Former Islander Dies In Worcester

Mr. James F. Graham, formerly of Stanchel, P. E. I., passed away at the Hahnemann Hospital, Worcester, Mass. on Saturday, January 23rd in his 79th year.

The late Mr. Graham with his wife, the former Flora MacDonald who predeceased him in 1944, moved to Stanchel in 1921 and took up farming on the MacDonald homestead. They had previously lived in Lynn, Mass. where Mr. Graham was employed with the post office department and was required to relinquish his position because of ill health.

Although retaining his American citizenship, Mr. Graham was always keenly interested in the political affairs of his adopted land. He was a staunch member of the Damascus Masonic Lodge in Lynn, Mass. and took great pleasure in visiting the various lodges throughout the island where he made a host of friends.

In 1951 Mr. Graham left the island to retire to the Masonic Home in Charlottetown, P. E. I. He had been in hospital for a major operation from which he failed to rally. His funeral will be held in Worcester, Mass. today.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mr. Frederick Simmons, who passed away January 24, 1939, and Mrs. Frederick Simmons, who passed away May 18th, 1951.

They say time heals all sorrow And helps us to forget, But time has only meant to us How much we miss them yet.

The old home now is broken No longer there we roam, For the hands that rest forever Are the hands that made our home.

Always remembered by daughters Clara and Ethel.

THE ANNUAL parish meeting of the congregation of St. John's Church, Crapaud, will be held in the Church Centre Monday, Jan. 25th at 8 p.m. Rev. George R. F. Ebsary, Rector.

RETURN TO CITY—Mrs. A. Birtwhistle returned from Chester, N. S. on Saturday after visiting her son Ken and his family there for the past month.

POLICE COURT—A man charged with driving a car while intoxicated, appeared before Magistrate K. M. Martin in City Police Court Saturday morning and was fined $100 and costs or 20 days in jail.

FIREMEN CALLED—Firemen were called shortly after midnight for a blaze resulting from a fire in a house on the corner of Elm Ave and Gerald Street. Damage, confined mostly to the kitchen, was slight.

WATER COMMISSIONERS—A news announcement on Saturday indicated that two of the three Water and Sewerage Commissioners will not be seeking re-election in the Civic Election next month. While there have been no official announcements as to candidates to fill these posts, prominently mentioned is Mr. Wallace L. Higgins who for many years was secretary to the Charlottetown Board of Trade.

HARBOUR ICE—The first real skating day of the winter season saw large crowds take advantage of the opportunity for old time skating on the rivers and in the harbour. A clear, crisp day and a good sheet of ice was too much for some of the younger boys and several of them skated down the North River and as far as Falconwood Point before returning.

SUNDAY SONG SERVICE—The regular Sunday Evening Song Service of the Trinity Young People Union was held in the social hall of the church last evening. The singing was led by Clair MacLean and Don Wood. The guest of the evening was soloist Miss Nancy MacNevin accompanied by Mr. Kelvin Johnson at the piano. After refreshments were served, the meeting closed with Bless the tie, and the Mizpah Benediction.

FUNERAL SERVICE—The funeral of James Edward McKenna was held Saturday morning from the residence of his son, Elmer McKenna, 148 Elm Avenue, to St. Dunstan's Basilica, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Monsignor Patrick McMahon, who also conducted service at the grave. Pall bearers were Stanley Thompson, Arthur McQuaid, Reginald Barwise, Lyall Gurney, Howard Molyneux and Victor Egan. Interment was in the Catholic Cemetery.

TEACHERS' ASS'N. MEET—The Teachers' Association of School Unit No. 1 held its regular monthly meeting in Parkdale School on January 19. It was suggested that a speaker be found to address the February meeting on the new science text books. A committee comprised of the principals of each school was formed to look into the possibilities of holding ice sports for the Unit Schools. Mr. Costello agreed to act as convener. An interesting feature of the meeting was a history demonstration and film presented by Mr. Costello and the Grade VIII pupils of East Royalty School. Refreshments were served by the teachers of Winsloe and East Royalty Schools.

Monthly Meeting Jr. Ladies Aid P.E.I. Hospital

The regular monthly meeting of the Junior Ladies Aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital was held on January 19th at the Canada Home with 24 members present.

The president, Mrs. T. A. Laidlaw, opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer, repeated in unison, after which the minutes of the Dec. meeting were read and approved.

In the absence of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Laidlaw read a letter from the P. E. I. Chapter of the Polio Foundation asking the help of the Junior Aid in the March of Dimes Campaign. Mrs. Laidlaw volunteered to attend the meeting on January 20, and Mrs. J. A. Haslam, Mrs. Robert Large, Mrs. S. G. Ives, Mrs. Alfred McNeill, Mrs. Allison Gillis, Mrs. Lloyd Cox and Mrs. Wm. McNeill offered to help with the collections.

The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. J. O. McLean who also reported for the card, asking for volunteers and reminding the members that each member is responsible for her day. Mrs. Stirling MacDonald reported for the card's finances. A volunteer to look after the magazines for the card was called for but this matter was held open until the Feb. meeting.

The president next thanked the members who decorated the Christmas trees for the hospital. It was decided to send a note of thanks to Chappell and Co., for their help, especially with the outside tree.

Mrs. Raynor, the convener of the Fashion Show reported that the show will be held on April 5th at the Prince Edward Theatre. Only those committees which have to start work immediately have been formed as yet and the committee chairmen to date are as follows:
